

TODAY at Fayetteville will occur the grandest celebration ever held in this State, the occasion being the one hundredth anniversary of the ratification of the Federal Constitution by North Carolina. In July, 1788, a convention of the people of North Carolina was held at Hillsboro, and by a vote of 183 to 84 declined to ratify the proposed constitution. The majority in that convention feared that the rights of the States were not sufficiently protected in the proposed constitution, and were unwilling to enter the Union unless certain amendments were made to the constitution. Accordingly when Congress convened certain amendments (known now as the ten amendments) were passed by that body and submitted to the several States for ratification. Another convention was then held in this State, assembling at Fayetteville on the third Monday in November, 1789, and on the 21st day of that month formally ratified the Federal Constitution and North Carolina at last became a State of the Union. North Carolina's delay in ratifying the Federal Constitution was the chief cause of that instrument being amended and perfected, and our citizens have good ground to be proud of that fact. Her final ratification at Fayetteville, on the 21st of November, 1789, was an event of such great importance that its centennial anniversary is well worthy of the grand celebration that today commemorates it, and we wish that every citizen of our good old State could be present to join in its exercises.

Chief Justice Smith died at Raleigh, on Thursday last week, after quite a short illness, in the seventy-eighth year of his age. He was a man of remarkable purity of character, and his life may well be held up to the young men of our State as an example worthy of imitation. True to every trust and faithful in all things, he was a consistent Christian, a learned jurist, an upright judge, and a most courteous gentleman. In January, 1878, he was appointed Chief Justice of our State Supreme Court by Gov. Vance, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Chief Justice Pearson, and had been twice elected by the people to retain that position which he held so much honored.

It was our pleasure to become personally acquainted with the deceased during the impetuous term of Gov. Holden, and the favorable impression then made on us has been strengthened by years of a more intimate acquaintance. In that trial were engaged the ablest lawyers probably ever employed in any case in this State, and at the time we expressed the opinion that Mr. Smith made the ablest argument of them all, and that opinion has since been expressed by many of the most learned lawyers in the State. Of all that able array of counsel Judge Merrimon now survives.

President Harrison was publicly burned in effigy, last week, at Jeffersonville, Indiana. Of course it might naturally be supposed that this was done by some bitter "Bourbon" democrats; but no strange to say, it was done by some of the "truly loyal" republicans! There had been much dissatisfaction among the republicans of that town at several of the President's recent appointments, but the immediate cause of their violent outburst of indignation was his appointment of the postmaster, who obtained his appointment solely because he was a personal friend of the President.

The burning in effigy of the President of the United States is disgraceful to all concerned, and if it had been done by any Southern democrats they would be bitterly denounced by every republican politician and paper as being disloyal to the national government. Alas! poor Harrison seems to have the peculiarly winning way of making enemies among the men who elected him, and when his term expires he will be respected even less than was the pifable Hayes.

Brazil has thrown off her monarchial form of government, as published in another column, and will become a republic like all the other governments in the Western Hemisphere. Her late Emperor, Dom Pedro, was a wise and progressive ruler, and to this is due the fact that Brazil has not sooner joined the sisterhood of American Republics. Brazil is an immense country in area and resources, and we wish her and her people a career of increased prosperity.

THE MAIL service of the United States government is now worse managed than we have ever before known, and is simply disgraceful. And yet that sanctimonious hypocrite, the Postmaster General, has the audacity and megalomania to declare publicly that his department is managed on strictly business principles and without regard to politics. This statement is so ridiculously false that no sane person believes it. Proofs of its falsity abound on every side and are of daily occurrence. Especially is this the case in North Carolina. We defy any man to show where or how the mail service has been improved by Wannamaker in this State. On the contrary complaints come from every section of the State about the delays and irregularities of the mails, and the inefficiency of the newly appointed postmasters and postal clerks. At this place (Pittsboro) our citizens are put to such inconvenience by the frequent and provoking delays in the arrival of letters and papers, caused by the ignorance or carelessness of some route agent.

If Wannamaker should employ in his own business—in his big store at Philadelphia—such incompetent men as he has employed in the mail service of the government, he would soon discover to his sorrow whether he was conducting it on "strictly business principles."

THE BAPTIST State Convention held its 59th annual meeting last week at Henderson, and the following officers were elected, viz: President, Col. L. L. Polk; Vice Presidents, Hon. J. C. Scarborough, Rev. G. W. Sanderlin, D. D., and Dr. C. A. Reminger; Recording Secretaries, N. B. Broughton and Geo. W. Greene; Treasurer, J. D. Boushall; Corresponding Secretary, Rev. C. Durham; and Auditor, W. N. Jones. The report of the Board of Missions was of a most encouraging character. Since the last meeting of the Convention thirteen missionaries have gone from the Baptist churches of North Carolina to the foreign field, a larger number probably than from all the other religious denominations in the State combined. The increase in the work of the State Missions is remarkable. Ten years ago the number of missionaries engaged in the State was 18, and now 76. They then contributed for State Missions $1,427.13, and now $12,500.

