

The Chatham Record

THURSDAY, JULY 8, 1880.

LOCAL RECORDS.

Brown's Office. — The Brown office is now prepared to print all kinds of Notices, Circulars, Handbills, &c. Good work at low prices.

Travelers between here and Monroe will find Ben Cheek, a splendid driver and very polite to his passengers. Read his advertisement.

With much pleasure we call attention to the school notice of Mr. G. W. Holmes, a recent graduate of Trinity College and now a student at the University Normal School.

A few more of those nice silk parasols, at copy, for each. If you need one hurry up, for they are being sold very fast. Ladies hats at cost, for each. Another supply of those cheap corsets at London's cheap store.

A Lot of good peach peaches for sale at London's Cheap Store, 30000 lbs. of dried fruit wanted. A good supply of flour-sacking very cheap. If you need a suit of clothes, now is the time to get gains. A little money will go a long way at London's Cheap Store. Come once and see the bargain.

Selling Coins. — A load of rather peculiar kind was brought to this place last Monday for sale. It was a load of coins, but this being so healthy a town there was no demand for them.

Threshing Wheat. — The hand of the wheat-thresher is now heard throughout our country, and we are pleased to learn that generally the wheat is turning out well, although some were expected in some cases.

Swapping Suits. — Some days ago, while Mr. Brian Johnson, of this county, and his clothes hung out to dry near the spring, they were stolen, as was also a large milk from the spring house. In looking around for traces of the thief, a suit of striped clothes was found, which, though somewhat disheveled, a thief had swapped for Mr. Johnson's suit.

Marriage Licenses. — It is somewhat remarkable that during the month of June, when the day and night were longer than during any other month of the year, Our Register of Deeds has issued in the past month only two marriage licenses. If this is kept up one might naturally ask, what will become of the country?

Mail Storm. — A severe mail storm passed through the western part of this county and the edge of Randolph on the night of the 26th of June. In the heat of the storm, the postman was particular about the letter-bag, holding it in large quantities, and giving it a good growing come. That afternoon it seemed to have prevailed very generally over the State, and at many places much damage was done.

The First. — The Brown office claims the honor of being the first newspaper in North Carolina to give its readers portraits of Hancock and English. As soon as the announcement was made we ordered copies of so as to give our readers the earliest opportunity in seeing what sort of men had been nominated. This, however, did not seem to have prevailed very generally over the State, and at many places much damage was done.

A Numerous Family. — We are informed by Mr. J. George Hanner, the efficient census enumerator in the Matthews township, that there are by that township 163 persons named Siler. Of that number 40 are voters, and to the credit of their name it is known that every voter votes the straight democratic ticket. In addition to those of that name living in Matthews township, there are quite a number of others living in the Albright township.

Large Cat.

Mr. Solomon Dixon, of this country, recently killed a cat that weighed nine hundred and ten pounds, and was only six weeks old.

Holiday Nominated.

The representatives of this District held their convention at Raleigh on the 6th inst., and nominated Moses A. Bostick, of Wake, as their candidate for Congress, to be defeated by Gen. Cox. He is the same individual who started to run against the Davis two years ago, but had since enough to do, and before November he will wish he had remained withdrawn.

Mr. T. L. Hartigan, of Greenville, was nominated for Justice of Peace.

Mitch Cat.

There are three wedded couples, two of whom live in Oshion and the third in Pender, but all living in the same neighborhood, of who have in the aggregate 27 daughters. One couple has 7, another 9, and the third 11. — Wilmington Review.

Active Old Man.

Mr. Franklin Stillwell, of Sandy Ridge Township, who is 73 years old, says he can climb a thirty foot peeled pole like his best around it, and come down head foremost with his back to the pole. He is a truthful man. — Monroe Express.

A Greedy Bird.

A little girl in this city was feeding a young chick bird this morning, when suddenly it caught the tongue which was hanging out of the mouth, and snatched it. Friends came to her assistance, and pulled the poor out of the tight throat. — Raleigh Visitor.

Gild BIRD.

Some conjectured the bird must have been very hungry, and the mother bird had probably飛食 one bird, when, with the remaining pigeons, snatched the chick in pair of bills and flew off with it. — New York Tribune.

Killed by Rats.

In the Brown office yesterday received a telegram from Mr. A. C. Moore, of New Bern, to the effect that his son, Mr. W. H. Moore, had been killed by rats in the city of New Bern. — New York Tribune.

Killed by Rats.

A man named Peter, of Stony Creek, near a town in Charlotte, was killed by his own dog, which had been sent to him by a friend, and was said to be a good dog. — New York Tribune.

Killed by Rats.

In the Brown office yesterday received a telegram from Mr. W. H. Moore, of New Bern, to the effect that his son, Mr. W. H. Moore, had been killed by rats in the city of New Bern. — New York Tribune.

Killed by Rats.

Mr. B. L. McRae, son of Mr. McRae, of New Bern, was killed by rats in the city of New Bern. — New York Tribune.

