

The Chatham Record

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1883

LOCAL RECORDS.

Read the new advertisement of Mr. Frank W. Thornton.

A Christmas tree will be given on Christmas night to the Sunday school of the M. Th. church at Haywood.

We hear that Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Reid will shortly move here and occupy their dwelling now rented to Capt. Exline.

Col. James P. Rives, one of the oldest magistrates in this county, has resigned, and Mr. D. E. Rives has been appointed in his place.

Hardin, Bros. & Co. have on hand a nice lot of Buggies, Jerseys, &c., also a lot of one and two-horse Wagons, which will be sold cheap for cash.

The New American Sewing Machine, No. 7—the best, simplest, lightest running, most complete and cheapest Machine, for sale by W. H. Leonard.

We return thanks for an invitation to attend the closing exercises of Pleasant Lodge Academy, which will be held on next Tuesday. Chatham is well represented in this school, which we are pleased to hear is in a very flourishing condition.

One of the pleasantest places to visit in Raleigh is Mr. Fred A. Watson's store, which resembles an art gallery. You will there find a large and splendid assortment of picture frames, window shades, cornices, easy chairs, house ornaments, &c.

Citizens of Chatham will find it to their interest to look at the bargains offered by S. S. Brown, Greensboro, in Clothing, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Dry Goods, &c. Since the mark down in prices it will pay you to come any distance to see how much money you can save by looking at our goods and prices.

Old folks remember how you enjoyed old Santa Claus when you were young. A simple present gives the little folks a great deal of pleasure. London has now received an unusual large supply of Toys and Fancy Goods, especially adapted to the market. Come and see them and bring the children with you. "Christmas comes but once a year." Come soon and buy before the rush.

Read the advertisement of Mr. Vernon Springs Academy, which we are pleased to learn is in a more flourishing condition than ever, and with the prospect of a large increase next session on account of the extension of the C. E. & V. R. R. New buildings will soon be erected and improvements made.

When you come to Hillsboro don't forget to call and examine Benjamin & Headen's beautiful line of Ladies' Dress Goods, Millinery, Cloaks, fine neck wear, Miles' Ladies' Shoes, and in fact a large and varied stock of goods, such as you will generally find in a first-class store, which we are selling at bottom prices.

Although London has the largest stock of Toys and Christmas presents, he has also the largest and cheapest stock of staple goods in the county. Special inducements will be given to each customer so as to reduce his stock before the 1st of January. Splendid lines of dry goods, Cassimeres, Clothing, Jersey Jackets at very much reduced prices. Cloaks away below the usual prices. Come at once and secure a bargain.

SENSE DEATH.—One morning last week Mrs. Wesley McVey, living near Sanford, arose in her usual good health and by 9 o'clock was dead. Congestion of the lungs is said to have been the cause of her death.

GRUMAN CAP.—Quite a number of our countrymen received last week Gruman Carp, which are distributed by the fish commissioner. We hope all may be successful in propagating these fish and in a year or two be enabled to enjoy a plentiful supply of this cheap and wholesome food.

PEWEEB PINS.—Chatham once more steps to the front with some of her most prominent. P. M. Pearson, esq., of Williams township, has a sow that recently gave birth to pigs whose mouths, noses and teeth were exactly like a dog's, and their fore legs were set back like the fins of a fish. Next!

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Notwithstanding the increase in the price of marriage licenses there were no marriages last month in this county than any other month during the year, the number being 14, of which 11 were to whites and 3 to blacks. There are always more marriages as the Christmas holidays draw near than at any other season.

MOORE'S BRIDGE.—Mr. N. J. Neal, the contractor to build the bridge at Moore's mill on Haw river, authorizes us to announce that the bridge will be open for travel on next Saturday afternoon. This will be a pleasant announcement to our farmers who have heretofore been going so much out of their way in leading their produce to Raleigh.

COLLECTING TAXES.—On next Saturday the sheriff will finish his second trip around the county collecting taxes. After that day those who have not paid their taxes, must come to him at his office to pay. He says that there is an unusually large number of delinquents this year, and that the citizens of Albright and Bear Creek townships have paid more promptly than those of any other township.

AN EMPLOYMENT.—One of the greatest improvements recently made in our town is the change in the appointment of the resident of Mr. A. G. Henden, which has been known as the "old Yellow House" from a period whence "the memory of man runneth not to the contrary." It is one of the oldest houses in the county and was kept as a tavern in 1801, and was formerly called "ninety years ago," but having been considerably well built it is in a good state of preservation, and now with its new dress of white paint and a handsome conservatory attached it looks more modern and stylish than many newer and more pretentious buildings.

IREMION CORN JONES.—The following is a list of the jurors for the next term of the Inferior court: J. P. Fields, William Hilliard, Jr., J. R. Coggin, J. E. Dollar, H. C. Stott, W. E. Brooks, Hardy Boy, V. N. Mann, William Utley, James Gilbert, J. R. Jones, Jacob Garrett, J. W. Taylor, Hiram Overman, Wesley Beckwith, A. G. Hearne, J. B. Hall, Nathan C. Stewart, J. M. O'Kelly, Robert Perry, John E. Harmon, D. L. Stebbins, James T. Terry, H. E. Arent, Thomas M. Hadley, B. M. Sanders, W. J. Lutterloh, Thomas Gardner, J. G. Norwood, Thomas Lindsey, Stephen Gilmore, J. H. Ward, J. B. Yarbrough, Manly Magan, William Guthrie, and E. W. Cook.

