

The mass meeting of white men held at Goldsboro, on last Friday, was the most extraordinary ever held in this State, or indeed in any other State. It was a meeting of about eight thousand white men from different portions of the State, but chiefly from the negro ridden counties in the east, who assembled for the sole and all-important purpose of securing white supremacy. That such a meeting was necessary is a disgrace to our State, for in no other civilized country in the world is a white community dominated by a race of white men...

This meeting was organized by white men, and the object of the party was to secure the election of a white man to the office of Governor. The meeting was held in a hall in Goldsboro, and was attended by about eight thousand white men. The meeting was organized by a committee of white men, and the object of the party was to secure the election of a white man to the office of Governor. The meeting was held in a hall in Goldsboro, and was attended by about eight thousand white men...

The resolutions adopted by this meeting, and published in another column, should be as the badge of honor to all white men in one solid phalanx. They set forth such a condition of affairs as does not exist, nor would be tolerated in any other State in the American Union. We pity the white men who can read them without being aroused to intense indignation!

WILMINGTON'S condition is most deplorable, and is daily growing worse. A race conflict there is so imminent and the condition is so critical, that many white citizens are sending their families to Fayetteville, Raleigh and other places for safety and protection. They are afraid for them to remain in Wilmington. Almost a reign of terror prevails there, and the slightest trouble would precipitate a bloody riot. The white people have organized and armed for their defense. Every square or block is thoroughly organized. At the first alarm—as soon as the signal of danger is given—all the women and children in each square will assemble at a previously appointed place, there in that square. And the men, instantly arming themselves, will hasten there for their protection. No one knows at what hour the alarm may be given, and it must be the anxiety and uneasiness that doubtless keeps awake at night many women and children.

And yet the white men of Chatham are asked to send to the next Legislature men who publicly endorse Gov. Russell, who is wholly responsible for this deplorable condition of North Carolina's chief city!

The white men of North Carolina are determined to rescue their State from every vestige of negro rule. They have made up their minds to do this and they will certainly do it notwithstanding the frantic efforts and falsehoods of the Republican speakers and papers. The man who thinks this an idle assertion will find himself very much mistaken after the election. And when the true white men of North Carolina are fighting over their victory, how humiliating will be the feelings of those white men, who for an office, are now willing to place white communities under negro rule!

THERE were Tories in the Revolutionary war and there were deserters in the Confederate war, but no man is now proud of being one of their descendants. And so, it will be with the descendants of those white men, who for an office, are now in favor of keeping any white communities under negro rule!

The desperate straits to which the Republican speakers and papers are driven is shown by their frantic appeals to the fears of ignorant people. For several years after the war Republican speakers and papers told the negroes that, if the Democrats got control of the government, they would put all the negroes back in slavery. The Democratic control of the government, county, State and national—but made no effort whatever to do anything of the kind. And now, the Republican papers and speakers are trying again to deceive the people, by falsely alleging that if the Democrats control the next Legislature, they will strip every voter who cannot read or write. The absurdity of this falsehood is shown by the statement that the Legislature has a power to do this franchise act.

The order for the removal of the bodies from the Goldsboro meeting, has been a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State.

The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State.

The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State.

The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State.

The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State.

The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State.

The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State.

The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State.

The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State. The bodies were removed from the Goldsboro meeting, and the removal was a disgrace to our State.

Guthrie's Speech at Goldsboro. Major Guthrie, on taking the chair, made one of the most powerful and effective speeches that has been made in this or any other State. It was a spontaneous outburst of patriotic sentiment, spoken not from a printed script, but from the heart. Every sentence was appropriate; every word was weighty; every gesture impressive; every illustration apt; every appeal pathetic and powerful, and argument convincing and unanswerable. When he addressed the crowd: "Follow citizens of the white race in North Carolina," the applause began, and wave after wave swayed the vast crowd as he proceeded.

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"It is not that we meet here in the sleepy town of Goldsboro on the border line of the back belt to endorse a man who is a traitor to the people of this State, but to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

Major Guthrie, on taking the chair, made one of the most powerful and effective speeches that has been made in this or any other State. It was a spontaneous outburst of patriotic sentiment, spoken not from a printed script, but from the heart. Every sentence was appropriate; every word was weighty; every gesture impressive; every illustration apt; every appeal pathetic and powerful, and argument convincing and unanswerable. When he addressed the crowd: "Follow citizens of the white race in North Carolina," the applause began, and wave after wave swayed the vast crowd as he proceeded.

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

Major Guthrie, on taking the chair, made one of the most powerful and effective speeches that has been made in this or any other State. It was a spontaneous outburst of patriotic sentiment, spoken not from a printed script, but from the heart. Every sentence was appropriate; every word was weighty; every gesture impressive; every illustration apt; every appeal pathetic and powerful, and argument convincing and unanswerable. When he addressed the crowd: "Follow citizens of the white race in North Carolina," the applause began, and wave after wave swayed the vast crowd as he proceeded.

