The Chatham Record.

H.A. LONDON, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

One support your second One copy, three months  $\dots$  \$ 1.00 VOL. VII.

PITTSBORO', CHATHAM CO., N. C., APRIL 16, 1885.

The Chatham Record.

Spring Song. Far in a green and wooded dell, Where the maple hough do meet, Rostics-shall I usiy tell, Gentle whispers, low and sweet? O, sounds must dear, What songs you sing. What tales you bring Of summer's coming near. Every leaflet sugs in praise, To the leaf its meighbor; All breathe doop in their own ways. Gay and free from labor, Browthe the h dy air of peace, Perfome meler was rater Nor a sping day turer, E'en in storied fire co. Birds and leaves on every bough vay and tows in optendar. Upward sourcemy so 1-till now, Oh, so weak and tender Strumer's sun brings lasting balm.

Go in is winter's biting blast. Ram is now all over past. Following storm -- the caim From the German.

OUTWITTED

"I have had some of my strangest experiences," axid a detective, "in hunting up missing people. I will give you an instance:

"Mr Naylor was a rich farmer near Abingdon, England. He had married late in life, and had one child, Margaret. She was a well-built, handsome has of eighteen, with light, curly hair, very bright, and of resolute will. Her father doted upon her, and had her educated at home by governesses, He was a very curious man, and very an English vessel and took passage in mean in money matters, except where her for Bristol. his daughter was concerned. His brother George was the rector of an brother was stingy. He had married to return to Montevideo, and, on a poor widow with one son, named reaching there, began to speculate in John Major. John and Margaret had hides. He was successful and grew been playmates from infancy, and were rich, and believing that his wife must like brother and sister. John was be dead, married again. One childarticled to a lawyer in York, but when the youth mentioned already-was the an aunt died and left him an income issue of this marriage. After living of some CDO a year his studies ceased, happily together for lifteen years, his and he lived at home and amused him. wife sickened and died, and he resolvself with his horses and dogs. Farmer ed to return to England. Navlor looked on this life with muchdisfavor, and took every opportunity point, I am going to tell you just what introducing his own son to till out the to let John know what he thought of his idle course. John was a rollicking. that truth is stranger than option, good natured youth, and took this in ""When I reached London with my What the Agents Thought of the good part, admitting that he hated son I took rooms in Lambeth, overwork, and never intended to devote looking the river. One day my son himself to it if he could help it.

"By and by John began to be very tritles, and directed them to be sent to div young. The mother would not attentive to Margaret. incensed her father, and in order to remarked that P was an uncommon cought, but would share captivity and stop the thing he sent. Margaret to an name, and said he only remembered death with it; if one of two was taken, sund's, near Driffield, to spend a month having met with it once before. My the mother would drive the other one or two. When she returned, John son asked where that was, and the away from the danger, and then ge began to visit the huse again, but grover replied that a widow named back to perish with the caught one. Margaret, though she treated him Major and her little hoy boarded for Elian tells of many such traits which kindly, gave him no encouragement as some time with his mother, and that a lover, so far as the watchful eyes of she afterward married the curate of in the dolphin, and to connect it most the father could discover. Finally the the neighboring church and left the littimately with man and his sea-life. old farmer told John his company way neighborhood. not wanted, and that his daughter ""Naturally enough, when my son ship of the hardy sailor over the solifom ever to come near the farm again. man, the told me what had happened, with their sportive movements, and to "soon after this a young near ap- My son knew nothing of my former be so coulding that, if they were piled to Farmer Navior for work. He matriage, and so, saying nothing to called by the name of Simon, they gave the name of Charles Simms, and hun, I went to see the grover. I found would come up and help the disherman

ful we abould take a trip next day up of it and read it. I shall never forget ABOUT TURKISH BATHS, | yague as to mystify rather than en-1DI FENDING HIS COLORS. the Humber to Goole, suggesting that | what was in it as long as I livea lady's company would be agreeable. | ran thus: They gladly assented to the trip, but said they knew no lady, and we had a very pleasant time. 1 and the old man were together much of the time, and as we were returning home in the autumn evening he related to me a strange story.

