PITTSBORO', CHATHAM CO., N. C., JANUARY 7, 1892.

RATES

The Chatham Record.

For larger advertisement's liberal con-racts will be made. NO. 19, Strictly in Advance.

Memory and Hone. Oh, for thy glory of sunlight and flowers, Shimmer of sevan and duzzle of sky. Where the wind sleeps and the cloud never lowers, Yet your soft light let me never deny. Tenderly mengled of shadow and shine.

Fresh to the spirit and fair to the Days of Long Syne. Oh for the rapture of moonlighted bowers, Kinses that tremble and yows that reply; Oh for the loves of the heart to be ours.

Sweet By and By ! Yet with those visions these ever must via.

Friendships that ballow and souls that

Fellowships dear in your bosom that tie,

Oh for thy magic unfolding of powers. Silvery tongue with brave truth for ally, Art that impassions and wisdom that dower Sweet By and By Here, too, so thoughts springing noble and

Gems of the soul how they sparkle and going homeward again at break-neck

Yours are the compets that shall never die. ENROGE

Friend, may it be that we ever shall sigh, Sweet By and By Thins are the less and for you was the wore, trays of Lang Syne.

When Jason Went Courting.

sisted of an old hat gone to seed, a and sat there dreaming. hickory shirt, and pantaloous, almost | "It doesn't seem so I mg since I was or unthrift with Jason; on the con- for me still, If he only knew," trary, he was very industrious and successful in gathering a full share of burbed by some one calling within the this world's goods around him.

Jason was not a miser, nor was a misanthrope. He was a very and july fellow, full of fun and fond of laughter.

His home was a big. rambling log house on the edge of the timber hop, around, and then they began the jourdesing Magnolia Creek. There he had nev anew. It was tedious work, for lived alone since his sister married and | the mule was unwilling to go, and the went away to a home of her own, kicks and blows the rider administered [13] ask it or burst. Jason had never liked the life he was | bad but small effect. leading, but he could not make up his mind to marry, for, stronge to say, in way?" Jason inquired of the male. spite of his own outward appearance, his ideal of a wife heal always been a the road

But there may have been another reason for his remaining sing's so and I want to go now while I know long. The loneliness of the old place. weighed more and more upon him and the idea of marrying took possession of him as never before, when Mandy say, but he certainly started off again. Wright county, 12 miles from the Du-Ray returned to Magnolia Creek, at at a brisk trot.

ing party. He had not felt so young wherein the water, during the sky than the earth's surface. In most and happy for ten years; and the more he thought of it the more he depth. wondered if it and been on account of losing Mande, long ago, that he had former took it into his head to turn the stone need in its construction; the found it so hard to choose a wife.

years thought of it before. It seems, more willing to go afterward other things connected with the olden was still in deep shadow. Behind and there at the time of building the wait.

I'm all atome now."

and deeply, and the more by thought he thought that he recognized in the of it the more he felt impelled to pay animal before him the shape of the the widow a visit-

He went to the pasture to catch Pete, in his entimise. his fovorite mule, but that sugacious or harsh words were the same to Pete back ture the modify water, and ran shall tell others, and before long all just then, and even an ear of corn as fast as in - ic ; would early him, some of people will be asking us about everybody knew, and nothing more. It was about sundown when Jason rode up to the house where Mandy was living with her parents. She was sitting out on the gattery, sewing busily; she looked up, and when she aw who it was, she smiled and blushed prettily.

Jason mounted upon his steed was | Mandy was setting out &n the gala sight to behold. But little did he lery as if she had been expecting him.

"Come in," she said. He started to dismount, when the mule suddenly became frightened at something, and began to jump and hardly nobody to the worse one progression of the progre mule was too strong for him, and ai-

Mandy ran to the gate to see what would happen, and when she saw that Jason was sitting securely in the saddie, but amaide to turn the mule to the left or the right, a mirrhful smile everspread her pretty face.

"How funny. But I hope he won't get burt," she murmured.