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

"We are met," said the speaker, "from every section of North Carolina to examine the constitution of our commonwealth, and to determine whether we will remain true to the principles of government which were established by the people of this State."

THE EARNEST PURPOSE.

Of this store is its proper appreciation of patronage bestowed to protect your buying interest at all times and to extend a most cordial welcome to all visitors while in the City.

- TS CLOAK-TIME NOW. Time, thought and money has been spent in collecting this handsome equipment of Coats and Capes. LADIES BLACK JACKETS, made from extra fine quality all wool Kersey faced heavy silk serge—his as strip, news darts, sleeves, large pearl buttons. 5.00 BLACK CLOTH CAPE trimmed in Mohair and beaded braid, steel buckles—84 inch sweep—$3.00. BLACK BRAVER CAPE—108 inch sweep, single back, infant satin with bias strip, finished with rows of silveting across front. $3.00. BLACK FRENCH BOU LE BOX COAT—Silk lined, double breasted, 4 Buttons—great value. 3.00.

Sherwood Biggs & Co. RALEIGH, N. C.

Commercial and Farmers Bank, OF RALEIGH, N. C.

STATEMENT OF CONDITION DECEMBER 15, 1897. Capital Stock Paid Up, $100,000.00. Surplus Fund, 20,000.00. Net Undivided Profits, 8,351.72. Deposits, 384,919.36. Total, $513,271.08. Safe deposit boxes for rent. No interest paid on deposits. Orders by customers every accommodation consistent with safe banking. A number of good business offices for rent. OFFICERS: J. J. THOMAS, President. A. F. THOMPSON, Vice-President. B. S. JERMAN, Cashier. H. W. JACKSON, Assistant Cashier. DIRECTORS: J. J. Thomas, Raleigh. A. H. Hume, Clayton. A. A. Thompson, Raleigh. J. N. Dixie, Durham. J. B. Hill, Raleigh. A. F. Page, Aberdeen. R. B. Bandy, Raleigh. J. W. Scott, Sanford. J. E. Sherrill, Raleigh. Fred. Phillips, Tarboro. Cary J. Hunter, Raleigh. Thomas H. Briggs, Raleigh. H. A. Landon, Pittsboro. G. W. Watts, Durham.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Cotton Ginners. UOUGHT TO INSURE THEIR PROPERTY IN THE N. C. HOME INSURANCE CO. This is a Home company and deserves the patronage of all North Carolinians. It was organized in 1868 and has paid over six hundred thousand dollars in losses and there is not one contest claim against it. Losses paid promptly. Every prudent man ought to insure his property. For terms, &c., apply to H. A. LONDON, AGENT. W. S. PRIMROSE, President. Sept. 1, 1898. C. F. & Y. V. RAILWAY. JOHN GILL, Receiver. Condensed Schedule. In effect July 24, 1898. Leave Siler City 1:32 p. m. Daily, arrive Sanford 2:30 p. m., Fayetteville 3:52 p. m., Wilmington 7:05 p. m. 2:16 p. m. Daily, arrive Greensboro 3:40 p. m., Mt. Airy 7:00 p. m. Arrive Suer City 2:16 p. m. Daily, from Wilmington, Fayetteville and Sanford. 1:32 p. m. Daily from Greensboro, Walnut Cove and Mt. Airy. W. E. KYLE, Gen. Pass. Agent. J. W. Fry, Gen'l Manager.

High Grade Tailor Made Suits FOR LADIES WEAR. THESE SUITS WILL COME RECOMMEND THEMSELVES TO EVERY BODY WHO WISHES A STRETTLY BUILT TAILOR GOWN. WRITE US. BOBBIN & FERRALL, 123 and 125, Fayetteville Street, RALEIGH, N. C.

CLOTHING For Everybody! Our House with Two Large Floors is now Filled up with Popular Price CLOTHING, SHOES, HATS, and FURNISHING GOODS. T. J. LAMBE, The Acknowledged Clothier of DURHAM, N. C.

IMPORTANT LAND SALE. This is a private sale before 12 m. on MONDAY, the 10th day of November, 1898, I will take care of the following lands: At the court house door in Raleigh, the lot containing about 2 1/2 acres west of Elizabeth, formerly belonging to T. B. Harris, deceased, containing about 1500 acres. One tract adjoining the lands of Nelson Low and others and containing about 120 acres. One tract, part of the land of T. B. Harris, deceased, and containing about 24 acres. One tract lying on Turkey creek and containing about 24 acres. One tract lying on the Patterson and Papp road and containing about 216 acres. All the above land will be sold in one lot to suit purchasers. Terms: One cash, one-third in one year, and one-third in two years with interest from date of sale. A great bargain will be given to anyone wishing to buy any of the above land with interest bearing property. This land is for sale privately. For further information apply to H. A. LONDON, Nov. 8, 1898.

W. A. Slater Co., Clothier and Gents' Furnish- ing Goods. This Space Belongs to