The Chatham Record

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1888.

LOCAL RECORDS.

☞ FAREWELL, OLD YEAR!

☞ The annual season for "swearing off" has come again.

☞ Do not begin the new year in debt to your preacher or your paper!

☞ Did you ever see fairer or pleasanter weather at Christmas than that on last Tuesday?

☞ Dogwood and Persimmon in great demand at the shuttle block factory. But no more Hickory timber wanted at present.

☞ It is said that there are one or more candidates in Chatham for nearly every office in the gift of the next Legislature. Somebody will be disappointed.

☞ Are you not ashamed to borrow this paper, instead of subscribing for it? As this is the time for making new resolutions, resolve that you will never borrow again!

☞ A small colored child, a son of Jeff Hill, was badly burned at this place, a few days ago. The same old story of the mother leaving the child alone in a room with a fire.

☞ The entertainment at the court-house to-night is for the benefit of the Presbyterian church, and the price of admission is only ten cents. A large audience ought to attend so pleasant an occasion.

☞ We regret to hear of the death of Mr. Joseph D. Bruington, which occurred on Christmas Day at his residence, in New Hope township. He was about sixty years old, and was a prominent citizen of this county. He had been a magistrate for twenty years, and in 1876 was elected a county commissioner.

☞ Christmas is about over and W. L. London has plenty of goods left to supply your wants, and old Santa Claus is about to retire from business for a while. He has sent a few of his goods on hand which he will sell at almost any price to save the trouble of carrying them back. Come early and see the bargains.

☞ The old year is almost gone and the new year will soon begin. Now begin the year by paying up what you owe, if you wish to get credit again. W. L. London wants the money you owe him, so he can let you have more goods during 1889. "Short settlements make long friends." Call at London's and see how you stand, even if you have not the money.

☞ While so many people are taking holiday the Record makes its appearance as usual. Its weekly visits are so much enjoyed by its readers that we are loth to deprive them of one, and especially at Christmas when a subscription has more let-me-time for reading than any other week. We hope that our friends will express their appreciation by increasing the Record's circulation. What say you?

☞ The next session of Mr. S. S. Jackson's school will begin on Monday, the 7th day of January, as will be seen from his advertisement in another column. We have been a patron of Mr. Jackson's school ever since he began teaching, and from personal knowledge we are able to say that he gives great satisfaction to his patrons that any teacher we have ever known, and we gladly commend him to all parents who wish their children thoroughly educated.

CHRISTMAS ITEMS.—Another Christmas has come and gone, and we hope it has been a pleasant one to all our readers and that we all may be the better for it. Certainly no one has ever known the weather to be more favorable. The day was bright and balmy, in most pleasant contrast to the rain, sleet and snow which so frequently falls on Christmas Day and instead of the mud and mire which generally makes locomotion so disagreeable, the roads, streets and side-walks were in better condition than we have almost ever before known at this season, so that more visiting was indulged in than usual.

At this place Christmas Day passed off without any breach of the peace or other disorder that so frequently disgraces the day of our Lord's nativity. Religious services were held at the Episcopal and Methodist churches, and were attended by large congregations. All the stores were closed all day, and in the afternoon the streets were as quiet and deserted as on Sundays. At night some of the boys fired the old cannon, shot off fire-works, and paraded the town beating tin pans, blowing horns, and making things lively generally.

PERSONAL ITEMS.—Quite a number of visitors to our town have arrived during the past few days, for the purpose of spending the Christmas holidays with their relatives and friends at this place. Among them we are pleased to note Mr. W. M. Jones and family, of Cary; Mr. and Mrs. James Baldwin, of Richmond county; Mr. George T. Leach and family, of High Point; Miss Augusta Moore, of Wilmington; Mr. R. L. Strowd and family, of Chapel Hill; Judge Townsend, of Bennettsville, S. C.; and Mr. M. T. Williams and family, Miss Annie Walker, and Messrs. M. T. Leach, H. W. Jackson, James M. Walker, John W. Cross and Samuel Raspberry, of Raleigh.

We were pleased to meet, a few days ago, Mr. A. D. McGill, of Cumberland county, who had come after his daughter who had been attending Mr. S. S. Jackson's school. Mr. McGill is a native of Scotland and is one of the best farmers and cleverest citizens of Cumberland, and will most worthily represent that county in the next Legislature. He is a strong advocate of Col. Waddell's election in place of Gen. Ransom.

Rev. N. E. Coltrane, the new preacher in charge of the Methodist churches on this circuit, arrived here last week with his family, and preached on last Sunday an able sermon to a large congregation.

We are pleased to note that our former countyman, Mr. John W. Cross, has been elected a Lieutenant of the Governor's Guards, Raleigh's crack military company.

The family of Rev. W. H. Moore will leave here next Tuesday for their new home at Statesville, he having been appointed presiding elder of that district.

Mrs. L. A. Hanks and daughters are spending the holidays at Durham.

