

H. A. LONDON, Jr., EDITOR AND PROPRINTOR.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:

"Have Patience and Endure." The time lead come, they met to part In that lone churchyard by the sea; She took cel teses off her heart. Her lover kissed them monrofully. She was so sub, the dated not weep He was too provid to she I one tear; be saw him taling down the steep:

Two then here whi peterl in her ear: Be comforted, though dath the night, For life is long, but love is sure; "Fis datkest ere the morning light. "Hay patience and enduro

Sulfided years! They met no more! The respect respective harvest tells There cares metalings to the shore Of one the montried and loved to well. Another took her empty hand In their tone characteristic by the spec-She booked is now the crief cand. And then she answered discardly : Take comfort, though the night be only For life is long, but love i surg-Terslay is durk, to morrow glad "Have pathence, and embury?"

The coll at last? A moment new And she must wield, and have represed She hoke I up on his tambled brow, And pitte I all his faithfulness. Twas then, with rose in his hand, the elurely of by the sta-A harpy lover come to lond, And sought a marken ise tally. Take configt? We no more can part? The p in is just, my sorrow cure I. had justicate, owned my heart she whispered. "I've endured? - Clement Scott, in Raldwoods Mostly.

BESIDE THE FLUMP

In the spring of 1852 four minerbuilt their cabin on the bank of a brawing stream that, with frothing State.

Then they constructed a solidly built stumbling heavily, followed by a mutdam of logs completely across the tered curve. stream, which they name! Clear riverthus shutting of the water from its shut his tech sharply to keep back an become but an appendage to the modbod, the overflow escaping by a long exclamation of horror. taxesway or flume.

quarts felge that had barod its breast. Min c to the turbulent waters for centuries. cold embranas rude table, boke1 into each other's weary privation and toil, so cheerily, of success, than the gold for which whom his soul clove with love as strong they had so patiently toiled.

a share?" laughed one of the brown- him, 4-c me so distinct? He threw faced miners. "That's a pretty good up his head as he ranthe heart !

Home! The fear partners in the U.c.o.bis were all against him. Strain dantarily soft, lapping sounds a soft, subdued fore it. swish, as of hurrying waters; and yet, after all, there was a certain, ruthless calm about those strong, unseen floods behind that cool, dark wall, that bore evidence of immense power. Thud! It was as it some mighty, VOL., VI.

Titanic missles had been hurled against the walls. It was only an uptorn tree borne with terriflic force against the dam several feet above his head.

"How the river has crept up since night-fall. I knew the rain of the last two days would cause a rise; but this looks serious. Luckily the dam will stand the pressure of a common flood?" He laid his car close to one of the projecting timbers of the dam. "That immense weight of water loesn't even jar it!" he murmured. Picking his way over the rock riverbed was no easy matter in that thick obscurity; but his familiarity with every foot of the locality h-hed himand in a short time he shoul before the dume.

Ab, here was uproar enough ! The flume was full to the very topmost plan's. A hiss of flying spray struck and that silent handshaking expressed him sharply in the fare, but he gave more than could have been put into them credit for. They are gentlemen no heed to the invested drops that words. clung to his forehead.

That strange, pronomitory, locating feeling had enwrapped his every senses.

ove out in this cool darkness urked danger, and he knew not how or in what shape it was to come. He had walked a long distance down lips, leape I down from one of the grand by the side of the funce, when he mountain fastaesa's of the Golden heard a sharp cluber aroung the rocks of the dry river-bed as of some one

Sam Lomax, the road agent, the ter-catel Clear River Mine, and the min- in whatsoever mine, together with his ers on non-fall their later well re-menciles hand of renegates and in the soft condition of flaty stretches prevaiing thinese style. warded: for the sands of the mountain dimes, was creeping up this river bash, away in the distance; on the west is About 20 or 30 of the

The Lot ounce of shining dust had armed taen in the little- abin yonderbeen taken from the delicate scales, his "pards" who full become endeared as that of a bromer. "Ten thousand dollars, hoys -$2,500 Why did objects beside him, before showing for a menth of rocking the "The clouds were parting, and he per- chink, chink, of the goll and silver "Tom Sama" eralle. A few more dividends like ceived that in a few moments their cours, and the dull mechanical voices eyes not a pistol shot away, faces softened, and more than one hand four victims to Lemma and his band, costliest decorations of all kinds; be- mod confidence in them in regard to

PITTSBORO', CHATHAM CO., N. C., MARCH 6, 1884.

