

The Old and New Year.

Another year has gone and a new one has begun, and all...

While we sadly bid farewell to the old year we gladly welcome the new year. At the end of every year the mind recalls its incidents and events...

The past year has been little different from all its predecessors. To some it has been a year of happiness and prosperity, and to others it has been a year of sorrow and adversity...

During the coming year let us all profit by the experiences of the past. Let us strive to be better than we were, and to do better than we have done...

Let us strive still harder to accomplish this year, remembering that "Providence helps those who help themselves."

To each and all its readers the Record extends its best greetings and wishes for each and every one a Happy New Year!

Error Robinson of the Asheville Times will not have to go to jail and Judge Ewart's petty malice will not be gratified.

Our readers will remember that the Record, last summer, denounced Judge Ewart for his unjust and an illegal sentence against Mr. Robinson for an alleged contempt of court. We then cited the case of Capt. Biggs, whom "Jaybird" Jones attempted to punish for an alleged contempt of his court in 1867, and we insisted that according to the law as then decided by our Supreme Court Judge Ewart's sentence was clearly illegal.

No Hope From Congress.

We have seen the way of Congress, and we have seen the result. It is a way that leads to nothing but a dead end. The country is in a state of confusion and the people are suffering...

Most murders are committed during Christmas week than during any other time of the year, and this was no exception.

From every direction are reports of cruel murders committed last week. If we were to attempt to publish all of them the Record could not contain them. Not only murders but all kinds of crimes in unusual number are committed during the Christmas holidays...
