Strictly in Advance.

Fill enter several notes on the log about too lying stick and such a letter. Trust

They talk a little lenger, and the balls are arranged so that there may e to blunder. Unless some neeldent seems, the shadow of which has not er been seen, they appear to have a

When Mynheer doe leaves the skip-per of the Avalanche he has arranged everything to his satisfaction. They understand each other thoroughly and nothing is lacking save the production

He has become somewhat used to be

From the Burning Gant, as the place of incineration on the river bank is called, he heads once more for the hotel at the foot of Malabar Höl.

Bondary is bustling with life, from distant Managon on one side to Cala-bah on the other. Jee finds it difficult to even make his way along some of the streets, and soon hails a palk-e gharry, into which he tumbles and is soon dropped at his destination.

The first person he sees is the faithful Kassec; and when he crooks his inger, the other comes to his side like a flash. He takes his orders from his muster, smiles, nods and is gone. That wonderfully active brain of Kasses's will handle the matter well. No fear of his making a blunder. The only one Joe has ever known him to make was in bumpfug his head against that observation in the Nile, at the time they were thrown out of the boat in seen him well on his way, Mynhore

Joe looks up the others who are to figure in this little drama that ments so much to the baron. He finds there lying in a hammock and taking in a story told by a gray haired old officer of that disadful seem be witnessed smoke a native hubble-bubble with intather have made themselves as easy as possible in came chairs, where the grateful shade is densest and the cooling breeze may fan their cheeks.

Bather a picturesque seene they pre-

"Well done?" is the mental comment.

him and starts up.

vances toward Joe.

Grimes has told him.

cent as he greets Miss Tanner.

notes, they would weep tears of envy and bellow no more. Talk about your steam fog-horn! The Honorable Demosthenes could extinguished such a toy with one blast, and then hardly

This is no invitation such us Jos

CHAPTER XXIII.

THE NOTE THAT HOUSED THE BUSSLAN

The facts age soon under plain, and every one understands the game that Mr. Grimes and Mynberr Joe have betefol up between them. It is sim-the and tel seems to have the news sary qualities to insure success. As Mr. Grimes produced to his companion, the young American girl is sendy to join in the game. She knows the risk and days to undertake it for the good of the little company. The when heroic treatment is necessary in order to are omplish a cure. Such in stances arrive in the affinies of men

When all his been arranged, each one of the company is satisfied, and the grace goes on. The baren has no been seen since Mr. Granes pointed

It is now well on toward upon, mirto belone of the scarce must be deput within excess money on Car-

Joe mis plenty more to do. Already

Pennsylvania Intelimen for patching up a plot to confuse the na-

One square, one insertion One square, two insertions One square, one month For Larger Advertise-

the Chatham Record.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

ments Liberal Contracts will be made.

BY ST. GEORGE RATHBORNE.

COPYRIGHT 1905, BORRER BONNER'S BONS

ives, chi duci

of the baron's body,

CHAPTER XXII. [Continued.]

"Impossible, Boul I don't even want your men to see me, so that the cock and bull cory you may tell the later will have an air of probability

"Eh! What's in the wind new?" bursts out the other, looking in Joe's banging walk and I'll tell you quite a yarn that may awaken your interest even if it doesn't harrow up your blood. At any rate, I am in loopes that it will arouse your chivalry."

"Hellot Three to one there's perti-cuts in it. Wouldn't talk about chirplry otherwise. Well, here's Ben Hart on, rough seading that he is, always willing to remember his mother clod ldess her epid do n favor in her nam-when there's a woman in trouble, nor re speak of Daisy."

half the morning has passed, and the heat grows more and more intene-Mynle or Joe gives him a look that most thail his heart, it is so full of during his Soudan empaign, and calls himself a submander, since he never thanks. Then knowing the value of time, and desirents that the sailer shall bearn all the particulars before mak flinches from the hottest sun.

ing his decision, Jose starts in one else might do better just here. enter have the affair, and he falls to even do them simple justice

The ceptula gets on inkling of the fact, and makes ample allowances. Afthough he does not know all that Mankey Joe has been doing of law years. Rambay has been ringing with his praise as the avenger of Brave Ger-·long and boold a Captain Hen has not forgoren that his friend was ever modest even in their old school-days.

Several times he stops due to ush he wants to know all that is going on. At last the story is done. Captain Ben holds his head with both bands, and seems to be studying the ground knows his man, and does not fear for the final result.