Then she returned to the entlery and picked up her sewing, but the sun-Jason was five and forty. He had gone down then, and the was a tall man and very lean, and had twitight shadows were gathering fast, gallery hittle reason to pride himself upon his so that instead of resuming her work good looks. He usual assume const she forded her hands ally on her lap-knee-high below and reaching to his a girl on Magnotia Creek," she mused armpits above, held in position by one "slason was 15st about the same suspender. It was rumored that he then as he is now; but I reckon I have was possessed of a pair of shoes, but changed. I need to think that he tever wore them. As for a coat, he thought a good deal of me, them days. had never owned one in his life-a though he never said so in so many blanket serving his purpose in cold words. I wonder what he was coming here for this evening. I'm foolsh It is not, however, a case of lariness maybe, but somehow I think he cares -here her thoughts were rulely dishouse, come to supper. Mandy."

> In the meanwhile Jason and the mule lead made good time toward home. They were almost there when Jason managed to turn the male

"What's got into you to night, any The mule stopped in the middle of "Git up, Pete," said Jason coaxingly. "I'm going accountin", Pete. what I want."

Whether the mole understood what

They met one night at a candy pulls Magnetia Creek was a small lake water is from two to three feet higher aside from the read and go into the whole is of stone, varying in weight oft softer seems like in a dream, water, Jason did not seriously object from three ton-down to 100 pounds. now that she is back again, that I used to this, thinking that perhaps his long. There is an abundance of stone in to think a heap of Mandy," he musest. cared steel was thirsty, and that by Wight county; but, surrounding the too, now when I think of it, that I Pete did not drink however, but bler as to the means employed to bring didn't feel right well the day she mar. Waded into the middle of the lake and them to the spot, or who constructed ried. But who would have thought stepped. Then he began to bray so the wall. Around the entire lake is a that it was because well, because she lo if that Jason became startled and helt of woodland half a mile in width, nervins.

sobered presently as he thought of minuted the eas', but the fittle take trees, therefore, must have been placed on either hand were the dark woods. In the spring of 1856 there was a great "I had mother and sister Nice them, where the fireflor district hither and storm, and the ice on the lake breke days, and I was took good care of. I thinker like miniature flathes of lights the wall in several places, and the recken that a the reason I dodn't know using, but in front and above, the farmers in that vicinity were abliged what was the matter with me. But bank of the creek tone clear against to vepair the damages to prevent the moon if sky

There was a moisture in his eyes, doson looked me and his heart al ground surface of 1000 acres, with and he bowed his bend in his bands, first stopped beating with fear depth of water as great as 25 feet. His thoughts went back to Mandy Plancy entlined against the sky he. The water's clear and cold, soil sandy saw an animal the like of which he and leanny. It is singular that no one . She seemed to be garful glad to had sever seen before. He sublenty has been able to accerum where the see me the other night. I wonder remembered he had heard some hant- water comes from, and where it goes what she would say if I went to see ers say, a few days before, that they to, yet it siways remains clear and had seen the tracks of a Mexican from tresh, - Detroit Free Pre-s. Jason thought the matter over long not many unles away. Straightway ition, as it had been described, and did you tell Mrs. He Fashion we had By evening his mind was made up, when he heard it utter a roar which sammered in Europe? It was with borish engerness that he drowned even the loud braying of Mr. Slimpurse - You don't suppose

Jason and hot stop to see what much animal refused to be caught. Gently would happen but sid off the male's was not forgotten, for he thoughtfully ever been east of Sandy Hook. In the light of later events dream shaped his course so that it would thought the mule was endanted with bem him to Manar, and he succeeded. Tell people you've to-sign back from second sight; but just then because he recently his destination, about 2 Europe angry and excited. After a long which, wet from he water and dew, quicker thin a wink, for feat yearly chase, the mule permitted himself to and scrambed and term by or are and care about his appearance; he was and when he came to the gate suc simply himself, exactly like the Jason spoke to him cheerily, and I have get here at last. Was you booking for med he asked, as he g sea ed himse f on a chair beside her. eWell, maybe,"

"What made you?" "Oh, just because -" ePshaw! You was a-looking for omebody else, Mandy." "Jason!"

