Which Party is better fitted to govern North Carolina? The democratic party, composed as it is of the most intelligent white men of the State...

Without the negro vote what republican candidate in North Carolina would have any hope of being elected? Without the negro voters what would be the size of the republican party in North Carolina?

CLEVELAND has been denounced by Dockery and other republican speakers for having appointed a large number of negroes to office. Republican speakers and papers in North Carolina have repeatedly asserted that President Cleveland had appointed several hundred negroes to office.

It is true that a number of negroes hold clerkships in the Departments at Washington, but Mr. Cleveland is not responsible for that. They were appointed during the administration of the republican Presidents.

Dockery voted for negroes against white men, and he and his followers try to excuse him for it by accusing Cleveland of appointing hundreds of negroes to office.

WITH DEEP regret have we heard of the death of Mr. William J. Yates, the veteran editor of the Charlotte Democrat, who died very suddenly at Charlotte on Wednesday night of last week.

We esteem it an honor to have enjoyed the personal friendship and respect of so true, level-headed and honorable a man as Mr. Yates, and among all our personal friends there was no one whose good opinion we valued more highly than his.

Democracy have no unkind feelings to the colored people. This is proved by their public and private acts. They built for them asylums for their afflicted ones; they have built for them school houses all over the State; they have established for them normal schools and colleges; they are paying every year thousands and thousands of dollars to educate their children.

Well, if the negroes will do this and will meet upon drawing "the color line," all the white people can do is to accept the issue and vote solidly with their color. Surely a white man ought to be as true to his color as a negro is to his!

Every man ought to work next Tuesday as if he thought that the result of the election depended on his individual efforts. Do not think that your one vote will not change the result, but go to work as if your vote would decide the election.

Not only go to the polls yourself, but see that all your neighbors go. Hitch up your team and haul the old and mired. Don't let any democrat stay at home. And when you get to the polls, do not sit down quietly, but stir around and try to get every doubtful voter to vote right.

MORTON'S MONEY IS BEING EXPENDED TO BUY THE WHITE MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA. CAN HE DO IT? ANSWER NEXT TUESDAY!

A Revision of the tariff and a reduction of the taxes is demanded by the democratic party, and is opposed by the republican party. The people at the polls next Tuesday must decide which is right. The present high tariff is no longer necessary, and the democratic party say that unnecessary taxation is robbery under the form of law.

THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA may be very wicked and sinful, but we cannot think that the good Lord will punish them so severely as to allow Dockery to be their Governor!

THE ONLY time that Dockery had an opportunity to vote for a negro lawyer against a white farmer, he did it. Will white farmers now vote for him?

MANEUVERS OF THE POLITICAL ARMIES AT THE METROPOLIS—BLANK'S TWENTY-TWO THOUSAND AS DEMOCRATIC AMMUNITION—THEIR POSITION—LAS GIVES IT UP.

The document and mailing room of the National Democratic Committee is a scene of remarkable activity. Two hundred nimble-fingered girls are scribbling away as if their lives depended upon it, addressing envelopes to convey campaign literature to individual voters. This means some thing over 200,000 documents a day, and yet this is scarcely a tithe of the whole output.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26, 1888.

Senator Gorman came over from the national democratic headquarters in New York, and had a long conference with Mr. Cleveland this week. Mr. Gorman gave the President a detailed account of the present status of the campaign, and also fully informed him of the expectations of the national committee, together with the grounds upon which they are based.

The West.

[From our Western Correspondent.]

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 26, 1888.

So far as Western North Carolina goes, there is every reason to believe that the fall vote of both parties will be polled. The whole section is well advanced to the importance of the issues presented; and while there is really very little of the usual political excitement and no factious elements in operation to influence the people, there is strong, earnest interest which will bring an unusual percentage of voters to the polls.
