The Chatham Record

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1896.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

SUPERIOR COURT AT PITTSBORO' C. P.

—Be sure to go to your township primaries next Saturday afternoon.

—Coffins for sale—pine, oak and walnut—by B. Nooe Jr.

—Three horses and three mules for sale cheap by B Nooe Jr

—The first frost of the season was seen here on last Thursday morning, the 24th of September

—Hon. R B Glenn will speak at Siler City next Saturday. There is not a more forcible speaker in this State. Go and hear him.

—A constable and three magistrates will be elected in November, in every township. Don't forget at your primaries next Saturday to nominate candidates for these offices.

—Did you register last Saturday? If not, be sure to register next Saturday. Remember that no man in Chatham can vote unless he registers, except those who live in Cape Fear township and the old Pooe's Mill precinct.

—Hon. W T Crawford will speak at Varner's X Roads on Tuesday the 13th, and at Pittsboro on Wednesday, the 14th. He was the Congressman in the Asheville district and is one of the best speakers in North Carolina. Come out and hear him.

—Have you seen those pretty dress goods they are selling at W. L. London's & Son's? They are certainly the prettiest you ever saw and decidedly the cheapest. No such stock of goods has ever been shown in this county. Miss Foushee will show you some lovely hats.

—Come on the 7th and 8th inst., to the grand opening at W. L. London & Son's. They will be glad to see you whether you want to buy any thing or not. Every body is cordially invited and will be made welcome. They will show you the grandest stock you ever saw.

—Dr W H Ellis is happy and will soon be married. He has decided to locate at Durham and will cease his monthly visits to this place, much to the regret of his many friends and patrons. He has been spending two or three days here every month for several years, during which time he has given perfect satisfaction to those who have patronized him, and he will be a valuable acquisition to the city of Durham.

—Mr James E Boyd of Greensboro, made a stirring Republican McKinley, gold standard speech at this place on last Saturday, which was much applauded by the audience. His colored hearers (who were largely in the majority) were very demonstrative and highly pleased, and are said now to be sold for a straight Republican ticket from President to constable.

OLD CITIZEN DEAD.—The many friends of Mr. George W. Thompson Sr. will regret to hear of his death, which occurred at this place on last Friday. He had been sick for some time and his death was not unexpected. He was 72 years old and was one of Chatham's most respectable citizens. While public spirited and always taking a lively interest in public affairs he never held an office, and that was director of the penitentiary, to which he was elected in 1871 and which he held for several years.

His remains were carried to Raleigh for burial by the side of his wife, who died suddenly while on a visit there several years ago. He leaves four sons, Messrs. A. A. Thompson, G. W. Thompson and James A. Thompson of Raleigh, and W. H. Thompson, of Waco, Texas.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—One of the few cases of highway robbery that has ever occurred in Chatham was perpetrated near this place, on last Friday night. Mr. Hiram Henderson, of Hadley township, was the unfortunate victim. He had spent the day here and while drinking at a barroom displayed a roll of money, and that night about 7 o'clock started home on horseback, and next morning about sunrise was found lying unconscious in the lane nearly in front of the former residence of the late Mrs. Kate S. London. He was brought here to the Central hotel and on examination was found to have been violently struck on the back of the head and quite seriously wounded. His money, about $40 was missing. After regaining consciousness Mr. Henderson said that all he remembered was a sudden blow on the head, but could not say who had struck him. Circumstances aroused suspicion against Haywood Leach, a colored youth of this place, and he was arrested for the robbery, and after a preliminary trial before Squire James M. Farrell, J. was committed to jail.

TOM JONES DEAD.—Mr. S. T. Jones died at his father's residence in Hadley township, on last Monday. Our readers will remember that in August of last year he mysteriously disappeared and after an absence of five days and nights was found at the house of Preston Wright living on the opposite side of the river from Haywood, and nearly dead from starvation and exposure. He never fully recovered from the effects of his terrible experience, and his death was the result of the long exposure.

PERSONAL POINTS.—Mr. Fred C. Weaver has returned to Baltimore for another stock of goods, and old Dame Fortune is smiling on him.

Mrs. T. E. Pace and Mrs. C. T. Morgan and Miss Blanche Morgan of Durham are visiting Mr. J. B. Pace's family.

Mr. John F. Shuford, of Durham, was here a few days ago on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. L. A. Hanks.

Dr. D. G. Purkett, of Sprunt's Pennsylvania, was a visitor to his old home in New Hope township.

Mr. Lonnie B. Lindsay is the proud father of a new son, which he thinks is quite a treasure.

Miss Mae Robertson, of Asheville, is visiting Miss Lucy Lindsay.

Mr. [illegible] of Pittsboro, and Miss [illegible] of Bynum, were married on the 20th inst. by Rev. [illegible].