APPOINTMENT OF MAGISTRATES.—The next Legislature will appoint successors to all magistrates whose terms of office will expire in 1889. The following is a list of the magistrates of the several townships in this county whose terms expire next year:

ALBRIGHT'S—S. P. Teague, W. A. Lineberry.

BALDWIN'S—R. W. Bland, A. J. Wilson.

BEAR CREEK—James I. Lane, E. H. McManus.

CAPE FEAR—John McIver, W. B. Wilkie, J. B. Yarborough.

CENTRE—J. A. Womack, W. O. Farrell, J. J. Womble.

GILES—J. H. Burke, W. M. Thomas.

HADLEY—C. E. Johnson, M. C. McBane.

HICKORY MOUNTAIN—J. A. Pugh, R. T. Dixon.

MATTHEWS—L. J. Kirkman, J. D. Mann.

NEW HOPE—J. D. Brasington, S. G. Wilson.

OAKLAND—William R. Pattishall, Carson Johnson.

WILLIAMS—C. R. Scott, T. H. Rainey.

If the people of the several townships wish the above named magistrates re-appointed, or if they wish anybody else appointed, they ought to make known their wishes to their Representatives. We have no doubt that Messrs. Edwards and Wilson will take pleasure in securing the appointment of such magistrates as the people of any township may desire. Therefore we suggest that petitions be circulated for signatures, or public meetings be held in every township, and the people thus express their wishes as to whom they want appointed.

A Letter to Santa Claus.

LA FAYETTE, GA.

DEAR OLD SANTA CLAUS: Our papa and mama have told us about how you used to bring things when they were little. They said you always come down the chimney every Christmas Eve night. We are a little boy and a little girl that live in Georgia. Our papa and mama used to live in North Carolina. They said you was such a good santa clause we thought we would ask you to come and bring something nice. We have been good children. Your little boy and girl,

BENNIE AND ADDIE HACKNEY.

We would love to have a big doll and a drum.

The above is a letter received at the post office at this place, on last Saturday, inclosed in an envelope addressed to "Santa Claus, Pittsboro, N. C.", and was handed by our postmaster, to Capt. W. L. London, whose announcement in the Record that Santa Claus had formed a co-partnership with him had been read by the writers of the letter. We think that Santa Claus ought to send that doll and drum, don't you?—EDS RECORD.]

State News.

Winston Daily: A large Newfoundland dog that met all passenger trains at Greensboro, was killed last night by the train going North. He knew the time of arrivals of passenger trains as well as the people did and never missed a passenger train, but paid no attention to freight trains.

Carthage Blade: Mrs. A. S. Kelly had gone to a very serious accident last Thursday. While boiling soap some of the lye popped into her eyes, since which time she has not been able to see, and it is feared the sight is entirely destroyed. It is hoped however, that the loss of her sight may be only temporary.

Louisburg Times: The store house of W. J. Neal & Co., at Centerville, this county, was destroyed by fire on Monday night last. The fire was discovered about midnight by two gentlemen who slept in the store, who barely escaped with their lives. The entire stock of goods was burned. Loss about $4,100, insurance $3,000. The cause of the fire is unknown, though it is thought it caught from the stove.

Fayetteville Observer: Mr. Neill M. Byrd, of Little River Academy, was in town last week. he is 67 years of age, and he bought his first suit of store clothes. He said he would not have bought these, but his old woman wanted the wool to make blankets. He has never given a mortgage, raises his own corn, pork, potatoes, sorghum, &c. Coffee and sugar constitute the bulk of his purchases. He is what we call an independent farmer.

Statesville Landmark: Mr. A. F. Hendley, of Chambersburg township, last week killed two pigs, 11 months old, one of which weighed 386 lbs and the other 364. —An attempt was made at an early hour Tuesday morning to destroy the cotton gin of Messrs. Summers & White, of Shiloh township. The seed cotton in the three rooms of the gin house had been fired, but the fire had flashed over the cotton and gone out. In a corner of one room, however, the cotton had been saturated with kerosene oil, and this was burning when a son of Squire Summers reached the gin. He summoned help and got water and put the fire out. The damage done was not great but the incident is of a sort not pleasant to record. Two or three years ago a similar attempt, and similarly unsuccessful, was made to destroy the same gin. These attempts to injure them are all the more unaccountable from the fact that Messrs. Summers & White are among the best and most popular citizens of Shiloh.

Elizabeth City Economist: Possums are the most prolific of all animals, the most easily domesticated of all animals. We are inclined to the opinion that a possum farm would pay better than any other kind of stock farm in our section. The only trouble that would come up would be the old cur dog question. We believe a possum farm would turn out more money than a sheep farm. Our woodland could be turned to profitable account without damage to the timber.

Asheville Citizen: The amount of business on the Western North Carolina railroad, and the importance of Asheville as a station may be inferred from the statement of the yard master that last week there were nearly two thousand box cars, loaded and unloaded, standing on the sidings whose accumulated extent may now be counted by miles. There are seldom less than fifteen or twenty engines standing here. The road is beginning to develop what it was contemplated to be her, and when the branch to Murphy is completed the development will be marvellous.