A most eloquent and able discussion arose upon the report of the committee appointed last year upon the establishment of a Baptist Female College. The committee recommended the effort and a preliminary endorsement was given to the report of the committee was unanimously adopted.

A Board of Trustees to be located at Wilmington, was appointed to provide ways and means for the care of the aged and indigent Baptist ministers of North Carolina. Gov. FOWLE has appointed Judge A. S. Merrimon Chief Justice of our Supreme Court to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Chief Justice Smith, and has appointed Judge Walter Clark Associate Justice in place of Judge Merrimon. He has also appointed Spier Whitaker, Esq., Judge of the superior court to fill the vacancy occasioned by the promotion of Judge Clark. While we think that Judge Clark deserves his promotion and will make an excellent Supreme Court Judge, yet we regret that the State will lose his services as a superior court judge—a position that he has filled with so much honor to himself and benefit to our people.

At Kinston yesterday the town was crowded with negroes anxious to shake the North Carolina dust off their shoes and try their fortunes in some other State. It is said that there were about 1,500 enthusiastic "exodusers" in the town. At the depot an interesting spectacle was presented in the huge mass of baggage piled on the platform. Old meat boxes, and other boxes, barrels, trunks, of all shapes and sizes, were piled ten feet high on the platform. The train could not accommodate all who wanted to go, and even if there had been room there were many who would not have been allowed to go. The emigration agents are a little particular about whom they take. One requirement is that a man must be married. A strong man stands a better chance than a weakly fellow. Marriages have taken place at the depot in order that the requirements might be met and the "happy couple" be allowed to take the waiting train. It is estimated that about five hundred left Kinston yesterday, they having come from Jones, Pitt and Lenoir counties, principally. The exodus movement is getting to be a serious matter with the farmers. It is reported that some white people in Lenoir county are leaving also.

Our Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15, 1889. Senator Blackburn is one of the most popular, if not the most popular man in public life, with the boys. A little incident that occurred here this week shows how he obtains and how he keeps that popularity. He has a friend here who is in the toils of the law. An application was made in his favor to one of the local courts and Joe Blackburn, a nice people out of every ten here, called the junior Senator from Kentucky, was asked to join several other lawyers in this move on behalf of the prisoner. He readily consented, but at the last minute it was discovered that Senator Blackburn was not a member of the local bar. Did he allow that to freeze him out of the case? Not a bit of it. He had himself induced to the bar and took his place with the prisoner's other counsel and now the prisoner is out on bail.

This has been a great week for our Catholic fellow citizens. First they celebrated their centennial in Baltimore. Then on Wednesday they dedicated their big University here. The dedication ceremonies were attended by the President, Vice President, the entire cabinet, several justices of the Supreme Court and quite a number of Senators and Representatives. At the banquet which followed the ceremonies Secretary Blaine responded to the toast "Our Country and our President," in a manner that has won the commendation of everybody.

The Three American Congresses in a row in Washington but owing to the fatigue of its members, regular sessions will not begin until next week. The delegates are enthusiastic over what they saw during their forty days trip around the country. Mr. Wannamaker does not like the name of "Ananias" which Senator Hampton's stinging letter has hung to his coat tail for the rest of his life. In view of the fact that Vice President Harrison's big apartment house in this city has become, or bids fair to become a National issue, your correspondent deems it only fair to say that there is no bar in, or out of, the building, but, in one end of the sale there are a number of tables at which you can sit and be served with all the liquor you care to pay for.

Senator Sherman has returned from Ohio in the best of humors. He finds it impossible to make legislation over F. McKee's defeat. Here's what he said to a newspaper man: "We were defeated, as everybody knows, but the republican party has been defeated in Ohio before with the result of doing it better. 'Could any thing be planned than that? Assuredly so. Mr. Sherman arrived here he went to the White House, presumably to congratulate Mr. Harrison on the summary removal of what looked at the time like a dangerous rival of his in 1892. Doubtless President Harrison would like to think that the Ohio election removed two rivals instead of one. Mr. Sherman thinks for just as certain as Sherman help of a postmaster F. McKee in 1889 will make a copy to 'down' Sherman in 1892. It is not that that your correspondent indulges in making predictions, but this paragraph is to be put away until the summer of 1892."

President Harrison's message is complete. It will not be printed for its delivery to Congress, as has been the custom for many years past. Feeling that it may be prematurely published, President Harrison has said that only two or three types of the copy of it shall be made to the press associations, and they are to be made in the White House and not given out until it is known that the printing of it has been begun at the Capitol.

It begins to look as if there would be a fight over the speakership. The only candidate that does not appear to be afraid of big Tom Reed as the Representative from Maine is generally called here, is Representative Cannon. He tried to get the other candidates to join him in a combination against Reed, but they all declined. Things may grow more exciting as the number of members in town increases, but unless the opposition shall make a great deal more showing than it has so far done, the big Maine man is as good as elected speaker.

