The Tin Plate Tax. There is no part of the tariff debate more instructive and convincing in favor of the Democratic plan of taxation than the discussion on tin plates. The debate on salt, lumber and wool was also convincing on the side of Democrats, but the novelty of the tin-plate industry made the inquiries presented by it stand out clear and bold.

The Payment of the special tax bonds seems to be exercising the minds of some of our citizens, and the nomination of Mr. Morton as the republican candidate for Vice-President has again brought that subject prominently forward.

DOCKERY'S peculiar plan of county government, as stated by him in his letter of acceptance, has heretofore been explained by the Record, but we desire again to call attention to it.

FRANK E. VAUGHAN. Death From Hydrophobia. Chicago, July 26.—Mrs. John S. Martin, aged 28 years, was buried yesterday, her death being the result of a bite from a pit dog.

After all the rumors of extensive defections from the County Democracy and a good deal of foolish scare about the disintegration of that organization, the blow has fallen and all there is to show for it is the desertion of a couple of district leaders and a dozen of their henchmen.

There is some talk of the Republicans nominating Chauncey M. Depew for Mayor. They bank on his personal popularity and the dual Democratic tickets. As the Republican voting strength in the city is barely one-fourth of the whole it makes little difference whether the Democrats put two tickets in the field or one—the local officers are quite certain to be Democrats.

FRANK E. VAUGHAN. A Desperate Feud. LIBERAL, KANSAS, July 27.—The following particulars have been received from a resident of Hugoton regarding the terrible encounter between the Hugoton and Wooddale men in Stevens county: Sam Robinson, city marshal of Hugoton, and M. Cooke, of the same town, went to the Dudley ranch, near Pony Creek, yesterday, accompanied by their wives, to look up some cattle which they were trying to buy.

Mr. Randall is going after slowly. The report that he had a cancer in his stomach is about so says his physician. Ex-Congressman Frank Hurd, who has recently been traveling around pretty extensively, says the tariff reform issue will sweep the country, and that Cleveland and Thurman will be elected by one of the largest electoral majorities ever given.

Speaker Carlisle declined to attend the meeting of the Piedmont Chatauque at Atlanta, Georgia. He says that he will take pleasure in making a political speech in the state, later. A bill establishing a land court for the settlement of private land claims in Colo. and N. Mex. has been passed by the House.

Disgraced men have recently murdered a boy-coted farmer and a laborer in Ireland.

Mr. Cleveland has about given up all hope of getting his accustomed summer outing this year, owing to the unusually long session of Congress, the end of which cannot yet be seen.