Boone Democrat: Mrs. W. C. Coffey came near being drowned in Yadkin River on her way home from a visit to her parents. Her father, Mr. Curtis concluded the river was too deep for her team and buggy and so sent a boy with a tall buggy and very large horse of his to take her across. This horse on striking the current choked and fell and broke the shafts out of the buggy. The horse recovered and turned back for the bank from whence he came leaving Mrs. Coffey in the buggy in the deepest part of a very swift and dangerous ford. Fortunately Fin was on hand with his buggy and drove in and took his mother out not hurt but badly scared.

Charlotte Chronicle: J. E. Teeter is a renter. He resides in Mecklenburg county. He used two and a half horses this year. On 35 acres he raised 10,812 pounds cotton lint for which he received $973.08. On 15 acres he raised 400 bushels of corn, which is worth nearly $300. He also raised 54 bushels of wheat for his own home consumption. He has 30 bushels of sweet and 15 bushels of Irish potatoes, and 8 good hogs. Now besides these things, Mr. Teeter raised sufficient vegetables and poultry to supply his family the year round. He only used one ton of guano and thirteen sacks of acid to fertilize the farm outside, of course, the manure of his own stables. —Mrs. C. S. Helton barely escaped a horrible death by burning yesterday morning. While the family were kneeling around the fire, engaged in morning prayer, Mrs. Helton's little child shrieked out that her mother was on fire. By that time, Mrs. Helton's dress was enveloped in flames, but these were quickly extinguished, and she escaped with some very bad burns on her hands.

An Old Woman Dead.

WHEELING, W. Va., Dec. 19.—Mrs. Margaret Holland Carey, familiarly known as Mother Carey, died at the Wheeling Hospital today at the age of 111. She was born in County Clare, Ireland, in 1772, married in 1801, and came to this country soon after. Her husband died thirty-three years ago at a ripe old age. About ten years ago Mrs. Carey purchased a tombstone for herself and kept it in her room up to the time of her death. She was a remarkable woman, having within the past year overcome an attack of typhoid fever. The immediate cause of her death was a fall received a few weeks ago. She was the oldest person in the State, if not in the country.

Epidemic Among Horses.

CINCINNATI, OHIO, Dec. 24.—An epidemic is spreading among horses owned in this city. The Street Car Company has forty-six sick horses in their barns yesterday, and their services was seriously crippled. The disease is a new one to veterinary surgeons, and they are baffled in its treatment. The disease apparently affects the glands of the throat. In a majority of cases it causes a swelling which extends from the joint of the jaw to the breast. This makes breathing and eating matters of great difficulty. As a result, the animal rapidly grows weak.

Walking on the Water.

From the Scientific American.

C. W. Olderive lately accomplished the task of walking on the water of the Hudson River from Albany to New York. Distance about 150 miles, wager $500. His average progress was twenty-four miles a day. He always went with the tide.

The shoes he wore are made of cedar, lined with brass. They are five feet long and a foot wide. Each is air tight, with a space in the center for the foot. On the bottom are three fins so arranged that when the shoe moves forward they are pressed up against the bottom, and when the shoe is at rest they hang downward, like paddle wheel buckets.

President Gray, of the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. Co. has bought 30 acres of land at Point Peter, opposite Wilmington, as the deep water terminus of his road.

A Fatal Shooting Affray.

HONEY GROVE, Tex., Dec. 21.—A desperate shooting affray, which resulted in the death of two men, took place at Ector town Wednesday. Two brothers named Floyd and Lawson Todd, recently from Marshfield, Mo., became drunk and boisterous. Jack Choate a deputy constable, tried to arrest them, and was shot in the side. He called a citizen named Hobbs to his assistance, and both opened fire on the Todds. The latter were riddled and killed. Choate was again shot and is thought to be fatally wounded.

Stanley, the famous African explorer, is reported safe.

Congress has taken a recess until the 2nd day of January.

Hayti has surrendered the American vessel, which was seized a few weeks ago.

At Saranac Lake, N. Y., Friday night, the thermometer registered 22 degrees below zero.

A hotel in Missoula, Montana, was burned Thursday night, and two men perished in the flames.

Ellis & Brown, who have a store on the road near Raleigh, made an assignment last week.

There will be an eclipse of the sun next Tuesday. It will be hardly perceptible in this State, but will be total in parts of Idaho, Nevada and California.

Gov. Scales during his term of office has appointed no less than eight judges, an unusually large number. Those are Judge Davis, of the Supreme Court, and Judges Armfield, Brown, Boykin, Bynum, Clark, Connor and Montgomery.

Persons living in unhealthy localities may avoid all bilious attacks, by taking a dose of Laxador occasionally to keep the liver in a healthy action. Price only 25 cents a package. At all druggists.

"It is the only medicine I would give to my baby, a mother said, speaking of Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. It is safe. At all drug stores, 25 cents.
