THE RESPECT shown for woman by civilized nations is in striking contrast to the brutality with which she is treated by barbarous tribes.

Suppose, dear reader, that Dockery, or any other man, should utter such a slander on your wife, what would you do?

White men of Chatham, white men of North Carolina, white men of the State, what think ye of this?

named William H. Quick, who had obtained his law license in February, 1884.

But this was more than the other republicans of Richmond could do, for Sneed was elected although Richmond is a republican county.

Dockery, in his speech here and at other places, attempted to excite the prejudices of his hearers against President Cleveland by alleging that he had appointed a negro to an office.

Dockery, however, brings this charge against Cleveland, in order to excite the prejudices of white democrats.

No member of the Farmers Alliance, who is true to the principles of that organization, can vote for Dockery or Nichols.

Resolved 1st, That we do hereby renew our obligation to abide by and give effect to this declaration of principles as announced by the National Alliance.

Resolved 2nd, That as true and steadfast Alliance men, we pledge ourselves to give neither aid, support or comfort nor to vote for any person or persons who cannot and will not cooperate with this Alliance in standing by and giving practical effect to the demands of said National Alliance.

Now, if you are "true and steadfast Alliance men" you are pledged not to vote for Dockery or Nichols, because they "will not cooperate with this Alliance in standing by and giving practical effect to the demands of said National Alliance".

Not only can no member of the Alliance vote for Dockery or Nichols, but he cannot consistently support any candidates of the republican party.

favor a protective tariff and the Farmers Alliance is opposed to it. If, as that paper declares, no true republican can be a member of the Farmers Alliance, then how can a member of the Farmers Alliance be a republican, or vote for the republican candidates?

Important to Prohibitionists. Rev. R. L. Abernethy, one of the most prominent prohibitionists of the State, was nominated by the Prohibition, or Third party as their candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

At the earnest solicitation of many friends, and after mature and prayerful reflection, I beg to withdraw my name as candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction on the Prohibition ticket.

The talk of the town this morning is the withdrawal from the Republican party of its only Congressman from this city—Hon. Ashbel P. Fitch.

In severing his connection with the G. O. P. Mr. Fitch has written a powerful letter, in which he mercilessly assails the Republican campaign tactics.

At the meeting of the North Carolina Farmers State Alliance, held last week at Raleigh, the following resolutions were adopted and the papers of the State were requested to publish them:

Resolved 1. That the N. C. F. S. Alliance hereby enters its earnest protest against the policy of giving away the labor of our convicts, and demands of our Legislature the enactment of such laws as will hereafter prevent this outrage on the taxpayers of our State.

Resolved 2. That we demand such changes in our laws as will reduce the costs in litigation in minor causes, and as shall enlarge the jurisdiction of our Justices of the Peace.

Resolved 3. That we demand that laws shall be enacted to prohibit our public officials from receiving or using free passes or free tickets on our railroads.

Resolved 4. That we demand that our Legislature establish a commission for the regulation of freights and tariffs on the railroads of our State.

Our New York Letter.

(New York Star Syndicate Letter to the Record.)

NEW YORK, August 18, 1888. There is great tribulation in one of the Metropolis' many millionaire households. The heads of the members of the fashionable Bell family are bowed down in grief.

This is no fancy sketch, but a plain and accurate statement of facts. Such an occurrence is not at all rare in New York, but a particularly grotesque feature of the case in hand was a regular application to the City Health authorities through the family physician who got $150 a day for attending to the patient.

The defunct poodle now lies in state unconscious of the wailing and gnashing of teeth around him. A fashionable undertaker prepared him for burial and gently laid his remains in a handsome casket covered with purple velvet, satin lined and silver trimmed.

In severing his connection with the G. O. P. Mr. Fitch has written a powerful letter, in which he mercilessly assails the Republican campaign tactics.

Our Washington Letter.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17, 1888. Representative Mills left here today for West Virginia, to make reform reform speeches. From there he goes to New Jersey and then to the Northwest.

Senator Morgan in his exposition of the reason why the republican Senators oppose the fisheries treaty, bore down on the New England brethren in a manner that was anything but pleasant for the representatives of that section.

Ex-Senator McDonald, of Indiana, is in this city. In answer to a question he said: "Things look very favorable for the democrats. I have never had any doubt about Indiana's going Democratic. Conditions are very favorable to us. I think we shall carry the state by a good majority."

The delay in Mr. Cleveland's letter of acceptance is having a terrible effect on the republicans. Another week without it and some of them will be put into straight jackets.

Senator Sherman has introduced a bill to prevent the formation of trusts. It defines a trust to be "the combination of capital or skill by two or more persons for the following purposes: first, to create or carry out restrictions on trade; second, to limit, reduce, or to increase the production or prices of merchandise or commodities; third, to prevent competition in the manufacture, making sales or purchase of merchandise or commodities; fourth, to create a monopoly."

While in the United States Senate General Harrison voted against reducing the tariff on agricultural implements and tools of mechanics. See Congressional Record, volume XIV, page 1,784, 47th Congress.

He also voted against reducing the tariff rate on cotton bagging. See Congressional Record, volume XIV, page 2,512.

He also voted against the repeal of the tobacco tax. See Congressional Record, volume XIV, page 2,797.

How does this record of the Radical candidate for President of the United States strike the eye of the average North Carolina farmer?