The Chatham Record.

He heard queer little gurgles faint, of the dam and driving the dume be-The miners on the bank stood dumb, but the men in the path of the opened . floodgates uttered one cry as the dark death touched them; and then all was lieves that the proper study of mankind silent save for the mighty song of the is man, and that pre-cainently his own waters, which rang up to the mountain top.

spair, and their hearts seemed to stop vicinity. in horror. They turned to Upton, who was standing near them, and saw that whose feet the solid earth was pock-

ing. Strong arms knit round him, and he was apported into the cabin.

The door and windows of the cabin were barred, and then they crowded rude couch, and one question burst from every lip : "What was that cry, Upton? The story of Upton was briefly told.

When he had finished, three strong, right hands were stretched forth toward hum, He gave each a hearty grasp in turn.

rebuilt, the mine no longer wore the name of Clear fliver. It had been trave young "pard" who had savel the night he walked down by the finne-

Gambling at Monte Carlo.

The Casino of Monte Carlo is now the most important part of the princi-

"LONG STICKS." Methods of Chinese Gamblers and Gt tlemen of Leisure in Arw York. Mr. Vh Wong, excelitor of the late

Chinese Americath, of New York, he proper study is Chinamen, and he has been investigating the life and habits The miners heard that last cry of des of his brethren in Mott street and its

"Do you know," he said to a Time. reporter, "that there are 300 Chinese he was staggering like one beneath dudes in Mott street who toil not and neither do they spin, and yet who live upon the fat of the land?"

"No," said the reporter. "Do you?" "Yes," replied Mr. Wong. "When you go into a Chinese grocery store you think that the commetion and crowd around Upton, who had sunk on his indicate a great deal e+ buarness presperity, don't yan?" "Yek

"Well, it doesn't necessarily, but it means a flourishing gambling business There are at present in New York, and all within one block in Chinatown, just 300 of the most eivilized Chinamen on earth, who accomplish more work than their American brethren would give of leisure, seemingly, but they are mak-But after dam and finne had been ing money, and enjoy life better than any of the hard-working Chinamen who day and night swing their polish-I plon felt, rather than thought, that changed into Upton in honor of the ing irons all over the city. This class is called by the Chinese Kwong Queens, the lives of his friends and himself on or Long sticks, because they own nothing and yet possess wealth. They may be found by the scores in Chinatown, every day, either surding opium or chatting in any of the growery stores or various shops. They pay exorbitant prices to the storekeepers for the privipaiity of Monaco; instead of being lege of lodging and occasionally eating That voice ! The knew it, and he subordinate to the palace, the latter has among them, and thus pa sthemselves off on strangers as attaches of the ern splendor across the bay. Monte place. These gentlemen never retire Carlo occupies a site as beautiful as until 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning, and In the dry hed of the river was los | ror of the honest, herd-working miner | any in the work). In front the blue | they rise at about the same hour in the sea laves its levely garden; on the east [afterne n. ] "hey live an ) dress in the

About 20 or 30 of these Chinese tornest isterally show with gold, that and this milinght raid meant death to the bold curving rock of Monaco, with dides are gaublers, and each owns a halben torn from some crubbling the four partners of the Char Eiver liseastle and port, and the great cliff small American sate, and in these are of the Deg's Head. Behind rises the tens of thousands of dollars in ready Eallying every energy he turned and near mountain high above; and on its money. These are the men who run heation of inebriation. And they do or from many a fortune Howlderwhirle I fied up the river bel as for dear life, top, outlined against the sky, stands the the Fan Ton shops, or gambling houses along in a cracy dances in the river's Not of his own danger was he think- old tower of Turbia in its londy rull of Mont street. The attaches of the ac ing, but rather of the peril of the unspinel majesty, looking toward Rome. 20 or 50 Fan Ton lesses, or gamblers, From a spacious, richly decorated en- constitute, the main portion of the trance hall, the gaudding rooms opened. Chinese dudes. They are generally and the four new grouped around the to how through the many months of by neisoless swinging doors. Entering shrewd, smart men, who consider we saw the tables surrounded by a manual labor of any kind a degradation eves that show brighter with the light | dured to other, his comrates, unto close circle of seated players, with a and a sin. They do not live paire so second circle standing behind, playing haxariously as the Fan Ton bases, but over their shoulders, and sometimes still their clothes are imported from even a third behind these. Although Canton, and they eat good food. These so many persons were present, it was attaches are divided into four classes very still, the only sounds being the "Do Shos," 'Nid Wens," 'Han Tons," and