"Well, you see, Mundy, there ain't well, you see, Mundy, there ain't cris a thing we should never do, hardly nobody in the world that looks. To reason the two without the foor.

but she kept them hidden from him most before he knew it, they were by booking down on her folded namb-"I'm awful lone ome, Mandy," Jason continued. ... Mother is dead and Sister Nice is done married, and the ald place don't seem like home any

> "I am sorry for you, Jason," Mandy muturared, still persistently looking. down.

Juson had become nervous and exsted by this time, and could find no mame of the game thou the actions of more words to say. He moved about the guests. Let how in, and when be uneasity in his chair, and presently in sits down they sit. If he walks to a got up and walked to the edge of the home and not keep tolks out of bed takes a really cleves person a quarter all night," he said. "Good night, of an hour to guess that the name of Mandy 2 owny, dason, you are the tiggest foot Lever saw," cried Mandy, laughing merrily.

"I know it," northered Jason, moving toward the gate. "Good night, Jason."

He opened the gate slowly and went out; but he had not gone far when he came to a sudden light, and stood irresolute for a moment.

of it ask her if it kitts me." be cried, and turned and wasked back to "Say, Mamby, won't you come out here for a minute?" he said, as he grasped the gate post for support. A happy smile placed around Man-dy's pretty face as she stepped off the gallery and went to him. vil come to ask you something," he said, when she was near to him, wand gently.

"I want you. I love you. Will you have me?

"Yes," she whispered. | New Opleans Times Democrat.

A Western Wonder.

The greatest wonder in the State of lown, or perhaps any other state, is Jason said or not would be hard to what they call "Walled Luke," in lanque and Pacific railway and about Just below where the road crossed 450 miles west of Daluque city. The senson, was a little ever one foot in place- the wall is 10 feet high, th feet When the unifo and the rider | wide at the least un and five feet wide came in sight of this small lake, the at the top. Another fact is the size of the a wonder I never in all these binnering him a little he would be lake, to the extent of five or ten miles, there are none. No one can form an composed of wak with this exception, Jason smiled sadly, but his face. The moon was just rising and fills: the country is a rolling prairie. The inundation. The lake occupies a

A Student of Human Vature.

Mrs. Simpurse - Way to the world

Pete, he was certain that he was right | I'd confess to her that we'd been economizing in Frogrown, do you? Not

Mrs. Stimpurse - But, dear no. could not tempt him to come within | Even in his excitement his errand Europe, and we haven't either of us

Mr. Simpures - Pan't you fear and they'll change the sully of ward to talking about it - New York

CHILDREN'S COLUMN.

My flute rough dog and I of was determined to come, Mandy,

We have so many good walks to take,

We have so many good walks to take,

And so few had things to been much that gladd as and recesses. So little of wear and terr.

> Sequetion a it blows and rains, or care at all to the following four If the wailing two know with.
> The a pleasure to have six feet we think,
> My dule rough dog and I.

And we travel all one way.

And who shall look up and say,

Is less than that to me For a little rough degrain wake a joy That enters eternity

New York Advertiser

A SHETH PROVESS A CAME If you want a mirther revoking game send one person out of the roun and tell him he is to guess the corner of the room, they recompany hint; where he looks, they look; what "Well, I guess I better he going he says they repeat. Sometimes it

CELEBRATED DWARFS.

the game, is emittation."- [Brookeyn

Early in the last century a brother and sister attracted great attention for smallness of statute. They were of Polish birth and were people of great accomplishments and elegant manners. When the brother, Count Berowlaski, was one year old, he measured 14 inches in hight. Five years after he had gained but 8 inchesbut at the age of 20 he had reached to 55 inches and at he, the measurement was 6 inches more, and then growth

The sister, Augstrain, 7 years younger, could stand auter her brother's arm. The count lived to be almost 100 .- Detroit Free Press.

