and Mason, the republican candidates for Lieutenant-Governor, Auditor, and Superintendent of Public Instruction, are all lawyers; whereas not one of the democratic candidates for the same positions is a lawyer.

INDEPENDENTS, so called, are looked upon with suspicion by both parties, and are not trusted by either. Even the republican papers are now calling on their readers to "watch" the independents.

Our New York Letter.

NOTES OF THE CAMPAIGN.

[New York Star Syndicate Letter to the Record.]

New York, August 4, 1888.

Leading Democrats from many States have been in town for a day or two in attendance upon the first meeting of the National Democratic League Executive Committee.

Our Washington Letter.

[From our Regular Correspondent.]

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3, 1888.

The President returned from his well earned four day vacation trip in ample time to sign the joint resolution extending the old appropriation bills for thirty days longer, thus disappointing the republicans very much, as they were all ready to raise a cry of neglect of public duties.

Our Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3, 1888.

The reigning local topic,—one that completely overshadows politics and puts all others in the shade is baseball. New Yorkers at a moderate estimate pay half a million dollars a year for the privilege of seeing the Princes of the Diamond "slag the loathern sphere into the far left garden."

Our Washington Letter.

[From our Regular Correspondent.]

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3, 1888.

Senator Beck has given notice that he will in the future object to unanimous consent being given for the passage of any bill.

that Cleveland will lose thousands of votes in the State and will very likely be defeated. There you have the situation in a nut shell, or rather the arguments of either side. But it must not be supposed that opposition to the renomination of the Governor is entirely Mugwumpian.

Congressman Ford's Committee are still digging away at the Immigration inquiry and will probably spend the dog days with us prosecuting their labors.

This immigration problem is perhaps the most serious, save that of taxation, with which our Legislators will have to grapple.

The Sundry Civil Appropriation bill, which has been passed by the Senate, has had so many amendments tacked on since it passed the House, that when it gets back to that body it will be hardly recognizable.

Representative Outhwaite's bill for the settlement of the Government's claims against the Union Pacific Railroad, has been favorably reported to the Senate.

During the temporary absence of Speaker Carlisle, Mr. McMillan, of Tennessee, has been chosen Speaker pro tem.

of the Convict Labor bill, but there was objection.

A bill has been reported to the Senate to give the Richmond, Va. and the Augusta, Ga., expositions, the surplus from the appropriation made for the Ohio Valley Centennial.

The Senate has agreed to the resolution for the appointment of a committee of seven, to investigate our trade relations with Canada.

The Senate bill appropriating $30,000 for the erection of an equestrian statue to Gen. Zachary Taylor in this city, has been favorably reported to the House.

Representative Byrum, of Indiana, says the Senate will not pass a tariff bill, and that while they may be able to agree in committee to the extent of reporting a measure that will please the most of the republican Senators, it is impossible to please them all, and no bill can be passed without the votes of them all.

Mrs. Cleveland and her mother are at home again.

The House committee on manufactures, in their preliminary report on the trust investigations, say that the trusts have been organized carefully, so as to avoid the law against conspiracy.

It is generally understood that the River and Harbor bill will be signed by the President.
