

Our Wash- ington Letter.

(From our regular correspondents.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12, 1890.

Questions affecting the financial condition of the country are at present absorbing almost the entire attention of Congress and the administration has at last become convinced that something must be done to relieve the situation.

Without intending any reflection on Mr. Tilden as a politician, the press for the last few days has been expressing a feeling of dissatisfaction with his administration.

The House of Representatives has passed a bill for the relief of the States of North Carolina and South Carolina, which will be reported to the Senate.

The President's Confession. Mr. Hayes's confession that he had been deceived by the South is a significant event in the history of the Republic.

Thirty-Four Poisoned. A case of food poisoning in a prominent citizen of Raleigh is a serious matter that has attracted much public attention.

Two Farmers Frozen. The bodies of George Secker and James Lane were found on a country road a few miles from Clay County House Saturday.

To Divide the Democrats.