"Here's your text" exist Robin, e-What is it?" she impaired very rushing into the kitches, "Ami-O

"Here's your collect" cried bakin. mubling in at Robin's locks. "And O mamma, can't we have the bags to being off?"

.44 suppose so," fringlied mamma, and she brought out the tea and called consters, and filled time, and gave the courty bags to the box - who blow them as full as they could held againoffold on?" eried Caleb. Caleb. was the chere-boy, and he had come in after a drink of water. "Mr. Wile ley, down to the Lower Village, gives half a cent spicee for paper bags.

"Poh! Whit's half a - ni?" asked Roldin, scornfully, edd's haif a cent," and I bunde, handle, ing, wand two halves make a whole I'm going to save muc. Caleb, oWest I sin't," and Robin. ofth more from to five 'em off."

So he fixed his eff. It made a prefix bond noise, but that was the end of it: and Dakie put his away and manner smiled, and Caleb went back toobis work.

Robin taughed a good lead at Dakins He called blin "Paper Boys," But Dakie didn't mind . "Fit pay him off, pretty quick," said he to Caleb.

But it was not until the meruras of Robin's birthday that Dakie did sepay. The afternoon before. Calch went to the Lower Village and Dakie went, too, while Robin was playing ball with Davy Goy. And in the morning when 'sycar-old Robin same to his breakfast there was a live tie round obsect, wrapped in paper and fied with thread, beside his plate.

"Why, what's this?" he asked. "Paper bags!" shouted Dakes. But it wasn't, exactly. It was a nice moreco-covered ball. "Whe, it's ever so much preitter in Days's!" seled Robin, "Where days.

get it, honest, Dakie?? "Paper bags," laughed Dakle, "Oh, you never!" said Robin.

"Yes, I did," undded Dakie: "and there was enough to buy a freet at eandy for us, beside. I saved all got just the way I said. but I slain know there'd be so many.

Mamma smiled I suspect maybe she'd been heiping. Dakie save a little

Well, I'm going to, after this," said Robin. "And when your birth. day comes, Dakie Thayer, you'll see! Rux Dakie hasn't seen vet, because his birth lay basa't come - Nouth

SHIPPING CATTLE.

How Bullocks Are Transported Across the Ocean.

Many Like a Sea Voyage and a Sniff of Salt Air.

to the stockyards on the other side. They get the macine plants on which Each man has the cure of thirty head they largely exist? of cuttle. Much could be written. However that may be, here they about these men, their trials, their come, sweeping southward through hardships, their desperate predicas the cold autumnal sky, either in a ments. Wonderful stories they tell to straight line, or tas is quite often the any person who will listen to them, case) in two great lines, diverging to They are all hardy fellows and are a point at the head, and flying genermostly from the West. They work ally very high. That one obsect at their way to New York, with the cat- the pointed head of the columns is althe, then across the occur, back to New | ways an old gander. His local book, York and across the continent to the book, heard faintly down the wind as plains. They are always on the got a veritable voice from the sky, leads never have any money, and generally the farmer or the pedestrian to look

West the cattle are taken from the lines of these sky voyagers (who bring close cars into an immense box-like the cold weather following after pastore. Here they are allowed to them. The leader's frequenticall is roun at will for twenty-four hours. | waswered by the members of his large This gives them exercise and a chance to breathe. They are well scatered, epitable set of notes as if the leader web fed and examined by a specialist, had asked, "How are you all getting upon the diseases of satisf, who weeds on, there behind " and his followers ring the animals begins.

buildeles abreast.

paraments are just large chough to all wrater. Hartford lames, let the animals in down or not ploud wifillie. The beasts are roof in those immediately they are striven abound from the float. A stort rope is put In the stalls every day, and the animals are well fed and well watered, during the voyage.