The Do Shos' play openly and dithat and then I reckon that I'll go triendly ad would be with rawn. The of the officials announcing the winning rectly against the bank, and they are home. There's a little woman in a lit- meen would burn like some great numbers. There were tables for both generally gamblers from China of exthe brown house I know of that will watchire in the heavens, and his flight roulette and trente et quarante, the perience and skill. Many of them gravation of the complaint, and those to gial to see me -bless her brave his would be revealed to these merciless player beginning each day at eleven in come from China with only a few house the morning and continuing without dred dollars and go back again in a few intermission until eleven at night, months with thousands. Notwith-Home? The four partners in the converse event against find that. Everywhere was lavished the luxury of standing they are opposed to the Fan a woman a few years ago, the wife of away East, and at that word stern to morrow's sun would look down on dowers, paintings, marbles, and the Ton men, these latter repose the at-an excellent gentleman, a down-town conditions of egg, lava, and papa, nerchant, who was a slave to other. ight a raggist breast, and the dear folks at nome would look yord, in a superb hall, the firest or money matters. I have fre quently wascone of a family of six childside, one of the loveliest gardens in seen the dealer take his word for Bet one of them - a frank faced The dam! An inspiration, born of the world offered itself to those who amounts as high as $1000. When he while the craving would come upon her for an other spree. She would produce. But one sober look at the smokers, who gamble only when they pressed, so deadly cold ! After a half by the Fan Fon boases about 85 per Te." hour of observation, we left the rooms, week, with a percentage on all the Oaslifications of a Good Sea Cook, sionally a winner gives him a dollar or A sea cook is a peculiar character, two. The Ton San, interpreted into requiring a special training. He must English, means a 'Pull coat-tail fellow,' know how to prepare a sea hash out of Mr. Thomas H. Williams, Jr., of These are the poor hangers on who salt-horse dayored with onorsy incrust-Stockton, Cal., having began to buy look like Pelin beggars. They can be of with the variegated browns of cats with the pupese of exterminating seen at all hours crouching against the polished mahogany, and savery enough the gophers that are laying waste the gaming table. They watch the game to create an appetite in a stom whathat fields of alfalfa on Union i land, the closely, and are invariably the first to the tossing waves have confered as Sacramento Union tells a pertinent know which way the game goes and to sensitive as the mealle of a compass, a death mark, stood on the threshold, eat story: Shortly after the discovery, announce the winn rs. They also He must also understand how to make of the Constock mine an old gentle- play for beginners and those who are eauthle bread, and take his duff out of man was unable to meet a mortgage green in the business, and the Pall the Lettie on Sunday as light as eatton of $1500 on his place on Mormon coat-tail fellow' gets a small common and as delicate as spong-cake. Beeven as they did so, a load explosion island. A stranger, stopping at his sion when bit them wins. There you sides this, he must know how for equi-There was neither sparkle of star deafened their cars, and a terrible thrill door, saw several pretty kittens play- have the 200 or 300 Chinese dodes or orange in the use of water and provisdestend their ears, and a terrate thrul door, saw several prefy knowly pays rocked the little cavin like a cradle, ing in the yard. He said: "These cats, with one innuise they leaved to the if you had them on the Constock, "But where does the nearey cause entrive to keep the crew sintist with of the town boy, and be looks in the french style." Mrs. Know seemed to him to minde would bring you $20 aplees." The old from that keeps the bank running the messile codes for them, while at case and huxing almost for the first "the military style," which he found man saddled his horse, and for the next providely and allows the Do Sho to take the same time he bods out sharply for time. He may be called a tramp, and "very disgusting in a female." This is move out in one mass, one instant fortnight role from house to house, thousands of dollars back to China " the out-re ts of his employer and the "From the stupid green familiying in captain. He neist also be proof against , width of the river bed from the cabin. into a stately wall of burnished silver, begging and buying cats. He got 500 and the 200 or 500 Chinese salors and the worst weather and understatingly igar-makers. Many of these make punctual to the hours of meals. It handsome salaries and large profits an - goes without saying that it is not an unity and then loss all their winnings easy thing to find such a paragon in on a farm, they were woven into his ered with black gauge, which hangs in to the Fan Ton shops. Any one who the galley, but when he is there, he is, fibre by early years of toil; the warp >+ wi't believe me can see for himself. next to the captain, by far the most and woof of his life were threads of behind is in a large braid, and confined Just let him go to any of the store-lear important character on teard.