All as once the sailor purs our a

Slinke, Joe, old boy," he says quiet

Well " neverting the palm

You can count upon me eThat means-

The Laron will have the chance his life to study the gaugraphy of that qualit chillan city of Valparaiso ex-many months chapses?"

"I thought I knew you, Ben," said the clated Joe, on bearing the bluft eaptain's words expressing agreement with his plans. "Now, as to the pay for this risky job --- "

The what?" bellows the excitable

"I mean just what I say, I'm a nate of wealth, and you have your way to make in the world. I must arrange a decent price for this business. What Three times too much," grumbles

"Well, I shall put something in your hand before you sail, and don't open it on your life, old man. I have not forgotten the demure little girl you were sweet on as a boy, and who you tell me is now your wife. When next Christons, place this in her hand

"I'll do that with pleasure, Joe, only Dalsy and I have often talked of you This is my loot long voyage. If I live through it I am promised a captain's berth on one of the new Clyde const steamers running out of New

"How many children have you,

"Two-Marguerite and Joe."

"What! You named your boy-"After the only chap who could outwrestle, out in ow, outrus me at school—the same boy who dragged me out of the Delaware when I went in netually wants to pay me now for doing him a small favor."

"Small favor be hanged! This man is a secret emissary of the exact."

You may get into a war with Rus-

"Joking uside, Ben, this is a serious business, and you must neglect no op-portunity to soleld yourself, for trop ble is almost sure to come of it?"

"Oh, I'm willing coencil to appear an imposent roof of you's or an in known party shipping this crare He-shin out to Aniparaiso. The no desirto embroil my beloved country in a war with the care. Why, they might empture Philadelphia and, think of it v little beam is on the out-kirts!"

Well, let's talk new about the plan to be pursond. You must have a deer ment, written by some ficultions per son, asking whether you would be will finde out of his lend and may have to or each by street with he will be bronged a got at at synthin fatter "

Each goes to the appointed task. Within the hour a messenger is searching for the haron, bearing a note with out a signature, but which is combact Russian to smack his lips with pride and satisfaction, confident that his conquest is nearly completed, the beautiful American girl almost within his grasp, being unable to resist the charms of a title.

These foreigners have some to the conclusion that any American beauty or heiress will give up even the man a few glaring instances of this kind she loves to grasp a coronet. Perhaps have made them believe that way. They need taking down, and Molly Tanner is just the one to clampion ber sex, and ten-h the arist eracy a lesirra hold mean the game, and the farness indicate a stablen and astorishing surprises together with an unexpected seiling on the part of the Russian nobleman. the baron receives this scented billet donx. He is in a fashienable club, to which he has gained entry through letters of introduction, and for purposes of his own. At the time he chances to be engaged in a game of billiards with a French gentleman of note, traveling in India to see the country, so it is said, although there are suspicious that he meets the batton by appointment.

France and Russ a are hand in glove, Their interests do not clash, and both secretly hate England. In the event of a general European war, in which draining may a may food at the plant Great Britain received a drubbing, grows. Form and calls tilles do best Turkey and India would be the spolls when on pure mock is added to two of Russia, while Egypt must fall of France. These things are talked of in India, where the British troops are but a drop in the bucket compared to der soil, more there and fertiliter the natives, and every move upon the chese board of Europe finds its responsive throb over the Indian Ocean. Besides, the peculiarity of this position causes them to see things in a different light.

books pleased, and his French companion laughs aloud.
"Success, baron, eli? You are a ladythe darkness, and losing his master. Having mished with Kasee, and during the Sepay per from when en-gaged on the column - at to the relief of Lucknow: Mr. Grimes trying to It is too bad, baron, that the event of your life should come upon you while on this trip.

The Russian gives him a look that Never fear, Monsieur Lamar; I am equal to the occasion."

They drop the subject and knock the balls about for some time longer. ent, the traveler thinks, as he stops to It is evident, however, that the baron's take it in. At this moment Molly sples letter has broken up his style, for he Then, as if remembering herself, she plays like an amateur and finally turns searlet, makes a movement as drops his one in disgust, excusing him self to his friend. though about to be scated again, changes her mind and bravely ad-

He hardly knows how to pass the must seem like an eternity to his ha-of that gentleman, who has noted all the phases of this struggle, and begins to believe deep down in his heart at his rooms; several men come to con-fer with him in a mysterious way. It e truth in what Mr. is evident that the baron has connec-tions here in Bombay with a powerful He is too shrewd to give himseif away, however, and looks very innoshone. This makes it doubtful whether clever little scheme of the Great Jeliosaphat! Is that you, Joe? Americans can be made a success, for Come up here, young man, and give a ome one of these elements may impstrict account of yourself." burst out the sweet voice of the big Illinois pen upon the game and discover the Still, such men as Mynheer Joe and Mr. Grimes can be trusted to stand up against all comers and hold And if the crocodiles of the Ganges could hear the full tenor of his siren

> Thus the day draws to a close, and the momentous night creeps over city on the sacred river-a night that will be fraught with great events to everal of our characters.

