THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK.

In view of the fact that this is one of the great election years there seems to be very little interest thus far manifested, indeed we may say, at least so far as the masses of the people are concerned, that there is an unusual apathy in politics. Possibly it may be the calm that presages the storm or at any rate the people of America are now giving their attention to their everyday business—to getting a living—than to politics. It is wonderful however how quickly this quietude can be thrown off and everybody stirred up whenever a political campaign is opened. So great an excitement rarely prevails during our canvass and so embittered and demoralizing do the political parties become that a foreigner visiting our country would think that we were on the verge of another bloody civil war; but as soon the election is held and the excitement quiet again prevails and everything and everybody resumes its wonted way and nothing had happened. One thing at least will be this year. The people of this State will vote for President and Vice President, Representative in Congress, Governor and other State officers, a Justice of the Supreme Court, member of the Legislature, Sheriff, Registers, &c. The country will be flooded with candidates and the air resound with "stump" speeches and there will be excitement.

Whether [illegible] now known; [illegible] known so [illegible] lic opinion [illegible] identical [illegible] seems to [illegible] erally regarded as the [illegible] didate, who [illegible] mentioned [illegible] And we [illegible] the gale [illegible] State. The [illegible] mentioned by [illegible] Scales, Grimes [illegible] by the [illegible] sel and [illegible] that no [illegible] ted. [illegible] who will be [illegible] various [illegible] conventions [illegible] held. [illegible] tions [illegible] to meet [illegible] in July, the State [illegible] soon be filled [illegible] conventions—and then the fun will begin!

EXPOSITION BOSH.

Last Monday may be called Exposition Monday. In [illegible] meetings in [illegible] and State Exposition were [illegible] day. In [illegible] local columns will be found the proceedings of the meeting held here and we are pleased to record [illegible] meetings in so many [illegible] in all parts of the State. In Wake the justices of the peace [illegible] ing and authorized an appropriation of two thousand dollars for [illegible] the exhibit of that county. Seventy other counties [illegible] counties were appropriated, so that already [illegible] counties have [illegible] and display of our [illegible] if no other counties [illegible] follow their example. But in good work will [illegible] this county will [illegible] county will fall [illegible] at least a majority of the counties in the State will [illegible]

In this county a committee [illegible] was appointed to [illegible] and upon them now devolves the responsibility of Chatham's success or failure. This [illegible] they should [illegible] operation of [illegible] county. The [illegible] the committee [illegible] representatives of [illegible] agricultural, [illegible] tile, mining and [illegible] make our exhibit as [illegible] ble and enlist the help of all [illegible] They are all gentlemen of [illegible] and energy and we doubt not [illegible] will efficiently [illegible] assigned them. If any citizen of the county should happen to [illegible] ed that he was not appointed on the committee, we are quite sure that every one of the committee will gladly resign in his favor and let him undertake a work that will [illegible] receive as much [illegible] praise.

A very large and [illegible] ted picture of Bartholdi's [illegible] of "Liberty Enlightening the World," has been presented to its [illegible] by the Travelers Ins. Co. of Hartford, Conn., who have been among the most liberal contributors to the fund. The picture, which is 26x36 inches in size, gives an excellent idea of the superb work of art which is to adorn the harbor of New York.

The bill [illegible] the Mexican [illegible] has passed the House of Representatives by a vote of 227 to 98.

Mrs. Mary Hannah, widow of [illegible] Brown, the noted "[illegible]," died at San Francisco Friday.