Killed by Rats.

In the Brown office yesterday received a telegram from Mr. W. H. Moore, of New Bern, to the effect that his son, Mr. W. H. Moore, had been killed by rats in the city of New Bern. — New York Tribune.

Killed by Rats.

In the Brown office yesterday received a telegram from Mr. W. H. Moore, of New Bern, to the effect that his son, Mr. W. H. Moore, had been killed by rats in the city of New Bern. — New York Tribune.

Killed by Rats.

In the Brown office yesterday received a telegram from Mr. W. H. Moore, of New Bern, to the effect that his son, Mr. W. H. Moore, had been killed by rats in the city of New Bern. — New York Tribune.

Killed by Rats.

In the Brown office yesterday received a telegram from Mr. W. H. Moore, of New Bern, to the effect that his son, Mr. W. H. Moore, had been killed by rats in the city of New Bern. — New York Tribune.

Killed by Rats.

In the Brown office yesterday received a telegram from Mr. W. H. Moore, of New Bern, to the effect that his son, Mr. W. H. Moore, had been killed by rats in the city of New Bern. — New York Tribune.

Killed by Rats.

In the Brown office yesterday received a telegram from Mr. W. H. Moore, of New Bern, to the effect that his son, Mr. W. H. Moore, had been killed by rats in the city of New Bern. — New York Tribune.

Killed by Rats.

In the Brown office yesterday received a telegram from Mr. W. H. Moore, of New Bern, to the effect that his son, Mr. W. H. Moore, had been killed by rats in the city of New Bern. — New York Tribune.

Killed by Rats.

In the Brown office yesterday received a telegram from Mr. W. H. Moore, of New Bern, to the effect that his son, Mr. W. H. Moore, had been killed by rats in the city of New Bern. — New York Tribune.

Killed by Rats.

In the Brown office yesterday received a telegram from Mr. W. H. Moore, of New Bern, to the effect that his son, Mr. W. H. Moore, had been killed by rats in the city of New Bern. — New York Tribune.

Killed by Rats.

In the Brown office yesterday received a telegram from Mr. W. H. Moore, of New Bern, to the effect that his son, Mr. W. H. Moore, had been killed by rats in the city of New Bern. — New York Tribune.

Killed by Rats.

In the Brown office yesterday received a telegram from Mr. W. H. Moore, of New Bern, to the effect that his son, Mr. W. H. Moore, had been killed by rats in the city of New Bern. — New York Tribune.

Killed by Rats.

In the Brown office yesterday received a telegram from Mr. W. H. Moore, of New Bern, to the effect that his son, Mr. W. H. Moore, had been killed by rats in the city of New Bern. — New York Tribune.

Killed by Rats.

In the Brown office yesterday received a telegram from Mr. W. H. Moore, of New Bern, to the effect that his son, Mr. W. H. Moore, had been killed by rats in the city of New Bern. — New York Tribune.

Killed by Rats.

In the Brown office yesterday received a telegram from Mr. W. H. Moore, of New Bern, to the effect that his son, Mr. W. H. Moore, had been killed by rats in the city of New Bern. — New York Tribune.

Killed by Rats.

In the Brown office yesterday received a telegram from Mr. W. H. Moore, of New Bern, to the effect that his son, Mr. W. H. Moore, had been killed by rats in the city of New Bern. — New York Tribune.

Killed by Rats.

In the Brown office yesterday received a telegram from Mr. W. H. Moore, of New Bern, to the effect that his son, Mr. W. H. Moore, had been killed by rats in the city of New Bern. — New York Tribune.

A Dog Fishing.

A dog belonging to W. H. Ayers, of Johnston county, went into the creek the other day in that country and caught over a hundred largemouth fish in less than an hour. — Raleigh Visitor.

Policeman Shot.

A policeman, in attempting to arrest a negro Saturday evening in Fayetteville, was shot fatally by a negro. The policeman was alive at last accounts, but had worse enough to wish, and before November he will wish he had remained withdrawn.

Mr. T. L. Hartigan.

The representatives of this District held their convention at Raleigh on the 6th inst., and nominated Moses A. Bostick, of Wake, as their candidate for Congress, to be defeated by Gen. Cox. He is the same individual who started to run against the Davis two years ago, but had since enough to do, and before November he will wish he had remained withdrawn.

London's Nomination.

The representatives of this District held their convention at Raleigh on the 6th inst., and nominated Moses A. Bostick, of Wake, as their candidate for Congress, to be defeated by Gen. Cox. He is the same individual who started to run against the Davis two years ago, but had since enough to do, and before November he will wish he had remained withdrawn.

London's Nomination.

The representatives of this District held their convention at Raleigh on the 6th inst., and nominated Moses A. Bostick, of Wake, as their candidate for Congress, to be defeated by Gen. Cox. He is the same individual who started to run against the Davis two years ago, but had since enough to do, and before November he will wish he had remained withdrawn.