houses from No. 1 to No. 20 Mott street . PEARLS OF THOUGHT. and he will find no goods or more handlise, but a lot of tables and stools and a crowd of Chinamen from noon to midnight. The observer can guess what tude, it means. A young Chinaman has recently started a society to influence as new pleasures exposes us to new Chinese youths against Mott street's pain, alluring Fan Ton shops. It costs $5 to belong, and the members swear, tion, but we seldom return from audinever to take part in games of chance, tion to love, on the penalty of a fine of not more

Dr. Stephen W. Roof said to a New York saw reporter: "I inquisitionably, the use of relatoroform as a stimulant has declined of late years, but there is still a great deal of the drug consum elinthat way. It is by no means easy to determine who are, the, chloroform drunkands, for they are almost all wohnen, and wohnen are very secretive and cumning when it comes to do. ing what they know is wrong. They will buy small quantaties of the fluid from different drug stores, where they are not known, and under various prefects. Often they will get it in the form of a very strong chloroform imiment, when they simply purpose in haling it, but wich to conceal the fact There are almost as many women who use subduric effort in that way as there are who take chloroform, but the latter is most likely to be preferred, as it is sweeter and pleasanter. When the evil effects of hydrate of chloral were exposed a number of years ago, at a time when it was a popular drug for the e who sought interication oth or than alcoholic, a good many women were badly scare t, but, unable to drop everything of the sort, turned from it to chloroform and ether. The habit of getting drunk on such things hecomes fixed, just as the habit of liquor drinking does, but it is less likely to spread and make new permanent victims, because there is no sociability about these drug drinks. People who resort to them do so producely and solely for the sensual and selish gratinot afford the satisfaction that drinks ing men want and find in heptor. If you saturate a cloth with chlorotorm or other, throw it over your face and breathe the tunnes, you will have a very brief exhibitation, say for a minute or two, and then all will be gone, except, perhaps, a little feeling of nau-SPEEC To get druns, as a dranking man can with liquor, it is no essary to keep on saturating the cloth at short intervals.

"Women who have a tendency to hysteria are those most likely to resort. to the use of chloroform and other. Of course, temporary relief is obtained, but the ultimate consequence is an agdrogs will induce a normal and physical species. In sects, which in their comcal condition like according path, just paratively brief state of maturity are ance; the virtue of adversity is forti-The same refinement which brings

We pass often from love to ambi-

You may gain knowledge by reading, but you must separate the wheat from the chaff by thinking. As daylight can be seen through very small holes, so little things will ilhistrate a perasals character.

NO. 26.

A man's virtue should be measured, not by his occasional exertions, but by the doings of his ordinary life. The known wishes of a loved one who has deel are often far more potent. than were strong entrenties when take glory' only to be gover by blood urged favor to faces Fame, as a river, is narrowest where it is bred, and boundest afair off; so exchirdary writers depend not upon the gratitude of the world.

The gratidiation which would can bestow is not in more possession, nor In lavishing it with proligility, but in-the wiss application of it. A man who cannot in della perfect statue may yet, erest a lampspool, and place there on a light which shall save many a waylarer from storabling. It has ever their the other mistor. tane of potentates that they are surremnaed by a deal wall of courtiers that exclude to very rule but warning

soutpl

Defences of the Lower Animals, some of the higher animals dilustrate. the reason run which Nature contrives. traditional de special measures of presamtion for its little-gifted, unabert, unarmed and helple - creatures. The absence of tooth in the edendates is off of by shields or scale-armor ; helpless beetle, are furnished with hard wingenses; the placasants, quaits, and larks of the holds are hidden from the keen vision of birds of preview their carlly color, birds of the river and searchers by their resemblance in der to the sand and shingle. Proto-tion is required by the lower animals chiefly against the weather and parasites and other external enemies, Proquently the place of their above is their only and ordinarily a sufficient protection, as is the case with cartawomans and berrowing larvae, woodworms and fruit-borers. But such any insuls appear to be adheted with partic-dar energies peculiarly fitted to hunt them out in their otherwise secure fortrose in the shape of moles, molecricket, long-nosed hedgehogs, shrewuder, and swine, hook-billed lapwings and sharp-tong and woodpackers. Fre. quently, also, cach annual is defended by some special relation peculiar to its secured by their powers of (fight, have to be guarded in their three previous against boots of ensures to which they

Heroes. The virtue of prosperity is temper-Kittel: Call each name torious who has list a best. And him ne-t glorious who has murdeted diam'r.