JUST COMPROMISE.—We published last June a full statement of the suit of Stiles Seymour & Co., against the Western R. R. Company now pending in the Cape Fear and Yorkin Courts. This suit had been instituted in 1861 by the plaintiffs, who were contractors to construct the defendant's road to recover $10,000 damages, which they alleged they suffered by the wrongful acts of the defendant. At last the suit came on for trial a week in the federal court at Raleigh, and after dragging along for several days was finally compromised by the defendant paying $5,000 and the costs of the action amounting to about $700. We are pleased to know that at last the C. E. & V. R. Co. is freed from all the old suits and troubles of the W. R. R. Co. and can now go ahead with the construction of its road without any further trouble.

JOHN SMITH.—We have received and read with pleasure the latest number of "The Home," a bi-weekly weekly published by Rev. P. R. Lewis, the zealous and efficient country superintendent of public instruction of Chatham, who announces that some of the leading objects of "The Home" shall be the advancement of the cause of a more extended education for the people. We wish him much success in his good work, as well as pecuniary profit in his undertaking.

WE read of the late escape of a son of Deputee, containing an account of some of his escapades and desires to see his venerable father. The Christmas number of The North Carolina Teacher is a gem of the typographical art, and contains very interesting reading matter. We hope that its enterprising publisher is meeting with the success that he so much deserves.

A DEAD MAN FOR SA.—On last Friday the dead body of a white man, dressed in the striped clothes of a penitentiary convict, was found on the plantation of Mr. William Horton in Williams township. Mr. Horton's son, Mr. J. L. Horton, was hunting his hogs and being attracted by the light of some hazzards he went to the place and, instead of finding a dead hog as he expected, greatly to his surprise he found a dead man. A messenger came here for the coroner, Dr. L. A. Harris, who next day held an inquest on the corpse, but neither the man's name nor the cause of his death could be ascertained. Dr. Harris thinks that he had been dead two or three weeks, and that he was probably about 30 years old. The body was so much decomposed that a post-mortem examination could not be had. It was found in a hole in the ground, and it was impossible to say whether he had received a wound, but a hole in the neck indicated a wound made by a bullet. On the body were found two copper cents, five centime-fift nickel, and a paper writing containing what is supposed to be a burglar's cipher. No knife was found, and no other branches, that appeared to have been cut two or three weeks, were found near the body, which would indicate that the body had been buried there, which is a singular circumstance. It is thought that he might have been the burglar recently wounded at Durham, and was carried to this place (about 14 miles from Durham) by his comrades.

MORGANTON MOUNTAINS.—Col. T. J. Walton has a fine Jersey bull, which since it has attained full growth has become quite vicious, and has taken occasion to maul itself by going several men about the farm but hurting without any serious damage. Last Saturday evening while Col. Walton was supervising the mowing of some corn in a field where the bull was pastured, the Jersey came up behind him and catching him on its horns, plunged forward with him and then tossed him into the air a distance of six or eight feet, inflicting him, it is feared, quite seriously.

MONTEGOMERY STAR.—More wheat is being sown in this section than ever before.—Some field or two, broke into Mr. Chas. Christian's corn crib, three nights in succession last week, and stole about fifty bushels of corn.—Mr. J. G. Cotton, one of our county commissioners, informs us that while teaching down an old chimney which was built in 1770, he found a brick upon which a deer's track was plainly imprinted. Mr. Cotton supposes that while the brick was being laid, and before it was placed in the chimney, it was stepped on and left an impression which 113 years constant service has failed to efface.

SALISBURY WASHINGTON. Corriher, who resides at Columbia Station, this county, tells of a pair of extraordinary turkeys he got there. In the early spring she began to lay her eggs and continued until she had deposited 40 eggs in a nest, when she went to setting, hatched and raised a brood of young turkeys to maturity. For some loss, then began again to lay until, all together, since about the 1st of last April, she has laid about 90 eggs besides raising her brood of young.

GRANDSON'S PATRIOT.—The Bellevue Hotel at High Point, has been bought by Mr. G. T. Lench, of the firm of Thibault & Co., of New York. The price paid was $3,500. The Bellevue is one of the best equipped hotels in the South.—An election on the stock law will be held at High Point, for the whole township, on Saturday, January 5th, 1884, as ordered by the county commissioners, upon the proper petition.—Peter Adams, aged 82 years, died December 10th, after a brief illness. He was probably the oldest citizen of Greensboro, and had had many places of trust at the hands of his fellow citizens in the town, county and State.

FAVORABLE OBSERVER.—On Tuesday a young lad, Mr. Thomas Gill, came into town, and told this story which, by your kind regards, being a positive fact. The night before, a colored woman, living on the Railroad about one mile from town, lost the custody of her little child and found her way to her home what was the mother's name, for her mother's name was a colored girl, a very large, fat, fat child of the child, and was trying to nurse it, and it was with some difficulty that she succeeded in rescuing the child and in killing the fox. The mother declares that if she had not been at home the fox would have killed the child and nursed it off.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Is any person with Section 752 of The Code I hereby certify that the following is a true and correct statement, for the year ending November 1st, 1883, of the county's revenue and disbursements, showing all the accounts audited by the board of commissioners of Chatham county.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

is now on his rounds and has left some of his goods at

W. L. LONDON'S

Headquarters for Christmas.

Do not miss your goods for Christmas. He wishes his little friends a MERRY CHRISTMAS.