London's Nomination.

The representatives of this District held their convention at Raleigh on the 6th inst., and nominated Moses A. Bostick, of Wake, as their candidate for Congress, to be defeated by Gen. Cox. He is the same individual who started to run against the Davis two years ago, but had since enough to do, and before November he will wish he had remained withdrawn.

London's Nomination.

The representatives of this District held their convention at Raleigh on the 6th inst., and nominated Moses A. Bostick, of Wake, as their candidate for Congress, to be defeated by Gen. Cox. He is the same individual who started to run against the Davis two years ago, but had since enough to do, and before November he will wish he had remained withdrawn.

London's Nomination.

The representatives of this District held their convention at Raleigh on the 6th inst., and nominated Moses A. Bostick, of Wake, as their candidate for Congress, to be defeated by Gen. Cox. He is the same individual who started to run against the Davis two years ago, but had since enough to do, and before November he will wish he had remained withdrawn.

London's Nomination.

The representatives of this District held their convention at Raleigh on the 6th inst., and nominated Moses A. Bostick, of Wake, as their candidate for Congress, to be defeated by Gen. Cox. He is the same individual who started to run against the Davis two years ago, but had since enough to do, and before November he will wish he had remained withdrawn.

London's Nomination.

The representatives of this District held their convention at Raleigh on the 6th inst., and nominated Moses A. Bostick, of Wake, as their candidate for Congress, to be defeated by Gen. Cox. He is the same individual who started to run against the Davis two years ago, but had since enough to do, and before November he will wish he had remained withdrawn.

London's Nomination.

The representatives of this District held their convention at Raleigh on the 6th inst., and nominated Moses A. Bostick, of Wake, as their candidate for Congress, to be defeated by Gen. Cox. He is the same individual who started to run against the Davis two years ago, but had since enough to do, and before November he will wish he had remained withdrawn.

London's Nomination.

The representatives of this District held their convention at Raleigh on the 6th inst., and nominated Moses A. Bostick, of Wake, as their candidate for Congress, to be defeated by Gen. Cox. He is the same individual who started to run against the Davis two years ago, but had since enough to do, and before November he will wish he had remained withdrawn.

London's Nomination.

The representatives of this District held their convention at Raleigh on the 6th inst., and nominated Moses A. Bostick, of Wake, as their candidate for Congress, to be defeated by Gen. Cox. He is the same individual who started to run against the Davis two years ago, but had since enough to do, and before November he will wish he had remained withdrawn.

London's Nomination.

The representatives of this District held their convention at Raleigh on the 6th inst., and nominated Moses A. Bostick, of Wake, as their candidate for Congress, to be defeated by Gen. Cox. He is the same individual who started to run against the Davis two years ago, but had since enough to do, and before November he will wish he had remained withdrawn.

London's Nomination.

The representatives of this District held their convention at Raleigh on the 6th inst., and nominated Moses A. Bostick, of Wake, as their candidate for Congress, to be defeated by Gen. Cox. He is the same individual who started to run against the Davis two years ago, but had since enough to do, and before November he will wish he had remained withdrawn.

London's Nomination.

The representatives of this District held their convention at Raleigh on the 6th inst., and nominated Moses A. Bostick, of Wake, as their candidate for Congress, to be defeated by Gen. Cox. He is the same individual who started to run against the Davis two years ago, but had since enough to do, and before November he will wish he had remained withdrawn.

London's Nomination.

The representatives of this District held their convention at Raleigh on the 6th inst., and nominated Moses A. Bostick, of Wake, as their candidate for Congress, to be defeated by Gen. Cox. He is the same individual who started to run against the Davis two years ago, but had since enough to do, and before November he will wish he had remained withdrawn.

London's Nomination.

The representatives of this District held their convention at Raleigh on the 6th inst., and nominated Moses A. Bostick, of Wake, as their candidate for Congress, to be defeated by Gen. Cox. He is the same individual who started to run against the Davis two years ago, but had since enough to do, and before November he will wish he had remained withdrawn.

London's Nomination.

The representatives of this District held their convention at Raleigh on the 6th inst., and nominated Moses A. Bostick, of Wake, as their candidate for Congress, to be defeated by Gen. Cox. He is the same individual who started to run against the Davis two years ago, but had since enough to do, and before November he will wish he had remained withdrawn.

London's Nomination.

The representatives of this District held their convention at Raleigh on the 6th inst., and nominated Moses A. Bostick, of Wake, as their candidate for Congress, to be defeated by Gen. Cox. He is the same individual who started to run against the Davis two years ago, but had since enough to do, and before November he will wish he had remained withdrawn.

London's Nomination.

The representatives of this District held their convention at Raleigh on the 6th inst., and nominated Moses A. Bostick, of Wake, as their candidate for Congress, to be defeated by Gen. Cox. He is the same individual who started to run against the Davis two years ago, but had since enough to do, and before November he will wish he had remained withdrawn.

London's Nom