Por larger advertisements liberal cos traota will

The Chatham Becoud.

RATES

OF

ADVERTISING.

Must that men should have he agon these The most observations hears prost their knows The most obstructions flatte y of their tongue, That the sections should be in parts only . That good ment's many - do not to address till,

Dur these of the rare with the months of all? Tostatione which this better activity each Matching the matrix respective and an error s . Second fill a rearright sound with noise of grave

Their worth forgotton by the scrowds they Blat that the Brackers when it goal the status

Fill it with fours, and quench its children's should with their future block the public

And standardoned as dominant-for avoit Ealsy greatness? where the projectal for me Is on the heads of nucltified s undone? "Eable administion," given and maler-tool;

-Charles Machay HUMOROUS.

Two heads are better than one, particularly in a barrel.

The Canada woods invite baldheaded men-there's so much have around-Tennyson's latter-day poetry probably suggested the idea of making him barren in name as well as nature. The cat is the great American prima domna. If boot jacks were bouquets, her nine lives would be strewn with roses.

The cattle plague The cow that opens the garden-gate with her horns, and proceeds to banquet on the geraniums and lettuce.

A carpet is a good deal like a boy, it needs an occasional beating. The boy you should beat yourself, but you must let the boy lo at the carpet

The Japanese used to have such a high sense of honor that they would commit suicide if caught in cause had business. Now they tee a lawyer, and plead not guilty.

Quite excusable: "I beg athousand pardons for coming so inte," My dear sir," replied the bely, gracionaly, "no pardons are needed. You can never ome too late."

A Montana justice of the peace has been fined 850 for marrying an eloping couple. He is now trying to figure up his profit on the transaction, his fee being an order on the bride's father for a ton of real.

An agricultural paper says: "To keep thes from horses brush them lightly with a broch that has been lately used in petroleum," P - . You brush a fly with a shingle or anything that comes handy and he'll go awas

It should occasion no alarm that there were less than $5,000 worth of diamonds exported from the Cape from Anon the Neveraler of had year, You will be able to get just as large pieces of paste for uve dollars. in this country as you ever did.

Very correct spin-ter: "Never mind, Mabel, you will soon be better. Why, I sitten and the same thing myself when I was a little girl." i N. B.

ones over the mountains.

dow and looked out into the night.

"What's the trouble with you, Upton?" was the general inquiry.

fellow-miners.

this very moment is upon me, and I fled. can't shake it off!"

A laugh went around the table - a men who scorn the thought of danger, hal hid. and yet they could not but feel impressed by the young fellow's carnestness.

pense; but that strange, far-off look as of one whose spirit is not with the ing, when the door was suddenly burst body, never left his face.

He went back to the window again. turned his head and said, pleasantly, "I'll be with you in a short time, boys." and then the door closed behind him nor the faintest gleam of the moon to lighten the shalows into which he plunged. The air was soft and warm against his face as a woman's breath, No sound came to his ear save the rour of the frothing flume, which was the Upton descended the steep bank and began to pick his way over the rough stones of the claim, with the great face of the dam riving up at his side like some huge prison wall.

He stopped and listened a moment-wherein was conceated a precious pack- in your for those where bones were cheatra on the continent, was playing known a bo sho to ran short of rash et of well-worn letters from loved whitening by a rotting dam in those the divine music of Beethoven; out- while gaming at the table, and have western wilds.

young fellow areas from the table, dire necessity, leaped into his mind, wished to stroll awhile. And all of wins he either pays it back on the glanced half-anxiously, half-heattating- and a light flamed forth in his eyes, this was given freely, without restrict - spot or sends it to the dealer by a ser-We at his companions, then turned from The strength of hope sprang up in his ion and without price, upon a site and want the next day. The Nid Wens, or them and went to the little cabin win- heart and swang every nerve, and on under a sky as beautiful as earth can paters, are generally habitual opinm he spect.

