The Chatham Record

THURSDAY, July 19 1900

E. A. ANDERSON, Editor.

The Legislature has adjourned sine die, and thus another Populistic falsehood is exposed.

How?

Why, simply this. Populist speakers and papers have been predicting that the Legislature would meet Tuesday morning again, claiming the intention was that the people would not know what they would be voting for next Tuesday. Every Populist candidate in the county has been using this falsehood to deceive the people by making them believe that all the appropriations that the Legislature would make would be vetoed by the Governor, but all in vain. The Legislature met at the appointed hour, Tuesday morning, and not even an attempt was made to call an extra session. Which shows conclusively that the Governor will not veto any of the appropriations made by the Legislature, and that the Populist candidates have been using this falsehood to deceive the people. Every Populist candidate in the county has been using this falsehood to deceive the people by making them believe that all the appropriations that the Legislature would make would be vetoed by the Governor, but all in vain. The Legislature met at the appointed hour, Tuesday morning, and not even an attempt was made to call an extra session. Which shows conclusively that the Governor will not veto any of the appropriations made by the Legislature, and that the Populist candidates have