

THE IMPORTANCE of one vote is forcibly illustrated in the late election in Kansas. In that State there is an equal number of republicans and their opponents elected, and a tie vote in Coffey county. This tie will be decided by lot, and the legislator who is in luck—who is declared elected—will give the majority in the Legislature to his political associates. If this majority is republican that party will control the organization of the Legislature and also elect a United States Senator. And in like manner if the majority is democratic that party will elect a democratic United States Senator, and he would beyond any doubt give the democratic party a majority in the Senate. Thus the political complexion of the next Senate may be determined by mere chance, by lot, by deciding the tie vote in Coffey county, Kansas. And that tie might have been prevented by one more vote at the late election.

A case similar to this occurred many years ago in Massachusetts.

A NEW secret organization, called "The Industrial Legion of the United States," was formed at Memphis immediately on the adjournment of the National Alliance, week before last. The members of this new society are prominent leaders of seven other organizations. One of the Executive Council is the notorious Marion Butler, who is certainly the most contemptible character in North Carolina. The object of the "Legion," as stated, is to carry out the political measures embodied in the declaration and principles of the Omaha platform, and the organization is of a secret character. On course then its existence in North Carolina is expressly forbidden by our laws, being a secret political society, and if Marion Butler or anybody else attempts to organize it in this State he ought to be promptly arrested and properly punished.

APPLICANTS for positions in the railway mail service must stand their examination under the rules of the Civil Service Commission, and the next examination in this State will be held at Greensboro on the 20th of January. So that if any of our readers wish to be appointed mail agent on any railroad they had better stand their examination at Charlotte on that day. Only persons between eighteen and thirty-five years of age can be appointed mail agent. The examination is upon orthography, copying penmanship, fundamental rules of arithmetic, penmanship, fractions, English language, letter writing and telegraphy. Clerks in the railway mail service were classified under the civil service by President Harrison after he had turned out all Cleveland's appointees.

THE AUSTRALIAN ballot system seems not to be fully understood in those States in which it has been adopted, and some curious mistakes occurred at the late election because many voters did not know how to arrange their ballots. For instance, in Ohio Seward, who headed the democratic electoral ticket, received 1,746 more votes than Tilden, who headed the republican electoral ticket, but all the other republican electors were elected by a small majority. It is thought that many voters, through mistake, voted for Seward only, when they really intended to vote the whole democratic ticket, but marked their ballot improperly.

Eight more democratic Senators can be obtained by dividing Texas into five States, and this should be done at the earliest possible opportunity. By the treaty between the republics of Texas and the United States, admitting the former into the Union, it was expressly stipulated that four more States might be made out of the present State of Texas. It now seems practicable for this to be done. The State of Texas can now be divided into five States, each of which will have a population of nearly half a million and contain an area as large as the States of New York and Connecticut combined.

THE OFFICIAL vote of New York is announced as 653,990 for Cleveland, and 608,230 for Harrison. This shows what a wonderful State is New York, with a voting population of over one million and a quarter. That State in itself is a mighty nation and is a marvel of American progress.

THE CHARLOTTE Observer, with its usual enterprise, was the only daily newspaper in this State that favored its readers with an issue on the morning after Thanksgiving Day.

Washington Letter.

(From our regular correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25, 1892.

Democratic Senators and Representatives are already quite numerous in Washington, and of those here at least three-fourths have expressed themselves as favoring an early extra session of the Fifty-third Congress for the purpose of dealing with the old and tariff matters. The reason given for this is that it is a question of long standing with Congress that about one year should elapse from the time a new tariff law is enacted before it goes into effect, in order to give business circles and manufacturers an opportunity to make preparations for the change that will prevent any loss by reason of reductions made in the duties. So that even if an extra session be called in April it will be in the neighborhood of a year and a half after the law is passed, and before the possibility of its being repealed or amended by the next Congress.

But there is another matter that is even more pressing than the tariff—the almost immediate need of the Government for money to meet the enormous obligations incurred by the republicans; and it is not believed that the republican majority of the Senate will be put out enough to drop their intense partisanship and aid in this matter during the present session of Congress; they don't care how much trouble the country gets into after it shall have passed into democratic hands. Notwithstanding the fact that the republican majority of the Senate will be put out enough to drop their intense partisanship and aid in this matter during the present session of Congress; they don't care how much trouble the country gets into after it shall have passed into democratic hands.

How to meet it is the most pressing question with which the democratic administration and Congress will have to deal. The republican majority of the Senate will be put out enough to drop their intense partisanship and aid in this matter during the present session of Congress; they don't care how much trouble the country gets into after it shall have passed into democratic hands.

RECENTLY the House of Representatives has passed a bill to amend the law relating to the election of Senators and Representatives. The bill provides that the electors shall be qualified to vote at the time of the election, and that the electors shall be qualified to vote at the time of the election.

ANOTHER FIRE at Winston, N. C., Nov. 28.—Winston was visited by another fire early this morning. The large dwelling occupied by Mrs. L. B. Thomas and owned by H. D. Funderburk was almost entirely destroyed. Mrs. Thomas and children ran with a narrow escape. They were sleeping up stairs and did not discover the fire until too late to go down the steps. Their only means of escape was to crawl out of the window in their night clothes on to the roof of an adjoining building. They were then rescued by friends through means of a ladder. The household goods were all lost or damaged.

THE SUGAR BOUNTY. New Orleans, November 27.—Sugar planters all over Louisiana are showering letters upon Mr. Cleveland and the Democratic leaders of Congress. The cry is going up from every parish that the bounty system must go, and that the duty on sugar should be restored in a modified form. Five hundred thousand persons are dependent on the industry in this State. The planters sell $2,000,000 worth of sugar a year. The Louisiana Sugar Planters' Association will send a strong delegation to Washington to urge the abolition of the sugar bounty.

Gone to Texas.

From the News and Observer, Nov. 20th.

A curious party of emigrants passed through Raleigh night before last bound for Texas. It was a crowd of Third partyites from Harrold county who have become disgusted in the progress of Third partyism in this State and concluded to seek a more congenial atmosphere. It was composed of six or seven men and a party consisting of a number of women and they were all under the leadership of a man named Holt, who has been a prominent Third party boss in Harrold. Some of the election these deluded people settled the matter among themselves and decided, as their unwholesome political faith did not seem to meet with either success or sympathy in North Carolina, they would no longer remain in the State but would go to Texas where they say the headquarters of the Third party is. Accordingly a party of thirty was made up and the pilgrims came by wagon to Raleigh where they took the train. They put out some hundred dollars for railroad tickets. The women in the crowd were dressed in Third party costumes and wore Weaver's plumes. It is said that some are selling out and getting ready to follow them next morning. They seem to think that the land of promise will be reached when they reach their visionary political Mecca in Texas. It is said that none of them knew exactly at what point in the Lone Star State they would bring up or what they will do when they are there. As they will in a short time reach the terminals and have to temporarily wait there without funds. Who knows? May be they will come to some lucky hole-in-the-hand they have heard of.

The Pedestrian Farms.

Mr. H. J. D., a superintendent of one of the pedestrian farms near Raleigh, says the Democrat an interesting account of the year's work on the farms. On the farm on the north side of the Raleigh station, near about 2,000 acres, and on the north side about 2,500 acres. In the north side farm they will get 100,000 bushels of corn, 100,000 bushels of wheat, 100,000 bushels of oats, 100,000 bushels of hay, 100,000 bushels of clover, 100,000 bushels of alfalfa, 100,000
