

The twenty-seventh annual meeting of the North Carolina Press Association was held last week at Carolina Beach...

There were about 75 editors present and many of them were accompanied by their wives or sisters or daughters...

The Association was indebted for special courtesies to Mr. Benjamin Bell, of the Wilmington Journal, and Mr. P. Heinsberger, representing the Merchants' Association...

Because of this refreshing boat ride down the river Carolina Beach is a favorite resort for the citizens of Wilmington and the excursionists from the up-country...

The meetings of the Association were held in the building belonging to the Seale-Hall club, which was most hospitably placed at the disposal of the editors...

This proposed association is intended in any manner to interfere with the N. C. Press Association, but is designed to get together the Democratic editors...

The editors also expressed their opinion of the treatment given their libel bill by the last legislature, and by a unanimous vote adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1st. That the North Carolina Press Association endorses the proposed libel law as prepared by Mr. H. A. London, and presented to the legislature of 1899...

Resolved, 2nd. That we are surprised and wounded at the treatment seemingly unjust, negligent and discourteous towards the members of the Press of North Carolina...

In the discussion of all subjects the editors were very conservative and exhibited a most commendable spirit.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, D. J. Whitchard, of Greenville; vice-presidents, T. N. Ivey, Benjamin Bell, H. S. Blair...

Hendershove was selected as the place for the meeting next year, thus giving to the seashore to the mountains.

As usual many new members were admitted to the Association at this meeting—about twenty-five in number. It was a great pleasure to greet these new members as well as to meet again our old friends.

The Association was indebted for special courtesies to Mr. Benjamin Bell, of the Wilmington Journal, and Mr. P. Heinsberger, representing the Merchants' Association...

After an interchange of opinions on the subject it was unanimously resolved to form such an organization. A committee was appointed to prepare a constitution and by-laws...

This proposed association is intended in any manner to interfere with the N. C. Press Association, but is designed to get together the Democratic editors...

The better working of the public roads of North Carolina is one of the most important matters that can engage the most serious attention of our people...

The congress was favored with the presence of Gen. Roy L. Stone, who has charge of the Department of Road Inquiry at Washington...

The RECORD has heretofore stated that the military censorship of the telegrams from Manila kept the people of this country in ignorance of the true condition of affairs in the Philippine Islands...