The dam loomed up before him. He faces of the steady players around can get hold of a little money, and are sprang to a little locker, built for con these tables betrayed, under all this generally broke about dot days in the Upton strode uneasily toward his venience sake, close by the end of the luxury and beauty, the real horror of year. The Han Tons are 'sto-rers.' dam, threw up the cover, select a box the place, for men and women; young who stand outside of the Fan Ton dens

"I cannot answer your questions, of blasting powder, thrust it under one and old alike, had the gambler's strange every afternoon and evening, calling to boys; for, the truth of it is, I don't of the projecting supports of the lever in the expression of the eye, all the Chin-se passer-by: "I'm la fa chi know myself. I can only say that a dam lighted a short fuse, thrust one the more intense because, in almost la " or 'The Fau Ton within ' tio and feeling as if we are in mortal danger and in the keg, and then turned and every case, so governed, so stonily resimake your docture?" They are paid

And the moon burst forth from behind the clouds, her calm, pale light and I was gliad to breather the outside suckers' they seduce inside, and o vahearty, ringing laugh-the laugh of falling softly over all that the darkness air once more.

> "Ha, ha, ha?" laughed the happy trio, still sitting round the cabin table as one of their number finished relat-

Upton joined in the laugh at his ex- ing some anecdote of his rollicking college days; and the laugh was still echoopen, and Upton, with face as white as and then threw open the cabin door, He made a beckoning motion, and then disappeared.

The miners spring to their feet, but

They saw the whole front of the dam transigured by the light of the moon farm to farm, and village to village the next broken and sheathed in a glos and sold them on the Constock mine, rious sheeting spray. and after he had paid off his mortgage And then a torrent with foaming and put in bank $500 clear he told h crest leaped down over its own highe neighbors why he had wanted catway, from which it had been shut out. They no longer decided him era y eso long, stripping bare the foundation cats, ren, who all had an inherited product palatable real. In the condition of the position to drank mass. Livery little have a violent fit or hysteria, and to quict her the husband was obliged to supply her with ether. He used to buy it in quantity from a wholesale house, and she would capty pound bottles by the dozen. Each of her other sprees would hat about two weeks. During that time she would shut herself up in her rosen, and so much of the drug did she use that the smell of it would enter the adjoining houses, and even reach the street, although she was on the third floor. It killed her eventual-

gold

apparently lifeless and really helpless. egs, they are covered by their almeurity and littleness, or by being deposited in holes and cracks, or covered with slime or hairy or silken yells and cocoons, under which they escape all but the sharpest search and rare accidents.

- Mabel has biumped ber head failing.) Mabel caloright idea our estiments ffu-"Oh, I use! That' what papa means when he says you are cracked." (Catastrophe.")

Society After the Revolution

It was a period of much mocial display. Class distinctions still prevailed strongly, for the French revolution

Farmers' Sous-

The grandest product of the farm is the boys and girls. In every ave- had not yet followed the American pushes to the front is the son of a farhalf of the people in this country re- Secretary of War.

nue of life where thrift, capacity and revolution to sweep them away. Emenergy are required, the man who players were still called masters: genthemen still wore velve's, damasks, mer, He has the intelligence. There knee-breeches, silk sto kings, silver is a sort of broad common sense runs Imeides, runled shirts, voluminous ning through his acts. He has a con- cravats searlet cleace. The revolustitution that carrendure labors. It tion had made many poor, but it had is a notable fact that in the colleges of enriched many, and money was lavishour country the best students are the lyspent. People gave great entertain-Loys from the farm. In the workshop, ments, kept tankards of punch on the in the halls of degislation, at the bar, table for morning visitors of both sexin the pulpit, ninety-nine hundredths es and returned in sedan-chairs from of men who stand upon the summit evening parties. Dr. Manasseh Cutler were once boys on the farm. They went to ad nuer party of forty four went barefooted, wore patched clothes, gentlemen at the house of General and worked for their bread. Almost Knox, just before his appointment as All the guests side in towns. Where are the town were officers of the late Continental boys in the race of life? Fooling, army, and every one, except Cutler curling their hair, polishing their hunself, wore the badge of the society boots, while the rough country boy is of the Cincinnati. On another occaplunging along to fame. With a book sion he dined there with a French nounder one arm, and a few extra clothes bleman; the dinner was served "in be refused a crust of bread; one day his description of her head-dress; "Her he will return and buy the mortgages hair in front is craped at least a foot covered house. Where did that boy high, much in the form of a churn botget his noble purpose and his unfalter tom upward, and topped off with a ing courage?. They were born in ! in wire skeleton in the same form, covstreamers down her back. Her hair with a monstrous crooked comb."

A Speculation in Cals.