One of Washington's most prominent preachers has been discharged from the Government printing office because while on the street on the night of the recent elections, he gave a cheer over the bulletined announcement that Ohio had gone democratic. It is said that he was correctly informed the next democratic Senator from Ohio will be either John R. McLean or Calvin S. Brier.

A Shocking Accident. RALEIGH, Ga., Nov. 10.—A shocking accident occurred today, two miles from Cedar town. Rev. Mr. Henderson, pastor of the Baptist Church at Cedar town, was accidentally shot and killed by Jones. The men were out bird hunting in an open field. Henderson was in advance of Jones, with his gun cocked and over his shoulder. Henderson's gun was accidentally discharged and the lead entered Jones' head, scattering his brains upon the ground. A Plague of Diphtheria. ELIZABETH, Ind., Nov. 16.—Diphtheria has become so prevalent here that all the schools have been closed. Several deaths have occurred. Mr. and Mrs. E. Bullock lost within a few days all their children, four in number, and four other members of the same family have the same disease in a bad form. The authorities are taking strong measures to stamp it out.

A Revolution in Brazil.

RIO DE JANEIRO, BRAZIL, Nov. 16.—The country is in the throes of a revolution, not only civil but military. With the resignation of the Ministry the pro-fell from under Dom Pedro's throne, and the Empire is going over in a body to the Conservative faction in the House to the Republicans made it a possibility and a certainty. Throughout the country the greatest excitement prevails, and the news of the revolution spread over the entire new born republic with inconceivable rapidity. From every city comes words of encouragement and approval, and the spirit of republicanism has permeated Brazil in its entirety. The provinces are a unit in support of the incoming Government, and in view of the fact that the military forces of the land are in line with the revolutionists, it can only be a movement of peace.

The ex Ministry has given up all hope of a turn being made in favor of a re-establishment of the Empire, and they admit that the prospects point to an establishment in Rio de Janeiro of a republican form of government. The coffee growers and exporters are unanimous in their opposition to the old Government, and as a result have raised the price of green coffee. The Emperor is closeted in the Palace at Petropolis with the heads of the Ministry of War and of the Interior, and absolute secrecy is maintained as to their plans for the future. The official despatches are sent and received in cipher by trusted officials of the old regime, and nothing whatever is to be learned in regard to the Emperor and his household. It is likely, however, that he will return to Portugal. In any case both he and his whole family will leave the country as soon as possible.

London, Nov. 16.—But little further information has been received here concerning the revolution in Rio de Janeiro. A despatch received this morning states that the Minister of Marine was not killed, as reported yesterday, but that he was shot and seriously wounded by rebel soldiers. Another despatch says that the question as to the nature of the future government will be submitted to a plebiscite.

A later despatch from Rio de Janeiro reports that a republic has been proclaimed, with Senator da Fonseca as President. The Imperial Ministers have been placed under arrest and are kept in close confinement. The Provisional Government has guaranteed protection to the members of the Imperial family. The Emperor is at his summer Palace at Petropolis, twenty-five miles north of Rio de Janeiro. All business in the city is suspended, but there is no danger to life or property.

Another despatch from Rio de Janeiro states that the garrison at that city has formed a provisional government, comprising Senator Custodio, a journalist named Quintino Bonaparte and Gen. da Fonseca.

How Wannamaker Lied. COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 12.—B. F. Clayton, of this city, was two weeks ago appointed Postmaster of Columbia, vice Wade Hampton Gibbs, a gentleman of high standing in the State. Mr. Clayton is an independent man. Postmaster General Wannamaker had promised not to remove Mr. Gibbs until his term expired. The following letter in relation to Mr. Gibbs' removal, from Senator Wade Hampton, now lying on his plantation in Mississippi, will be published in the News and Courier tomorrow. Senator Hampton writes Mr. Wannamaker as follows: "The United States was ever written to below."

GLENN ALLEN, Miss., Nov. 8, 1889. To Hon. John Wannamaker. SIR: The enclosed extract from a South Carolina paper has caused me great surprise. Perhaps you may not remember, if your memory is not treacherous, your assurance to me a few days ago that Mr. Gibbs should not be removed until the expiration of his term in February, next. Not only did you do this, but you voluntarily assured me that inasmuch as Columbia was my postoffice, you would when a successor to Mr. Gibbs was to be appointed, consult me. It is a matter of small importance to me who takes the place of Mr. Gibbs, but as I informed him in passing through Columbia of the promise you had made, you may perhaps understand how your action has placed me in a false position. But it is fortunate for me that Mr. Gibbs will know that I at least told him the truth, though I was grievously deceived in believing what was said to me. I can know better in future what reliance to place on statements emanating from the same source. The newspapers state that besides managing the great Department over which you preside you are running a Sunday school in Philadelphia, and it occurs to me that you might with profit to yourself select as the most appropriate subject of a lecture to your pupils the instructive story of Ananias and Sapphira. This would give you a fine field for your eloquence in explaining to your young charges the importance of combining the sciences of the truth—except when some fancied advantage might be obtained over a political opponent. I am, your obedient servant. WADE HAMPTON.