"He married, he said, in London, when he was very young, and after three months spent with his young wille, went as second mate of a vessel to Rio Janeiro: After an absence of nearly a year, he returned, and found himself the father of a line boy, who was named John, after himself. next voyage was to Montevideo, where he invested his savings, along with four others, in a small whaling schooner, and started for the Southern Ocean. They were wrecked off Terra del Fuege, on their re urn voyage, with a tine cargo, and lost everything. They were captured by the savages, and remained in bonlage three years, without an opportualty of communicating with their friends. One day a large three-masted schooner ran aground in one of the narrow channels of the Straits, and Major, and his friends managed to ende their captors and swim to the vessel. They were heartily welcomed on board, and, a strong breeze setting in, the vessel floated reaching the Faikland Isles they found

"On reaching England, Major went,

""'Now,' said the old man at this happen of to me, and it proves, I think,

"'No. 57 John St., Hull, Sept. 24, ""Dramser Parnette I am married to John Major and we are very happy. We are coming to see you to morrow about three o'clock. " 'Your loving daughter, "MARCARET MARCA

"How did I feel? Can't you guess) Why, of course, I'd been done regu larly done. I was there when the couple arrived and the old man received his daughter with open arms, and shock John heartily by the hand.

""We are coming to live with you, father," Margaret said; tand John is His going to manage the farm for you, and we are going to have that nice young man Shoms back, as John won't need is given with warm water. This is a music, indicating that the made had him any more to look after his dogs and horses." "When John was forbidden the house, you see, he put up a job with Simus, his factorum, to find employ ment with the farmer, and carry on carly on the morning of September over the flesh are raised and brought joined them. On reaching Hull, John said to himself; 'The old man will down he went to the police headdozen detectives. The second one he to London, but, in spite of the most visited suited him, and he took rooms adjoining parish, and, though a com, diligent search, failed to find any trace and board for himself and Margaret. clean breast of it to the detective, and as John paid a good price for his rooms, and a round sum in addition. he determined to see him through. first notified, and with great acuteness he planned what followed, getting his father-in-law---an old retired officer to take the first hand, and skillfully story, which, of course, was the sheer est fabrication."

Dolphin. Ellan ascribed to it a parental love went to the grocery to order some that did not fear death for the sake of This greatly Mr. Major, at our address. The grosser forsake her young one when it was seem to reveal akind of human nature Dolphins were said to accompany the should never marry him, forbidding returned home,' said the old gentles tary sea, to endeavor to entertain him Peculiarities of a City Bathing reached the capital, and in the month. This Brase Action a Massae iniof March began to be common. Establishment.

dities of the Customer.

"There are tricks in every calling it sems," said the proprietor of a fash- calld not go out of doors without. onable Turkish bath establishment n New York. "What peculiar tricks are in your tion even to the remote villages in the of the Mail and E. pass. "In the massage operation much deseption is frequently practised by the Unglishman, we found, even in remote baying the sweat bath a hand rubbing near solitary cottages, the sound of very delicate and soothing perform- spread even there. ance, and when rightly administered places the father in a splendid condi- tainly remarkable, but not to be comtion to receive the flesh brush. Expert operators can with well-feigned labor slight their work and leave the bather when on the 15th of July, 1245, 1,000 him and Margaret, and arrange for the satisfactory or not. It is done by impulse, without preconcert, and elopement. J. Sumus received her noise chiefly. The hands in running unknown to their purents.

Some old operators can carry on a all were acceptable. paratively poor man, as liberal as his of his wife and child. He determined Then he got the license, and they were conversation by means of the pops, 1 When information was given by me to the former conveyed the intelligence the police, the detective was one of the to the one for the latter that he expected a big tip. The latter answered distant r.

> frequently for their torbearance and of no fatality connected therewith. good nature. Customers are often exacting and want double the amount of serubing others get. There is a wealthy old gentlessen who is a bull in the market and a regular hear in the bath-house. He has a hobit of imagining that on a certain portion of his body a cancer will come because, many generations ago, a second coasin of his grandfather diel with one. For this reason he has an hour consumed in scrubbing that particular place. He doesn't pay any more either. These are some of the drawbacks experienced." interest on the public debts of all the "You often have queer customers, to "civilized nations" of the world, is, ac you not ?