"It is amusing," said the captain of carrel stoutly. one of the research the other day, mathem seem to enjoy the frap and the at bedtime the positive was ready and their own. I have a ver been on month. a wrecked cattle slep, but friends of veYou- be began mine who have say that when they terrible bellowing. Some break from busily applied the positive their stalls, plunge into ocean and follaw the ship's boats, swimming until his month,

"Despite contracy reports the entire are very well protected during the into science. trip from the elements. Iron decks In a minute more the positive a are raised over their badies. but eyen dirule in place, and the little boy was these offer but little resistance to the tucked in bod. furious seas that often sweep over the steamer, carrying decks, throngs and old sower will be doewn and and hundreds of head of cattle overhound. Eablin's foot will be all well.22

"Discuss among the cattle while at to impossible to separate the diseased | small voice came from under the bedfrom the bealthy. The only thing to clathes: do is to shoot down those afflicted. Pieuro prenmenia kilis off a great

... When the cattle year hathe other side they have but twenty-four hours It is the law that they must be slaughtered within that time after leaving the steamer. The English cattle all suffered with pieuropecumes on these daily trips is the nia, and that if permitted to live

Flight of the Wild Geese.

Of all the migrating birds none are more lateresting than these great and far journeyers, which are, with the exception of the wild swan, the biggood of them all. One of their myetrace is the wonder how they contrive to live as they do-till November, in the upper regions of Baffin's Bay, and even up to faticula 20 degrees, or Beasts shipped from this city to thereabout; for the waters on the Europe are all feillocks. Men em- shows where they live must all be ployed by the owners in the West hot | frezen hard and fast by that time after them all the way from the plains, and under such conditions how do up and to search the gray sky for a Upon reaching Jersey City from the sight of the well known V shaped company, in a bold careful, rules were responding, "All's well-all's After this first twenty-four hours wear." They fly over the continent in the cattle are driven upon barges, put a direct line. They take the most back into the box cars or alound rails, alired route, he litover land or water, rend floats. The floats are taken in and they are likely to alight for rest tow by powerful decions and boxed or built on some water, he it on the down the Hudson arrivable Last River share or intend at a time when they to the dock of the steamship which is one not likely to be seen. But their in earry them to England. The flowts: Lor sociable, early and makes beingy are field to the steamship, with stoot, them- and in such places as the ponds ropes and then the work of transfer- and cover about Long Island . Montank Point, where they always prehigs on eather side are set in page time, they have been so mercilessly win picker-dury, over the slop's side. These planks are pursued by sportsmen that they are "ribbed" to keep the carrie from sup | less seen there now than they ence ping down. Absard the steamer the were They delight, like the wild rattle are driven to their compart- swan, in such feeding grounds as are ments. These are large enough to afforded by the bays and shehered hold taree, and on some ve sels four, waters-half fresh and half sait-of the extensive tract on the North Carol-The cattle are carried on the spot, line coast known as Albermarie Sound; main and steerage decks. A large common where they linger long and steamship like those now used carries stay late and would path ps, but for from 1000 to 1200 heat. The yours the bunders, temain, many of them,

Where They Put the Poultice.

There is a time to keep silence, but is evidently was not the right time in about the animal's horns, their passed the case of a boy mentioned, who lives in an Ontario town. He got a the head of the smill and knotted on sliver in his feet, and, in spite of his lie other sale. Tresh straw is pur profestations, his mother decided to place a positive over his wound. The how augurousis resisted.

"I won't have no position," he de-watch the cattle during on ocean you. Both mether and grandmother, firmly, age. Like human beings some of and, the majority being two to one, walture. Others appear to be timed. If the positive was ready, the Lox and frightened. Some of them get was not, and he proved so refructory deathly seasible, others are good sails, that a switch was brought into requiors. The creatures seem to be able sition It was arranged that the grandto scent a sterm from after just use unother should apply the position, while they do out on the mains. Their teral the mother was to stand with the uprified beliewings during a gale a a lifted switch at the bedside. The box enough to try the less of nerves. The wastold that if he copened his mouth ' knowledges his own frailties he has animals seem to know when the slop he would receive that which would already taken a step in the direction gots the worst of it is a gaze and to keep him quiet. As the hot positive of vetermunderstand and appreciate its danger touched the boy's fout he opened his « Keep s III." said his mother, shakabandon the ship the carrie set up a jung her stick, which the grandmother Once more the little fellow opened

But the uplifted switch award blin-

"There, now," said his mechanisthe

As the mother and grandmother sea is definit to attend to. It is next moved to unphantly away a short, > of mive got it on the wrong foot!" - Rehabith Sanday Herald.

