

LOCAL RECORDS.

During these long nights how can a man better amuse or instruct himself and family than by reading for an hour THE RECORD?

Read advertisement of The Evening Visitor. Would that all visitors would make themselves as welcome as our Raleigh contemporaries.

We regret to part with subscribers, but as a large number of those who subscribed for the campaign have not renewed, we have this week stopped their paper.

Job Printing neatly done at The Record office. Magistrates' blanks furnished at low prices. Have your tickets, hand-bills and circulars printed at The Record office. Good work and low prices.

We take pleasure in calling attention to the advertisement of that reliable firm, Messrs. A. E. Rankin & Co., and hope our readers will give them a call when they go to Fayetteville.

Gentlemen wishing to buy SHIRTS can find the largest assortment and the best for the least money at London's Cheap Store. He has just received his second stock this fall. He is now receiving a splendid stock of Boots and Shoes, and men's, ladies' and children's Rubbers.

You will find a splendid stock of Men's and Boys' Cassimeres, Jennies, etc., at London's Cheap Store. If you need White or Red Flannels, London's Cheap Store is the place. He also has a large stock of Blankets—extra cheap. Men's, women's and children's Shawls at great bargains. Have you ever seen his Table Oil Cloths?

Curious Potato.

Mr. Samuel W. Brewer, of this county, has sent us quite a curious potato, being nearly two feet long if stretched out, but it is twisted and tied up into a knot.

Large Turnip.

Mrs. Jenima Terry, of this county, has sent us the largest turnip that we have seen this season. It weighs five and a quarter pounds and is twenty two inches in circumference. Who can beat it?

Bishop's Visitation.

On Sunday next, the 14th inst., Bishop Lyman will preach and administer the rite of confirmation at the Episcopal church in this place. Services will begin at 11 o'clock. The public invited to attend.

Turner's Almanac.

We have received from the publisher, James H. Emiss of Raleigh, a copy of Turner's N. C. Almanac for 1881, which is not only useful to the general public but especially so to farmers, and is said to be the best State calendar ever issued in the South. Get a copy.

Marriage Licenses.

We were so much occupied last week in giving our readers the election returns that we neglected mentioning the number of marriage licenses issued last month. They were 11, of which five were to whites and six to blacks, being two less than the number issued in October of last year. We suppose the number will greatly increase as Christmas approaches.

A Paper's Influence.

We thank our esteemed contemporary, the Wilmington Review, for the following kindly allusion to THE RECORD:

"The influence which an ably-edited newspaper is able to exercise on the public mind is well illustrated in Chatham county. Some very able articles appeared in THE CHATHAM RECORD in opposition to the proposed insane amendment to the Constitution, and the result is that the same amendment was defeated in that county by more than a thousand majority, both parties voting against it. Chatham also acquitted herself handsomely on the general and State tickets."

Township Constables.

The following persons were elected Constables in the several townships of this county at the recent election, viz:

Table listing Constables by township: CENTRE TOWNSHIP—Spence Taylor, BALDWIN—R. R. Hamlet, MATTHEWS—Oliver Vestal, WILLIAMS—John J. Knight, GULF—Josiah Tysor, NEW HOPE—Wiley Goodwin, ALBERTON—M. Overman, HADLEY—H. W. Lewis, HICKORY MT.—John S. Campbell, CAPE FEAR—W. P. Burt, OAKLAND—T. H. Harrington, BEAR CREEK—Thomas H. Ellis.

Congressional Vote.

The following is the official vote for the candidates for Congress in this District:

Table showing Congressional vote for Cox and Bledsoe in various townships: Chatham, Franklin, Granville, Johnston, Nash, Orange, Wake, Cox's majority.

"Roll of Honor."

One more name has been added to the "roll of honor" of the Pittsboro Academy—Miss Lula Clegg.

Cotton Market.

Our town in its old age is becoming quite a cotton market, if we may judge from the bales piled up in our streets. We are surprised that more cotton is not brought here for sale.

A Warning.

We are informed by Mr. D. C. Goodwin (the clever Postmaster at Rialto) that one day last week, Mr. S. A. Morgan attempted to cross New Hope on the bridge at Fearing tons' mill on horseback, while a wagon was on the bridge coming from the opposite direction, but on meeting the wagon his horse got hung in its wheels and was dragged about forty feet, throwing Mr. Morgan and hurting him very badly. It is dangerous to attempt to pass a vehicle on a bridge, and this should be a warning to all others.