"Yes, plenty of them, from the fail, annually thrown away forever by the fledged crank to the monomannee and people of the United States, without mild idiot. An oid Lely imagines that the smallest return in the way of comby a regular course of sweating she fortor-satisfaction, but, on the ontrary being a strong, likely young fellow. that the Mrs. Major he knew had best in his work of driving the ish into his can change her disposition and ideas at the cost of many lives each year, the farmer put him to work. When her husband at sea, and that her first net. They forewarned him of the entirely. In every seven years, she simply through the cardessness of boys lighten. After a time, however, it. :14 seris Solutions first parties of two or three were to be

Some of the Tricks of Attendants and Qd- over, accompanied by musicians and How's Federal Sergeant Lost Both Arms other attendants, dancing in the public places; and in a few weeks there had increased to hundreds, so that one meeting bands of these dancers. It pread rapidly, as by a sort of infecagainess?" inquired a representative central province of finerina, so that, three years old. Following is the having occasion to visit a distant part.

of the country in company with an operator. In the first course after buildes, and, more wonderful still, first Massachusetts regiment was all proposed approximations at group on

The rapidity of this spread was cerparel with what is related of the outbreak of the child pilgringge of Erfurt.

17th dressed in boys' clothes, with a down hurriedly, producing a series of much by the ansate, which was the cloak around her, which she at once pops, pops, which is music to the car quickest possible. The patients were removed, and drove her in a gig to a of the manager. It does not hart, but fond of carrying sugarcanes about with as a rub. When the operator pops a or carried them over their shoulders great deal he is doing the Eather-so while they danset. Frequently, too, went to travel to far away." Then through, some bathers though prefer singular evolutions with a bottle of these popping operators. The popping water upon their heads, which they the line swept on, the colors home mail quarters, and got the address of half a jis in the massage as flourishes are in su ceeded wonderfully in balancing. ornamental when produced by experts, of music, but others were used, and > attained to this proficiency. A mill penel, and these only occurred, so far tion of the missile struck PlonLett's Te suited. lionaire was stretched on one of the as the writer is aware, where the right arm, near the shoulder, nearly massage tables and a dry-goods clerk patient was restrained from joining in severing it, so that it hong by a shrell on another near by. The operator for the dances. It would seen that these of mangled desh. Then it struck a persons actually died from pent-up book which he had bottoned inside hispassion or excitement. The dancing, a vest- a book with thick covers descripnodoubt, was so far salutary. The tive of the White Sulphur Springs "Manuma's hearing is not as good now, in a disgusted tone, telling of his cheap music server to regulate and control which he had nicked up in Frederices during that's all." customer, and predicted no tip. The the wild muscular movements that burg that morang-tore it to passes, millionaire did not tin, but the cheap might otherwise have proved injurious. and glancing, struck his left area near clerk did, much to the surprise of his A most romarkable fact is, that the the wrist, making a trightful wound. But these attendants or operators long-continued as it is in this disease, turn the direction of the shell, on deserve great credit for their skill and geens perfectly harmless, and we know doubtedly saved Parakett's life. If the rollers?" "Oh, I've no objection

> > Forest Fires.

The Lumber World makes the astonishing assertion that the loss to this country through for 1 ares is now not less than $300,000,000 a year, simply through the destruction of available timber, without counting the additional loss from the annihilation of the seeds scattered on the surface, and the scorehing of the ground, which often renders if sterile for a generation. This enormous sum, about equal to the cording to the report of experts, at the Battle of Tre lexickchurg.

The late Sergeant Thomas Plunkett, of Worcester, Mass., lest both his arms while carrying the colors of his regiment at Fredericksburg, Desember 13, [And I is as smartly do twight block 1802. At the time he was twenty-story of his brave deed; On the afternoon of December 13, tached wasordered to charge the inipregnable Confederate position on Marye's Hill, just back of the town.

Plunkett was ordered to take a position in the rear of the line to prevent straggling from the ranks. As the regiment swept forward on the double quick, under a deadly tire from the the desired correspondence between in doubt whether the performance is children assembled, as if by instinctive Confederate works, Color Sergeant line? Eille Consections Joseph H. Collins fell mortally wound-proadly at the front by the heroic - An American whereas arrested in mere physical exercise, prodigious and The book, which was their enough to his breast for weeks. Prankett reg so dara hard to brush eff." forward upon the flag, and the stams of his blood are visible upon the banner to-day. When he fell, Colonel Clark (now Professor Clark of Andrerst Col. Count Paul Vach gives a novel explaand sent him to the rear in charge of that his Majesty has long been suffer one distance until faint from the loss as what the or ad Count says of him: of blood, when a strabilier was pro-emed and he was taken to an impro-With whom 1 v 01 not say. One day vised haspital in the city of Lyeler as he was bringing to his lady, just as ele-barry. his case hopeles and turned their at , cens bouquet, he happened by accident tention to there whom they thought to pass unnerload into her little salon, more in need of their services. Lot where he found himself alone. Imtwo hours in lay in the Port helphase mediately he began to arrange the

The Chatham Record.

