

Table with advertising rates: One square, one insertion - $1.00; One square, two insertions - 1.50; One square, one month - 2.50.

For larger advertisements liberal contracts will be made.

Robin's Nest.

I knew three robins who lived in a nest Not very long ago, Who at the summer winds that blow to the west...

SCALPED.

A SOLDIER'S TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

"I read in a New York paper the other day of Indian fighter Carroll Eason's story of how he was once scalped by Indians," said a former resident of Laramie...

CHILDREN'S COLUMN.

WHAT THEY SAID. Four school boys were on a summer day, Just to go to the city...

A BIRD EXECUTION.

A singular circumstance is reported as occurring recently in the residence of J. H. K. yes, Chestnut street. Mrs. Keyes noticed quite a commotion among the sparrows in the rear of the house...

PEWEE IN THE WILDERNESS.

A valuable Newfoundland dog named Major, having strayed from his owner's house, was claimed in all good faith by another gentleman who recognized the dog as his lost Newfoundland.

A Monkey as Physician.

A correspondent of the Chicago News writes from Central America. "One other incident of the journey to Jutiguapa was the capture of two spider monkeys. The little creatures had been encountered at various points, but their shyness had enabled them to always keep out of our reach."

TRAINING SHEEP.

Teaching a Stupid Animal to Perform in Public.

How a Trainer Succeeds in Instructing Seals.

Miss Rosa Starr has made a study of sheep, the most timid of animals, writes David Webster in the Brooklyn Globe. She owns three performing sheep, and they do wonderful tricks. Her account of the way she succeeded in training them is interesting.

Garroting a Cuban.

John Victoriano Machin, a white native of Cuba, thirty-four years old, a famous bandit, was publicly garrotted, a Havana correspondent writes, in front of the city prison.

The Sea Tramp.

"Have you ever seen a sea tramp?" Every one don't know what it is, so I will explain by stating that a sea tramp means a vessel that is not connected with any regular line and is usually a steamer.

The Curious Bibles.

The curious Bibles is a general name given certain editions of the Bible which are prized by bibliomaniacs, not for any intrinsic value, but because they contain certain odd misprints or mistranslations. Foremost among them is the Beevers Bible, so called because in the third chapter of Genesis it speaks of Adam and Eve as having "made themselves breeches" of fig leaves.

Discretion.

Customer (in "25 cents a meal" restaurant, out West): "Gimme a glass o' milk."

Room at the Top.

Dr. Pinchase: "There is always room at the top, my young friend."

Room at the Top.

Little J. J. Jones: "Yes, sir, 'ex you see there is room for him." - L. J. G.

Amorita.

Listen to hear you singing to the mormur of the breeze. I listen to your tear drops in the rain amid the trees.

RUMOROUS.

Every man is sometimes a bait on some other man's hook.

Amorita.

What were life without you? O, I cannot, dare not dream!

Amorita.

Two were friends, a shadowed feet upon an autumn stream, tossed upon the red-rose waves by every blast unkind.

Amorita.

And driven down the turbid tide, heart broken, hopeless, blind.

Amorita.

Of my sweet, at your feet, He may love, cry, Grant relief to my grief - Love me or I die.

Amorita.

Every man is sometimes a bait on some other man's hook.

Amorita.

The Goddess of Liberty is not a broker, but she is frequently seen on change.

Amorita.

It is one of the distressing anomalies of modern life that the man who can't sing does sing.

Amorita.

It is industry more than birth that lifts a boy up in the world. A boot-black may shine in society if he will stoop to conquer.

Amorita.

Cabby (who has received his correct fare) - Call yourself a gentleman! Why, I keep a better gentleman than you do! I keep my boots! Fare - City you don't keep another to wash your face!

Amorita.

This is an Italian bon mot: At a cafe a group of gentlemen discussing politics; a young student entered and joined in the conversation; his arguments did not please the others, and one of them said to him, "Be quiet! At your age I was an ass myself!" "You are wonderfully well preserved, sir," was the reply.

Amorita.

Garroting a Cuban. John Victoriano Machin, a white native of Cuba, thirty-four years old, a famous bandit, was publicly garrotted, a Havana correspondent writes, in front of the city prison.

Amorita.

The Sea Tramp. "Have you ever seen a sea tramp?" Every one don't know what it is, so I will explain by stating that a sea tramp means a vessel that is not connected with any regular line and is usually a steamer.

Amorita.

The Curious Bibles. The curious Bibles is a general name given certain editions of the Bible which are prized by bibliomaniacs, not for any intrinsic value, but because they contain certain odd misprints or mistranslations.

Amorita.

Discretion. Customer (in "25 cents a meal" restaurant, out West): "Gimme a glass o' milk."

Amorita.

Room at the Top. Dr. Pinchase: "There is always room at the top, my young friend."

Amorita.

Listen to hear you singing to the mormur of the breeze. I listen to your tear drops in the rain amid the trees.

RUMOROUS.

Every man is sometimes a bait on some other man's hook.

Amorita.

What were life without you? O, I cannot, dare not dream!

Amorita.

And driven down the turbid tide, heart broken, hopeless, blind.

Amorita.

Of my sweet, at your feet, He may love, cry, Grant relief to my grief - Love me or I die.

Amorita.

Every man is sometimes a bait on some other man's hook.

Amorita.

The Goddess of Liberty is not a broker, but she is frequently seen on change.

Amorita.

It is industry more than birth that lifts a boy up in the world. A boot-black may shine in society if he will stoop to conquer.

Amorita.

Cabby (who has received his correct fare) - Call yourself a gentleman! Why, I keep a better gentleman than you do! I keep my boots! Fare - City you don't keep another to wash your face!

Amorita.

This is an Italian bon mot: At a cafe a group of gentlemen discussing politics; a young student entered and joined in the conversation; his arguments did not please the others, and one of them said to him, "Be quiet! At your age I was an ass myself!" "You are wonderfully well preserved, sir," was the reply.

Amorita.

Garroting a Cuban. John Victoriano Machin, a white native of Cuba, thirty-four years old, a famous bandit, was publicly garrotted, a Havana correspondent writes, in front of the city prison.

Amorita.

The Sea Tramp. "Have you ever seen a sea tramp?" Every one don't know what it is, so I will explain by stating that a sea tramp means a vessel that is not connected with any regular line and is usually a steamer.

Amorita.

The Curious Bibles. The curious Bibles is a general name given certain editions of the Bible which are prized by bibliomaniacs, not for any intrinsic value, but because they contain certain odd misprints or mistranslations.

Amorita.

Discretion. Customer (in "25 cents a meal" restaurant, out West): "Gimme a glass o' milk."

Amorita.

Room at the Top. Dr. Pinchase: "There is always room at the top, my young friend."

Amorita.

Little J. J. Jones: "Yes, sir, 'ex you see there is room for him." - L. J. G.

Amorita.

Amorita. Listen to hear you singing to the mormur of the breeze. I listen to your tear drops in the rain amid the trees.