

AN EXCURSION party of Pennsylvania farmers has visited our State within the past few days with a view of locating lands. They have visited Henderson, Raleigh, Charlotte and other towns, and everywhere have been received most kindly and entertained most hospitably.

THE EXPOSITION at Louisville, Kentucky, was formally opened on the 1st day of this month, with imposing ceremonies. The President of the United States honored the occasion with his presence, and after holding a short and appropriate speech, addressed the immense crowds of people.

THE COMPLETION of the first volume has at last been published and copies thereof are now being distributed for one of which we are indebted to Senator Ramsey. It is much to be regretted that so long a time should be consumed in the preparation and publication of the series.

IN GLANCING over the statistics which we were so surprised to find published that we cannot refrain from commenting thereon at this time in order to refer to the statistics concerning "Dairy Products."

THE WAGON MANUFACTURING industry in North Carolina has been making a steady and rapid advance. The amount of capital invested in this industry in North Carolina is estimated at $1,000,000, and the value of the product is estimated at $2,000,000.

THE DIFFERENCE between the price of butter in the North and South is a subject of much interest. The price in the North is generally higher than in the South.