All hall the coming of evening with This is it invitation such as any wants, and to the interested quartets in is soon relating what he has done to relieve them of the baron, whose presence in Italia means trouble for hist. Even the parties reloice at the setting of the sun. Some of them are worshipers of the great fire-god, and can be seen doing reverence to less descent behind the watery horizon. There are Mohammedans on their knees, with their faces toward distant Meeaccompanied by the most fautastic ending of the body.

These sights are so common in all | My method is the:

| Piper of all | Pip bending of the body. Eastern countries that the old truy-eler fails to notice them beyond a cusual glance. | feeted failed as This they are could be in the name of hastering and a turne's attaining box. Give then ye

Baron Popoff, after his dinner, proseeds to make an elaborate toilet. He s always something of a dandy, but on this particular night be waxes his on this particular near to was as Inistache with particular care, so that the ends stand out like needles. When ready to saily forth, he sur-veys himself in the glass, smiles with satisfaction, as though personally well pleased with his appearance, gives a fast twirl at his mustache and thea gives the house.

Already he has seen to his preparaor, and a sligram is waiting at the or, samuged by one of his con men The baron is suspictous to nature and thes not the blea of being driven above they be decided one dark streets of Bombay by one in the combined in t on an he puts no confidence

(To be Continued)

* AGRICULTURAL. *

Report Con the Sandard Sandard A Find for Preeding Eves.
Cut close lay is one of the very best feeds for by ding eves during best feeds for breading ences during the winter. In whitten they must have only, peas med sense good corn folder. Sum ten read stoud the given to keep the a my pool condition, but not samply to conserve after ing. Always present some kind of given food, such as to 4 pulitype as ere.

Soil For Cot Plants.

Although a is well known that different varieties of places need different treatment to cleany measure give all per plants the same self of wantever soil is family a. When a clean I resolid teach the aristocracy a loss son. All American girls are not for sale. Those whom these foreigness big do not represent the true element of Yankee hassies; but are in them selves tained with that abject reverence for titles so noticeable in Eage than all the properties of the of mostle below the and the first soil to not usually the affile of the A most turns on the whole, such to make person and fortiging seriously or well active that the to distance of well active that in melt or distance share of or moved, a every jurariesh, over this no a denthe sell washing or on lat I spelling the grows. Forth and calls lines do best when one peri much is added to two pures of the above mixture. Creat do well in nearly processed, while resea, carnations and reconfigure used a heav-

My stable is large, new, well vently ated and warm. The sun shiftes through several windows in the rear nearly all day. A six-feet space behind the card- gives made been to work and for the rows to stand and lick while loose for deinlang. Burning littler. Who would think it, a man given over to diplomatic intercourse such as my friend, and yet finds time small stream intergeliange tank isoland to these little amours. I congratulate you. Who is it, mon mult?

The barson shakes his head, and gently deposits the perfumed note in his immure or water process.

ity deposits the perfumed note in his limiter pocket.

"That would be telling, nonsieur, a revergive my secrets away until I amount out it in their give my secrets away until I amount out it in time until my hand closes around it. Enough to say, I am offer the bards the barotic is caught at last."

"Mon Dieu! Is it so serious as that?"
I had not thought it means so much, it is no had, baron, that the event of Warm days in strain and mutil the last is no had, baron, that the event of Warm days in strain, about Mayal 15.

mover leave the latta a sin until the warm days in strain, about April 15, and then only for a strain about April 15, and then only for a few bones daily in a simil published, but his them only toon deeping the stable read and tree from these. I have followed this system for several years. They are now tooled for system years. They are now tooled for system years. They are now tooled for system years, the fall inspector views and firm a several years. They are now tooled for system years, the fall inspector views are offern, and have been prepared to the many plentiful where both with the read spring wheat are grown in the same locality. In this cattle inspector views are offern, and have been well as the magnetic forms also seen. They cattle inspector views are offern, and have been well as the magnetic forms also seen. They cattle inspector views are offern, and have been well as the magnetic forms also seen. time away until evening, and the hours witter, and there is no coughing an must seem like an eternity to his happened soul.