RATES

ADVERTISING $1.00 One square, one inertion-One separe, two insertions One separe, one month 1.40 2.50

For larger intertisoments liberal con-NO. 32. Wracts will be made

> Beyond. the standard a relating in this success hand, Before it would mean under senalti-rena noo commensarec idi benediyeb e charges. Have beautilise based ((mmed

Aughters notes, golden to the detty-

Where a new reason and new larges of low, Where every large bit convertible to be transmission Think of models would reach street, to be anywe perfore constraints type I 200 That every ferrorical street. We can and me

Networker would be had up strongly in 1862, the brigade to which the Twenty-  $||_{L_{1},L_{2},\mu}$  , as the descent of the theorem  $L_{2}$

LIFER ONLY THE H . King Kindy

III MOROUS.

A stud-house-stud police station. Mate of all work a pair of shoes. Bern. Why do you prefer a wood What's in a minor: About the ed, and the national bannes felt to the shoft of country on the quote 1) Chill The dancing was regulated very ground and was left belining. Surgeant - There is a soft tode to every man, Plunkett, seeing the dag fall, threw, bus as a general thing to can't tell down his gain, seried the redors and , which subsists after he has been in rushed to the front of the line, A the roller sharing cut, twenty minutes spot near the station, where John at the same time it is not as bencheral them. They held them in their hands hot fire was at once concentrated on A close observer has some to the the dag, bullets passed through its conclusion that it there is anything silken folds, the staff was splintered under the sky at sightion which the off and continued her voyage. On have the police after us, and 1 don't to speak -up, rushing things to get they might be seen going through their and its galant bearer had his cap perfor atest by a well-directed block. Still to do up a pre-kape  $-N \in Y$  ,  $i \in Sour$ > writing, entirely superfluous, but still. The drum was the favorite instrument, young sergeant. Suddenly, not as the Palestine and received, the bast made regiment arrived at the point mean st on his same feet, and he would prefer the Confederate's works, which it was to be shrined alive? If he had been The disease was rarely fatal; still a lated that day to reach, a shell barst aligned alive he would probably premarried. The next was to make a remember I had two operators who had gew cases of death unloabtedly hap- directly in front of the colors. A pure for the basting lo. Size people sever

> > "Papa, did mamma say yet, to you right of when you asked her to marry NOTE: "Vertainty she did." "Why don't she say yes now just as quick

"so you've been practicing at the skaturg rink; eh?" said a friend to Simplify, "Yes," admitted Simkins, "I have" "Well how dryon take to was struck with such is see that the to the rollers. They're all right. It's marks of the covers could be seen on the chaik on the floor 1 object to 12 a

A Luckless Lover.

In history look, "Society of Vienna," lege), who had witnessed his exploit, nation of the remarkably retired life of une to him, cut of his accouterments. King Louis of Bavaria. It appears one of his comrades. He walked for any from the effects of love, and here

"fking Louis was wildly in love: The surgeons pronomore commun margal lovers do, a magnitude and half delivery from para, wet with "lowers in a vase. Having midded the water used in washing the wounds this delicate operation, he started t.

the harvest was over Snams told the name was Antoinette Agnes, the name storm also had a good feeling toward said, we take on a new form, and 1 and hunters, and of these more intellifarmer that his father's health was fail. of my wife. I inquired from several bathing boys, and exhibited thankfuls propose a system of sweating to do it gent persons who ought to know ing and he must go being, and the far. elergymen, and finally ascertained that ness toward man. The spiritual qualtoer parted with him with reductance, the catate, whose name was Naylor, ites of the dolphin appeared not less garet disappeared. ieft, and I was employed to discover Hull and made further inquiries, and lish that were caught with him, then ber whereabouts. ready narrated came to my knowledge, and my son were indeed living. 1 in. the wise "isherman, if he casually

"The first thing I found was that trusted Robert here, my younger son, caught a dolphin, would draw a rush the very day Margaret disappeared, with the story, and dispatched him to through his nose and let him go, mark-John Major disappeared also, simply communicate with his brother. He ing him for another time. That such telling his people that he would be did so successfully without arousing away for a few days. 1 ascertained suspicion, and in consequence I beheld that a youth of title n or sixteen had my dear boy once more.

