The nomination of Daniel L. Russell and the disgraceful proceedings of the Republican State convention...

No such head, glad to see the fraud and corruption, ever before disgraced any political convention in North Carolina...

We wish that the full proceedings of the convention could be seen by every citizen of North Carolina...

The nomination of Judge Russell is calculated to excite the passions of the people...

But in the same proportion that the give their decision to the progress of the State...

Accordingly in the appointment of the committee on credentials...

After the most exciting and bitter debate ever known in any convention in this State...

Mr. Joseph B. Adams of Asheville was nominated as the Democratic candidate for Congress in the ninth district.

For Attorney General—Z. V. Walker, the late speaker of the Fusion Legislature.

For Associate Justice of Supreme Court—Robert M. Douglas, of Greensboro.

For Auditor—Ruff Handerson, of Wilkes county.

Hazeliah Gudgeon and Oscar Spears were nominated for Presidential electors, and A. E. Holton was re-elected chairman of the State executive committee.

The Republicans of the second district held their convention at Weldon, last week...

Washington letter. (From our special correspondent.)

Washington, May 15, 1896.

President Cleveland has never signed a bill for and Harbor bill, and therefore will not have the bill passed...