County Correspondents.

We hope our friends in the different sections of the county will write letters to THE RECORD giving all the items of news in their respective localities, and discussing any and all matters that may interest and instruct the public. Get up some subject for discussion, and let the advocates of each side express their views through the columns of their county paper. Suppose we agitate the idea of forming farmers' clubs in every neighborhood? Why not discuss the practicability of holding a county fair next fall? There are many matters that our people might to their advantage discuss, and we will gladly publish all such communications.

Coroner and Surveyor.

We give herewith the vote of this county for Coroner and Surveyor, which was omitted last week: FOR CORONER: Dr. O. B. Strowd, 2221; Francis Farrel, 1651; FOR SURVEYOR: Rufus B. Clegg, 2221; George W. Foushee, 1672. It will be seen that the democratic candidates for Coroner and Surveyor received exactly the same number of votes, and also the highest vote given in this county, except Exline's. The republicans persisted in voting for Mr. Foushee for Surveyor, although he had it announced by one of our candidates all over the county that he would not accept the position, and worked most zealously for all our ticket, contributing greatly to its success.

The Cumberland Fair.

We hope that our countrymen will not forget that the eightieth Annual Fair of the Cumberland County Agricultural Society will be held next week. These fairs of our sister county are usually very creditable, and we learn that this one will not be inferior to any of its predecessors. Every effort is being made by the gentlemen, who have it in charge, to make it a grand success, and we trust that the people of Chatham will encourage them by carrying their products to exhibit. In some of its departments the Cumberland fairs are not inferior to our State fairs, and we hope that our Chatham people will emulate the energy of their neighbors and next year have a fair of our own.

The rates upon the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad have been greatly reduced, so as to give all an opportunity of attending the fair. Read the advertisement elsewhere published, and make your arrangements to go.

STATE NEWS.

Suicide. Mrs. Wetherington, wife of Robert Wetherington of Pitt county, committed suicide last week by drowning. She jumped in a marl hole, filled with water in a fit of insanity.—Kinston Journal.

Raleigh's Scholar. There are now more than 1,000 children being educated in the public schools of Raleigh, the number being about equally divided between the white and colored races.—Raleigh Star.

Warning to Boys. Henry Jeffrey, a colored boy was killed Saturday at Forestville by trying to fire a gun. It burst, and a piece of the iron struck him on the head. He died in a half an hour afterwards. He was 13 or 14 years of age.—Raleigh Visitor.

Assassinated. Mr. Robert Parker was foully assassinated by someone on last Saturday evening, while he was alone at work in the woods near his house, his assailant using a gun loaded with buckshot, three of which were lodged in his bowels.—Monroe Enquirer.

Third Crop. Mr. James Faulkner brought us last week a pretty fair-sized apple which, he states, is the 3d crop produced on this tree since last January. The tree seems to be a perpetual bearer, as there are young apples just starting on it making the 4th crop of 1880.—Kinston Journal.

Bridge Breaking.

Whilst Mr. Walter F. L. Steele and James T. Le-Grand, Esq., were crossing Mountain Creek bridge near the Grass Islands, on Sunday last, in a buggy, the bridge fell in, but fortunately they escaped without injury. The buggy was washed up and the horse badly hurt.—Rockingham Spirit.

Ripe Strawberries.

Mr. George M. Philier, of this city, brought us some nice ripe strawberries on the 29th of October, which he gathered on that day, and he informs us he has been gathering strawberries for several weeks previous—proving how warm and fructifying the fall has been to vegetation in this section.—Charlotte Democrat.

Republican Intimidation.

Two negroes living in this county came to J. L. Scott, Esq., one day last week, and told him that they desired to vote the Democratic ticket, but were afraid to do so; that they had previously expressed an intention to vote for the Democratic candidates, but that they had been threatened with violence by republicans if they should vote any other than the republican ticket.—Alamance Gleaner.

Escape of Convicts.

On Saturday night last eleven prisoners escaped from the works on the Jones and Onslow County and Pocosin Railroad, stationed near Polkville, Jones county. It seems that the guard had gone to sleep, and the convicts took advantage of the occasion, sawed a log asunder in the back of the guard-room and made good their escape, and when the guard woke up, "their chickens were gone."—Raleigh Star.