been seen in the adjoining village, and ""Well, thought 1, this may be a very that John joined him there, the two pretty story, but it is very certain that matter of course, especially when it is then taking a train for Hull. To that it has nothing to do with Margarettown I at once went, satisfied from and I had better took in another directhe description of the youth that it tion. I had encouraged the idea that could have been none other than John had certainly gone off with Mar-Margaret Naylor in male attire, On garet, and had her in hiding somereaching Hull, I interested the police where, but now it vanished, and I re-authorities in the case, and in a few solved to be off. I returned to Abinghours ascertained that a young man don and began atresh. I thought the answering John's description was to the matter over thoroughly-what a be seen daily in the Zoological Gardens, fool 1 and 11 was clear now as day just on the outskirts of the town, light. The young fellow Simms was accompanied by a youth of sixteen, a lover in disguise, and he and Margaand an elderly, infirm man. I visited ret had eloped. I made a circuit to "How truly," says Spencer, "language ing over a volume the other day that the removal of underbrush from the provided for by the contributions of the gardens, and was lucky enough to find the direction taken by the young and the persons for whom I was look. couple. I could learn nothing of them, thought, though the nescessary instru- that have taken hold of nations in past not easily kindled, and the mischief is ing. I had a photograph of John and A young fellow somewhat answering ment of it we shall clearly perceive on vears, I came across the following one of Margaret, and was at once the description of Simus had been satistical that, though the younger man seen on the evening of September 16th with which simple ideas are commuwas John Major without doubt, the going toward Withersea, but no one nicated by signa. youth was not Margaret Naylor, was with him. I spent two days still, here was a mystery, and I felt I trudging through the country-I was must solve it. I managed to scrape a young fellow then-but all in vain. an acquaintance with the elderly Then I hurried my steps once more No phrase can convey the i.lea of surgentleman as he sat on a bench, and toward Abingdon. There was a frown prise so vividly as opening the eyes was said had appeared in the west or now ?" when he was joined by the other two on the farmer's face when I met him. and raising the eyebrows. A shrug of southwest. The name given to it by we sat for half an hour and had a ""You're a pretty fellow,' he said, 'a the shoulders would lose much by the natives was 'imanenjana,' and the pleasant chat together. Much to my nice one to be a detective. You'll do translation into words. Again it may dancers were called "ramanjana," surprise the young man and the youth for London, perhaps, but you're no be remarked that when oral language which probably comes from a root called the old man father. I met them good for the country where the peo-two days in succession, and then sug-ple are smar. Look at that.' is employed the strongest effects are produced by interjections which con-did not convey any idea of its nature, sidewalk and keeps time wid his fut." gested that as the weather was beauti- "He held out a letter. I haid hold dense entire sentences into syllables." and the accounts given of it were so Siftings.

"The next day, September 17th, Mar. had been appointed to a living at deep to antiquity. It a dolphin was spiration fairly rolls of her. But it is beings of feeble intellect, railway Not a trace was. Withersea, in Yorkshire, 1 came to caught, he would greedily cat all the Then the facts at soon felt satisfied that my former wife would break the net and escape; hence an animal, to which a lavish fancy ascribed so many noble qualities, should have enjoyed in reality a certain degree of honor and indulgence, follows as a little value when caught, but when at large could often make himself very Dispatch, I visited many towns that useful by driving up the smaller tishes toward the nets, as the whale does in that the pastime had taken quite a the herring-fishery .- Popular Science Montaly.

The Significance of Gesture.

In his essay on the philosophy of here, which has spread with amazing spark-atresters, style Herbert Spencer indicates as to rapidity this winter, until now its writing the same theory that Mr. Ir- ravages are viewed with alarm and ving reduces to practice in acting, dismay by pulpit and press. In look, must be regarded as a hindrance to contained accounts of different manias remembering the comparative force which I submit to the consideration of dry leaves, ferns or bushes, which

parties

"To say 'Leave the room' is less expressive to point to the door. A beek Europeans resident at Antananariyo, of the hand is better than 'come here.' the capital of Madagascar, began to in a year or less true." Four thing, she stays in the hot room until the perdoing her good and her bleas are evidently improving. A young cripple thinks his withered arm will grow out inquires seriously whether the owners again, and takes a bath every day. could mention many other cases. The pelled, in the public interest, to furnish attendants soon learn to humor the cranks and pity human nature."

