

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1884.

LEGAL RECORDS.

For The Thanksgiving turkey now roasts high.

For Two Northern huntsmen are here having fine sport in shooting partridges.

For One day last week Mr. Lommy Tysor, of Oakdale township, killed ten wild turkeys at one shot.

For We regret not being able to accept an invitation to attend the closing exercises of Mt. Pisgah Academy, to be held on the 19th of next month.

For Rev. F. W. Eason, of Fayetteville, will assist Rev. M. Baldwin in a series of meetings with the Baptist church at this place, commencing on Monday evening, the 24th inst.

For While at Fayetteville last week we were told that the Cape Fear river was lower than ever before known. There was no trouble at all in fording the river at almost any point near Fayetteville.

For Two carloads, 250 sacks Salt just received by C. C. Check at One Hill. Price $1, for coarse, $1.70 per fine. Red soil leather 25 cents per pound by the side. Ask Shoeing 64 cents per yard.

For We have never before heard of so many fires occurring in one season. Every paper from every part of the State tells of somebody's dwelling or store, or cotton gin being burnt up. And yet some people think there is no need of insuring their property.

For Have you forgotten you owe W. L. London an account? Your note and mortgage is now due. You are requested to call and settle up once. He can not and will not give further indulgence. You have not settled for your Glance account either; now is the time to settle.

For Mr. R. James Powell has a lot of large photograph pictures on the Chatham exhibit at the recent State Exposition, which he offers for sale at $1 apiece, and will apply the money arising from their sale towards paying the expenses of the exhibit. Every citizen of Chatham ought to go once.

For You will find at London's a splendid line of Cloaks which will be sold very low for cash. A few Children's and Misses' Cloaks which will be sold at a great sacrifice. A few more of these cheap day-worn hand Shawls and Blankets cheaper than you ever saw them. Cash goes a long way at London's.

For Warren Prior & Son, Fayetteville, Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Cutlery and Silverware. We carry the largest line of goods suitable for Anniversary, Birthday, Bridal and Wedding Presents of any house in the State. And we cordially invite all to make a visit when in the city. Any orders sent us will receive prompt attention.

For Sample S. Brown, Greensboro, is agent for the N. C. Penitentiary Riveted seam Shoes and as such are manufactured at prices which will put them in competition with any article of like quality. They are made of leather and are well constructed, and are well suited for all kinds of work.

For Magistrates' Meeting.—On last Tuesday the magistrates of this county were requested to meet here in joint session with the county commissioners, but upon a call of the roll a quorum was not present, and those present decided to adjourn until Tuesday of next week. The object of the meeting was stated to be the building of certain bridges.

For CANE AS EDITOR.—A number of the leading democrats of Fayetteville presented a handsome gold-headed cane, last week, to Capt. E. J. Hale, the accomplished editor of the Observer, as a testimonial of their appreciation of his services during the recent campaign. It is so seldom an editor's services to his party are appreciated that we are pleased to note this exceptional instance, and do heartily congratulate our friend thereupon.

For FAYETTEVILLE FAIR.—We had the pleasure of attending last week the 22nd annual fair of the Cumberland County Agricultural Society. Although the number of visitors and articles exhibited was not so large as at previous fairs, yet it was a very pleasant occasion, and the managers deserve much credit for getting up as good a fair as it was. The grand State Exposition has so overshadowed all the local fairs, that the latter are not as attractive this year as usual.

For HADLEY'S JUBILEE.—On last Saturday the democrats of Hadley township celebrated Cleveland's election with great enthusiasm, and no democrat anywhere had greater cause. They sent here for our old comrade, but not being able to haul it, they used two anvils from a blacksmith shop, and fired one hundred rounds, which reverberated among the hills along Cane creek and startled the natives, many of whom probably thought another war had already begun.

SENATORIAL ELECTIONS.—On last Friday the sheriffs of Alamance and Chatham met at J. S. H. Healey's, as required by law, and canvassed the returns for the candidates for the Senate from this district. The results showed that Mr. John L. Scott received 2412 votes in Chatham and 1554 in Alamance, a total of 3,955, and that Mr. Nathaniel Woody received 1970 votes in Chatham and 1275 in Alamance, a total of 2945, making Scott's majority 1054.

For Thanksgiving Day.—Next Thursday being Thanksgiving Day all business at this place will be suspended for the day. All the stores and the offices in the court house will be closed, so that no one need come here the day to do any trading or attend to any business. The post office will be opened only from 10 to 11 o'clock in the forenoon, and from 2 to 4 in the afternoon. Appropriate religious services will be held at the Episcopal church, and a collection suspended every Thanksgiving day, will be taken up for the Oxford orphan Asylum.

SECRETARY OF WAR.—We have never before known of any season of any year such a scarcity of water in this country, as is now. Many wells and springs, that have never before been known to fail, are now dry. All the small streams have dried up and many of the large ones are barely running. In many places it is difficult to obtain water for man or beast. Very few men can afford to buy, and they are crowded with customers day and night, some of whom can get a drink of 30 miles. At Rockingham, citizens from hours, were so crowded that it was very hard to get a drink of water. In many places it is difficult to obtain water for man or beast.