Fish and Fowl.

Nearly every house on our coast presents a busy scene of activity, the women and children making nets, the men building-batteries, painting stool ducks, etc., getting ready for fishing and ducking, which commenced on the 1st of November. Wild fowl are now abundant in Currituck sound, and the whistle of the duck, the honk of the goose, and the "whoopy whoopy" of the swan are heard at every turn. Taylor and Hampton killed 428 ducks in two days in October, the 18th and 19th.—Elizabeth City Economist.

Cutting Serape.

A Chapel Hill correspondent of the News and Observer, under date of the 7th inst., says: "One Bert Stuart cut Baxter King in the neighborhood of this place this evening. The parties had been drinking and had quarreled, and on going home together Stuart cut King's throat very severely. Some think he will die. Stuart went to a neighbor's house, washed off the blood and told them that he had cut King. He then left the neighborhood. A warrant was issued for his arrest, and a party started in pursuit at once."

A Horrible Tragedy.

A most horrible tragedy recently occurred near Batesville, Ohio. Frank M. Bridenbaugh, a wealthy young German, who three years ago married a daughter of a neighboring farmer, came home last Saturday night intoxicated and entering the room where his wife and child were sleeping, assaulted them with an axe. His wife's skull was crushed by a single blow, and then he cut his son's throat with the edge of the axe. He then went to a room where Mrs. Stephens, a visitor and her child and servant were sleeping, and killed Mrs. Stephens and her child. The servant girl awakened and sprang toward the door, but was knocked senseless and left for dead. Upon recovering consciousness she gave the alarm, and the neighbors came to the house. It was not till morning that the murderer was found, in a tobacco house, with his throat cut. He is not fatally injured. Jealousy, drunkenness and insanity, are supposed to have led to the commission of the horrible crime.

A Luteky Speculator.

Mr. Phillip Armour, the Chicago pork dealer, has gathered in $4,000,000 as the result of his late career in log products, which, with his profits of last year, puts him six millions ahead on his deals.

Inventors and Patentees.

Should send for instructions, terms, references, etc., to Edison Brothers, Solicitors of Patents, Washington, D. C., who furnish the same without charge. Edison Brothers is a well known and successful firm of large experience, having been established in 1866.

Court Clerk Indicted.

The grand jury found a true bill against Wm. N. Hunter, Superior Court Clerk, for burning county records. This was the fire that burned up nearly one block in Kinston last spring. Mr. Hunter gave bond in the sum of $1,000.—Kinston Journal.

A Notorious "Moonshiner."

Yesterday the United States Commissioner had before him a party long wanted by the authorities. It was Jordan Farrington, colored, known as the "boss distiller" of Wake. He is the most notorious of all illicit distillers hereabouts. For eighteen months he has been looked for but was never captured until Saturday night, when a special deputy bagged him. He was sent to jail by the commissioner yesterday, in default of $2,000 bail. His headquarters were in White Oak township. Two years ago there was strange to say, much illicit distilling in this county, but since that time the revenue people have about stamped it out. "Moonshining" in Wake is well nigh ended.—News and Observer.

Curious Election Bets.

The loser in a Memphis bet is to stand on his head five minutes, in a public square, with a Garfield banner suspended from his feet. A wheelbarrow bet in Baltimore afforded more amusement to the spectators than had been expected. The loser was annoyed while wheeling the winner over the stipulated route by the taunts of the latter, and followed up the payment of the wager by whipping him soundly. Joseph S. Miller and Henry Kleindients, of Rochester, N. Y., bet on the election, the loser to walk a block at noon attired in his wife's night dress. Miller lost, and at noon on Wednesday Miller appeared and walked in Mrs. Miller's night gown, followed by a crowd of men and boys.

A Harrisburg man was caught by the tricky offer of a wager that one city in the United States of over 100,000 inhabitants would not give 600 votes for Hancock. The stake was a supper for the ward campaign club of the winner. The city named was Washington, where there is no voting for President at all. The victim said nothing, except to name the time and place for the supper. On that occasion the viands looked all right, and were just such as the written terms of the bet called for, but they were found to be seasoned with snuff and other unpalatable substances.—New York Sun.