A Queer Pet.

In a country town in northern blue."- London News. Pennsylvania there lives a little old man who sells milk, carrying it from house to house morning and evening passed this law to keep the shippers' in a small hand-eart. There is nothing prices down claiming that the shipped strange about that, but his companion strangest you ever heard of an old onger than that time among the home gray goose, who follows him about in naimals they would spread this dis- the most digorded canner, and stands case by contagion. So the American watch over the cart, letting no one go cattle are put on burges from the near it in his master's absence. His comes, taken in to the simplifier name is Major, and his master says mores and killed " - [New York | [act by is instances useful as a dog would In .- [Hatter's Funny People.

Down On the Farm.

When a boy I used to dwell to a home I loved so well. For away among the clover and the bees,

And the robin followest song among the

And a mother dear to keep as from all harm; Those I passed life's golden hours.
Humning with among the flowers.
In my forthood's happy hours, down on the Many weary house have possed. cince I saw the old place fas memory still steads ofer medike a charm;

Exerc old familiar Piece. In my boyhead's happy home, down on the Harrin.

And today as Litray near The old home I havel so dear.
Stronger comes to meet one at the door.

Kound the place there smany a change, and the faces all seem strange. of a fored our non-to-great mean of vore Macmother dear is laid.

most warm

I consecutation ger's face. to my father west some same, down outlier

Many wears year- have present. Since Leave the old place has retions still steals o'er nor like a chorus; Exery o'd fetallor place extends happy hours, down the Indian Sens

BUMOROUS.

All men are not homeless, but some are because less than others. The parting words of your barber are generally . . . Which side, please? Most men feel (wice the love they profess, and express twice the bit termes they feel-The chicken thief's recollections of Bound going planks with high ratio ferred to stop for a good acclubile his scamp life are mostly associated

> A wooden deg-kennet should be built with the bark on and be lighted by a bay wimlow.

The difference between an editor and his wife is that his wife sets things to rights while he writes things to wet. Tomms -Pay, what are "wings of the wind?" The wind does not have real wings, does he Mr. Figg No.

That is merely a poetic expression for wide-whishere. A girl in Norway must be able to bake bread before she can have a beau. The one who takes the cake as a could is considered the flower of the Stranger con European rainways Ever been in America: Pellow passenger istifffy; -1 visit the country sometimes on business, sir. I am the editor of a New York paper. Relative - Well, I sincerely hope you will be happy with him, Mandy, Is he a stendy young man? Miss Mandy Steady? My goodness, Aunt Judy, he's been coming to see me for more than cleven years? Jones-I take no more pleasure in life. The world is full of thieves and reseals. I don't really believe there South Cheer up. When a man ac-

Poetry and Ornithology.

Lord Tennyson's -sea blue bird of March has long since been identified. on the authority of the poet himself. as matthey the swallow nor the wheatear nor the blue titmouse, as various renders have suggested, but simply the kingtisher. It has already been pointed out that the phrase bears a close resemblinge to the esea purple bird of spring," by which the Spartan lyric part refers to the halevon; by Lord Tennyam states that he derived the planes directly from his own remembrance of the kinglishers, who were went to make their first appearance about the Lincolnshire rivers in the month of March. In answer to a correspondent, the poet has larely contirmed this solution of a much-discussed question, with the interesting addition that were he rewriting the norm he would substitute "daris" for flits by" and "sea shining" for "sea

Philadelphia's Nylgta'.

Pariadelphia "Zoo," The stranger is a little fawn-colored antelope from India, whose species boasts the pecultar name of nylghai. The bashful li tle nyighai has the very distinguished honor of being the first of his family ever been in captivity. The avighals are very valuable salmals, natives of In his having nearly exterminated them for their hides - [New Orieans Times-Democrat.