Policeman Polycarp Beam, in of less prominence in the sanctaary. their orders forbidding their candi dates in this county to canvass. From time immemorial it has been the cus-tom in Chatham for the candidates to make a joint canvass of the county, and the republican tactics to be adopted this campaign is a trick by which they hope to deceive the dem ocrats. The republican policy is to Infl the democrats to sleep, to pro-tend that they are not making a con-test in the county, and on the day of test in the county, and on the day of test in the county, and on the day of people were at one time engaged in a candidate in those days he used to election they will rally all their forces the row.
