Son in a Beyond.

Near a well in a field with corn. Blood the low level of my home where I was born. And ever and ever I long to see you. To watch the great fields smooth and bright.

THE COPYIST.

"Jim," said Mr. Perkins to his office boy, "put on some more coal." "Yes, sir," said the boy. "And is you hear? Take this packet of papers around to Penn & Linds and ask 'em what they mean by sending me such a blotted piece of work."

as she wrote, in a quaint, distinct style, the words: "My name is Amy Archdale, and I want to earn my own living." "Amy Archdale," repeated Mr. Perkins. "It's a romantic name, isn't it?"

CHILDREN'S COLUMN. The Bell-Only. Swing, swing, with the pendulum swinging. My bellows are bellows that long have swung.
