

LOCAL RECORDS.

The days and nights are now of equal length.

The grand jury court had many cases last Tuesday as the superior court.

Mr. George W. McCormick, of Halley township, banners anybody in the county for a hundred mile walk for fifty dollars.

Mr. J. C. Abernathy has presented the Raleigh Standard with the largest grossing that we have ever seen. It weighs six ounces.

The Bynum Manufacturing Company have purchased and are this week receiving 37500 spindles for their cotton factory in this county.

We regret to hear that the thirteen-year old daughter of Mr. E. D. Nail, of Gulf township, was thrown from a male, a few days ago, and painfully hurt.

A negro woman near this place, the wife of Owen Carter, has become deranged and the necessary repairs have been prepared for sending her to the Guildsboro asylum.

Go to Benum & Headen's for Long's Chemicals, Green for cotton, corn and tobacco, Carter, Drexler, Grass and Garden seeds, R. & J. Pease Irish Potatoes, sugar and very fine.

We hear that a petition will be presented to our county commissioners, at their next meeting, asking for a change in the Durham and Ashboro road at Heron's pond on Rocky river.

We mean what we say? Benum & Headen see now offering the case at cost for the next 30 days their entire stock of Ladies' Dress Goods, Calicoes, Flannels, Pillow Cases, Bedspreads, and very fine goods. Call and get the bargains.

If you are going to get a new suit of clothes this Spring call at London's and see his samples. He has a splendid stock, and he guarantees a fit or no case. These goods are all made up by first class Millinery Tailors and are very fine goods. New Spring goods now opened at London's.

We were pleased to see here on a short visit this week our former townsmen, Mr. G. W. Bunn, now a member of the well known firm of W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. His many friends gathered for his personal career in Raleigh and as it serves all the necessities that he met with.

You will find at London's the largest stock of Bunn and Bunn Castings in the county. He has plenty of Acid Phosphate and Gypsum on hand. Look at that Cotton Planter he is selling before you buy one. Farmers, London's is the best place to get what you need. Domestic Sewing Machine is the best made.

VISITING COMMITTEE.—The President of the trustees of the University of North Carolina has appointed as the Visiting Committee for the current college year Mr. A. H. Merritt of Chatham, Chairman, and Rev. A. D. Bates, J. S. Carr, C. M. Cooke, B. F. Gentry, D. P. McEwen and P. B. Means.

EXPOSITION MESSIAH.—Much to the disappointment of our citizens Capt. Coke did not make an "exposition" speech here, on last Tuesday, as was expected. A letter was received from him expressing his regret that he was unable to do so, owing to an illness which was not of a serious nature. Notwithstanding this disappointment a meeting was held last night, and much interest was manifested in the success of the exposition.

In another column we publish the proceedings of the meeting of the executive committee. We are pleased to know that the ladies have been invited to aid in the good work, and we doubt not that they will do their full duty. Much depends upon the efforts of the township committee, and we are pleased to note that such excellent appointments have been made. We hope that as many of them as possible will attend the meeting of committee to be held here on the first Monday in April.

AN APPRECIATIVE SUBSCRIBER.—It always affords an editor much pleasure to hear his subscribers speak in complimentary terms of his paper, and to realize that they appreciate his efforts. An editor's life is not the easiest in the world and those pleasant compliments enable him to endure more philosophically the annoyances that continually beset him. Among the many who renewed their subscriptions to the Record this week was our old friend, Abner Bright, who being unable to come to court sent his $2 by a neighbor together with the following pleasant note:

"Dear Sir:—I send you money to renew my subscription, and I will say that I want you to send the Record to me as long as I live and when you hear that I am dead then stop it but not before. I take several papers but I always read the CHATHAM RECORD first. I do wish the time will come when the Record will visit every farmer in the county. I wish you all the good luck and a long life."

Tom's case Laertes.—We are requested to announce that on the 14th of March, at 10 o'clock, P. M. we will hold a public examination, on a Monday night, the 14th of April.

Miss Hester.—The mill and cotton gin on the Hillsboro road, near the mill, were burnt last Saturday night. The mill was one of the oldest in the county, having been built about seventy five years ago, and was known as the "Old mill and gin." Origin of fire is unknown.

Collecting Her Tax.—There is an old saying that "there is nothing sweeter than clean taxes." This was verified here yesterday when deputy sheriff Wiley G. Adams called on the owners of a delinquent taxpayer and would not release it until its taxes were paid.

The Green Mill.—We very much regret to announce that the miller of the Green Mill has not yet been discovered. The jury of inquest closed their investigation on last Saturday, and returned the following verdict:

"That the said Mrs. Olive Genter and Miss Jane Genter were the cause of their deaths by blows from an axe, but that part of the jury find that there is not sufficient evidence to designate any person or persons as the guilty party; the other part of the jury find that the circumstantial evidence points to those Genter as the murderer and warrant an arrest."

A large number of witnesses, about seventy, were examined by the coroner's jury, and every effort was made to obtain sufficient evidence to justify the arrest of the perpetrator of a heinous murder, but it is a matter of great regret that all was in vain. Solicitor Stradwick has carefully read over the testimony taken by the jury and he does not think that the evidence would justify the grand jury in finding a true bill against anybody, and therefore he advises the coroner that he will be taken at this term of the court, the coroner will not "find" and we wish that a grand jury would be organized at present.

Let's Tie W. — For the information of our readers, who may desire to "tie W.," we will give some of the particulars of our townsmen, Mr. Spencer Taylor, who was in the city of Raleigh, North Carolina, on the 14th inst. Taylor is a native of this county and he is a very fine man. He is a member of the well known firm of W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. His many friends gathered for his personal career in Raleigh and as it serves all the necessities that he met with.

Warrenton Quarterly.—Mr. Alfred Newell was in town this week. He had just returned from a business trip to the Warrenton, and on his return he had a very interesting conversation with the Warrenton people. He had been in the Warrenton for several years, and he had a very interesting story to tell of the Warrenton people. Sanson's Legs and Locks.—When DeLah clipped off Sanson's locks that night after he had been in a young lady to change in his buggy. The young lady and gentleman were enjoying the ride as they were driving to the first house. In the middle of the stream a horse was water-tight. When the command was given to "get up," the horse did not move, nor could it be persuaded to do so. Taking in the situation, he unseamed the harness and to his surprise and delight it moved forward in a lively manner. Once on land, each of the horse had to stay in the water for the horse would not work any other way. Imagine their feeling when they drove up to the church with the young man astraddle, the horse and the young lady sitting alone in the buggy.

Morose Malice and Express.—A little more than a mile south of Morris is a small grove of land, not larger than a quarter of an acre, of which the owner is a man named Morris. The grove is very old, and it is very well known in the neighborhood. It is a very old grove, and it is very well known in the neighborhood.