The patient soul.

During the afternoon he has callers ers, believe in this system, but I am satisfied that if the stable is well very constitution of the stable is well very constitution. Watts, in The Cultivator

To login with I want to say that I have not had a great deal of experience with entres. Nevertheless, the little I have had less proved very satisfactors themselves, while in the attempt to teach them to drink.

In nine cases out of ten the cause of the supposed simplifier of the call a the high of suggesty on the part of the operators. It is not my desire to dwell wholly on what is, but rather, what ought to be. I have not unught one dozen calves in all my life in drink, but the tow I and much fearned with disputch and one. It may be per-ceived by this that it is not a matter ca, oblivious of all save their prayers, had a call dead at the second effecting

> Supers Londy, don't thense of their nouther Posit roofs an down might paid it should eax is down toward the pull by lacerns the fineres, which is up in A ter a little patience excess that is and of its rapid matrice being pre-

In closing, I will again admon

the greatest question the user of or incread festilizer has to familiar, himself with to succeed in gotting of last results from its application to use a commercial grade remardless of us constituents and its adaptability to the soil on which it is to be used would result in faiture. This is the reason some farmous talk for and other against the use of commercial term

We used to new the burse portion of

We used to use the edge parameter of our wheat ground, in fact, we do at the present time, but we need to think that to saw wheat on soil whose we did not apply yard manning was a waste of seed, land field as far as the yard manure will go burnes, then when seeding time some or 200 points of connected fermions to the new on the incovered per on of the test. We always fertilize tion of the field. We always ferrilize the where ground, and this insures a malerable. When it comes to covering the field again was yard because we have been well as a part because we the and favor to one parties of the fact with a covering of the commer-cial kind. This keeps the field in a good state of fertility and insures a specessful crop when other conditions are quality is favorable.

true idea in using commercial fortil sections, using it in connection with or stable minimum to insure a success-tal crop throughout a field. We have from experimenting that he rath of commercial fertilizer is equal a covering of yard maintee, but one has not could be one-ory, other methods have to nght into use. Last year on our whent ground where we used the con-mercial tertilizer, we obtained seventsthe per cent, of a crop. Where w used yard manure ninety per cent. Where no manure or fertilizer of any hind was used not over fifteen per cent of a crop was harvested and this was of poor quality. Now the question comes to us whether or not we used

The Wheat Stem Maggat.

The wheat stem marget, or, as it is quetimes called the Wirest built occur, has proved to be rather a serelieful that some precautions must is taken or it will greatly increase, ays the lawa Homestead. Its presence 11/1 the larene feed upon the central part of the photos on their course down-oard. They remain during the winter in the surface of the ground and apor in the spring in the adult form close in turn by their eggs upon pring when plants and cause the de-custion of such plants as they feed However, the devastation of the choos progrey brings about the works of destroying the wheat beds. It is bringed that even a third broad make is appearance and again deposits its upon young wheat. It is our opinsary breeding ground just as well as neer wheat.

The accompanying illustration shows outlons of two beals of wheat that day be in affected by the insect, as I as the supa and serva form and a meanified and coception of the a meanified and coception of the above may be distanted by the little to available temedies for this inme proventities rather than cura-tive. When should not be grown con-potently on the same soil, and, indeed, our rotation should be introduced in and one was that attrebs this tend of Meanings soler of on single, her Access of a bridge light straight

A DISAPPEARING GRL. A Type of Feminishty That is Not Office

It seems as if the poince had really cant for good. It is oddy in the years could thump distressmely from nates new the majority of girls tell one that they do not play the paint. They play the harp possibly, indus-positibly golf surely, but the plate requisits to be suffering from a surge of megleet and a manin for processions is are beginning to feel that the reaor has gone almost too far.

word of marsheal talent or trot, was turn a becomes out exets see and 10 on the long suffering instrains a in most cases, to drop the whole t impreterminus's oil down and play deasant time, or alcompany her have semi-professional performers of can give exhibitions of skill a re-dent above the comprehension of the multiander but the homely, musicht made to accompany themselves the is quite a serious business with all drunsels of toulay. They must buse one to accompliny, and they must peartise the songs with him or her to preliand and they must have a suitable town with pull-had their site oundoors to turn over the page to fore they will consent to delight our cars. In days now past every girl who sang played her own accompan as a matter of course and did not al ways need music either. The eleteration of the modern ac-compariment may have something to with the present state of about good fregment in covering part of a field whi one kind and finishing it with another. What I mean by this is, would it not be better to get a main minist gynussetic displays of a high order from the player. But the grad-ual distinctof the plane has more in say to the matter. The modern will is smaller amount of commercial ferritary to the matter. The modern will is planning and commercial ferritary to the agree and cover the whole need and write personnel that she has a say with attent 100 points per ners.