A Remarkable Disease,

The roller state craze that hasseized body and soul upon the people of this country has spread rapidly within the nast few months. In 1881, while but it is so difficult to fix the kindling remembered that the dolphin was of traveling in the West and on the Pacific of a forest fire with certainty upon coast, says a writer in the Pittsburgh contained flourishing rinks, and learned held on the young people of both sexes.

> tolerably effective, but it would be still woodland. Trees by themselves are usually done through the ignition of roller skaters and other interested burn long enough to char, and at last to kindle the branches of the trees

In the month of February, 1863, the above them - American Architect,

"N-a-a-w. He is a musician." "Is he the man that swallys the clarinet in the band ?"

"X-a-a-w; he don't swally the clarenough to keep a sharp watch over these destructive animals Next to human locomotives do most injury in forest countries, and the Lunder World. the entire regiment torned out to shof such locomotives should not be comtim honor as he, with other, wounded men, was transferred by way of Vequia them with spark-arresters during the Creek to Washington. His brother, dry season. The idea that radiway Frank, had secured, through the efforts compantes are responsible for the value of timber destroyed by tires set from of Charles Summer, a pass to Acqui-

Creek, upon which be managed to their locamotives undoubtedly has some effect in preventing legislative reach Fredericksburg, only to mul the sergeant gone After hunting three interference with their management; days in Washington, aided by the perple at the Massachusetts headquarters. Plunkett was found in the Emery becomotive sparks, to say nothing of Hospital on the outskirts. Here he the obstacles in the way of collecting lay several wears invatles, his left arm large debts from newly established railway corporations, that the safer causing him a great deal of suffering way would be to provide as far as pos-At one time it was thought teamputa-Returning to the cast, I found that the ble against raising the question of tion would be necessary, but his vigor epidemic had obtained a good foothold responsibility by compelling the use of our constitution pulled him through Against animated and in May he obtained a "War Deincendiaries a forest patrol might be partment" furleugh, and started for home. On recovering from his wound: more useful to provide in some way for Sorgeant Pumkett was, generatedy people who honored his bravery and by a full pension. He has held a position as messenger in the State Ho in Boston, fitteen years. A Sup clinous Boy.

William Trotter has been paying his addresses to Miss Root Hedsteer, of Waco. His visits have not been very frequent of late, and last night, Tommy, Miss Rosa's younger brother. said.

"You ought to come and soe us every evening, Mr. Trotter." "Why, Johnny ?"

"Because if makes sister Rosa s happy to have your go away. You ought never to miss an evening They missed Trotter for the rest of that evening - Siftings.

of his contrades, until finally his pray deave, but just then saw his belovel ers that something might be done for one coming home in company with a him prevailed. The surgeons alluin young man, so he concrated himself istured chlored arm and amputated both behind a curtain in order to enjoy the his arm, one is at the shoulder and surpose and delight, as he thought of the other below the eiters. He was the young lady at the sight of the then taken to arfield, he with and on dowers brought to her by her royal avthe 25th of December, Caristinas Day Jurrer. Well she came into the room that not alone. Her cavalier was with her. "Heaven? she exclamed, another bouquet from that fool of a King "whom I detest" Then turning to her friend, she invited him to kiss seray the annoying impression. The invitation was reported and has concealed Majesty, although han blinds ed with the tears in his eyes, managed to crawl out unobserved. Then ha cursed the unfaithful one, and sworathat he would never legals love and never marry. He kept his oath; and since that time, if the unfortunate sovereign has lived in solitude and has become the dreamer that the is known to be, it is because he has long been convinced that reveries can some times give as much happinges as realitiescared that they are less liable to be dereptive.

A Thoughtful Husband,

Mrs. Minks: "I think it is too had. Mr. Minks! Why can't a man be as considerate of his wife a few years after marilage as he was before? But I suppose it is too much to expect. men are all alike, and care, only for themselves.

Mr. Minks; "Beally, my dear, I don't know what you are driving at."

"Oh! no, of course not! You dog a even know that this is my birth lay, and yet only a few years ago the date was engraven on your heart, and you never failed to give me a presert. Why didn't you do so to-day, I should like to know.

"Because my dear I did not wish to remind you of the paincul fact that you were a year older, -- Call,

Ills Delicate Musical Mission. "Does yer old man work on the dock