

Mr. Washington Duke, of Durham, has offered to give $100,000 to Trinity College on condition that girls are admitted to the college on an equality with boys.

This proposition to admit young women on an equality with young men to Trinity College will probably be objected to by many persons and its practical workings will be watched with interest.

The reported assassination of Antonio Maceo, the Cuban General, has aroused intense indignation throughout the United States, and may cause an interference by our government for the prevention of further Spanish atrocities on that unhappy island.

Resisting manumission will be a very profitable and will not be attended with any of the harassing expenses of the times with which the manumission of our Governors have heretofore been celebrated.