E. F. Brown, in the American Agriculture is just as well. The old factors of the control of the control

Many Striking Veils.

The efficient will have these in mulady's favor this summer, not only

Wide hemstrened forders will play prominent part among the chie these of the coming season.

other color are offered as november are not likely to become generally pop-

A burder appoined with sirius

A total to partine of the new yell All the equamentation is comined the localet

Cluster effects are the most scribb among the latest mesh vells,

Chenille and velver spots in beplant and fatey forms have been abeyance in coldent for several year past. They are now on view on a foot the new mech year, but the p

A new yell known as the nursusols well that is to form a popular has you make is of clotten with a wide bond all around and is a gard and a !

Blacks where blue and brown in the order named, are to be the most like shades for veils the coming smiller. Philadelphia Record the Passing of "Separate" Waists.

e so called separate must us waists made decree should not be extende er and uniterial always look- v our and shirt of cloth or novelt with a wrist of silk to imit over and with one of white come light color a nurked and deall change may be made so us to give the most of luving two or three governthin material, having a waist to make a good investment, for the quant certainly someter than who restletes, but still does not by and nd a become but a woman can from a december and now make her area gown do duty for the nearly of the new blouses.

theatre, for function, or for any aftercon cutertainment, and a fashion line it such a boon to the economical ill not be allowed to go entirely out.

Evening gowns are not a necessity in many parts of the country, but in coun-racy or city there should be some gown or evening wear. The trouble taken make the change in the afternoon is cell repaid by the sense of refreshment at the consciousness of booking much beautin quite cheaply when they are The Sophisticated Debutante.

active dressed. There are any number of cotten and west materials that may be be in the very briest fashion, but which are extremely effective, and can

The delatinte is voing in years, of ourse, but her knowledge of the world considerably greater than that of meather and grandmother. She is that she is not the fashion just so she emulates her married sisof statifing conversation in order neurate public attention. The mere n on being introduced to her supsuitable topic of conversation, almortanily healthy, plays every the with enthusiasm, and is full of single-sed mental excitement. She is r tired. She will dance till 4 a. m. al be riding at 9. Every man who morne kings - more of her than her other who has similed her for years. extricutes horself from it as raps a ways getting "thrills," and has de-pense paints about realing in particu-lar, which she fundes are scandalous. Though she is now brought out for the first time, she has so long brought herher own. She is so hopelessly de-ter and dull when with her mother that the latter is quite surprised at her access for she hears her praises from any quarter to which she herself has as affinity. Whatever her dress allow she specific exceeds it .- London

The Girl We Like.

The successful girl is usually a popular one, and her popularity is derived trong the fitth things she does and says They may not at the time im-person, but in the end, they

the glid who is popular with men-ted women is the who appreciates the or a that she cannot have the first because of everything in the world. is the call who is not aggressive not does not and joy in inciting ag

Show the girl who never causes pain the definitions to the grade when you havite r rotativ place, compliments you by a pleasant place because she is pleas-

Lause Wraps.
The wraps of toolay do their duty the They are warm and can be uped on and off without any trouble wherever. There is no fear of the un-lea-bette being spoiled, nor does it have two or three people to help us the garment we wish to put on, the this we may think the Japenson, for it is the kimono that has inand the base, comfortable gar-They are ween alike for evenand marriag often bordered with maid embronlery. They are bethe tarthe shoulders and confine the one nowhere. Tweed is the fabric was wear. There are always embroidy somewhere and drooping ends of dute in popularity. tome is in the count line.

Morro colleges is one of the loveliest comparatively inexpensive mate-

As well cases come in the form of a interest publick of good size. On the ever is the inscription, "Love laughs Houses of heavy handspun lines.

phistren and cuffs of heavy al-will be exceedingly smart this and drooping chain are shown and end in gold with coral balls me cloth, useful for trimmings white and green, white and cand white and black. the pour nots for the bair. It takes ith lets of beauty and dash to But on the right person has an positively fascinating. Profty among his chatchines to fasor the ting enamelled watches to the valst is one that represents a four-cived clover. This is enamelled to spreamt the real leaf and has an opal Very large, sprawling leaf patterns on that are made to order. The transport adjoinable buttons - oftenest transfer effects on a white ground or