

The Chatham Record

BIBLE THOUGHT
—FOR TODAY—
Bible thoughts memorized will prove a precious heritage in after years.

Defraud Not.

For this is the will of God . . . That no man defraud his brother in any matter.—1 Thessalonians 4:3-4.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

A fertile soil is the basis of good farming.

Rev. G. W. Perry, of Carthage, has been here on a visit to relatives.

Mr. Julian Gregory, of Newton, was a visitor here during the holidays.

Mrs. W. R. Gilbert, of Siler City, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Z. V. Self, in Charlotte.

Misses Ashley and Bessie Poe, of Cammock, have been spending the holidays with Mrs. Mattie Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Duncan, of Rocky Mount, spent the holidays here with relatives and friends.

The moving pictures by the Welfare workers have been discontinued in Chatham for the present, at least.

A thunderstorm in January is something unusual. One happened here last Sunday morning. But it is the sunny south, you know.

The power of the press goes into the kitchen! Several newspapers under the oilcloth on the kitchen table make the oilcloth last longer.

Work on the splendid new store building of Mr. S. D. Johnson is moving along rapidly at present, and it will be an imposing structure when completed.

Mrs. Nathaniel Hill has received a letter from Chas. P. Pratt, hospital director at Oteen, thanking Chatham county Red Cross for a box sent to disabled soldiers during Christmas.

There will be services at the Gum Springs Baptist church on the third Sunday, that being January 21st, at 11 o'clock in the morning. There will also be preaching on the third Saturday afternoon, Jan. 20th, at 2 o'clock.

It appears that it is rather a difficult matter for The Record to get our splendid friend, Oiler Johnson, married to the right girl. Be it a matter of record that he married Miss Mozelle Bryan, a splendid young lady of Chatham county.

Near Silk Hope last Friday while several young men were arguing a certain question, Oiler Johnson was knocked in the head by one of the party, who made his escape. Johnson was severely cut and Dr. Chapin was called in to dress the wound.

Mrs. Henry A. London and Miss Carrie Jackson have returned from a visit to Mrs. Fred Jerome, Goldsboro, Mrs. J. H. Anderson, Fayetteville and Mrs. J. H. Cordon, Raleigh. Since returning home Miss Jackson has been confined to her room from illness.

We are reliably informed that little Miss Ailen Eubanks, daughter of R. P. Eubanks was struck by the automobile, in the recent collision between two cars, instead of being hit by the tire. The little girl has suffered from an injured limb, but is much better now.

Remember the registration books for the election to be held on the issuing of bonds for the new school will close on the 27th. Don't let that matter escape you. Register and vote. If you can't vote, don't register. It will operate against a good thing, indeed if you register and then fail to vote.

Mr. Henry F. Durham sent us a letter for last paper that was crowded out. He is full of gratitude to his friends for the nice Christmas he had, as well as the many tokens of kindness that he so frequently receives from friends. Mr. Durham is a "shut-in" and of course appreciates very highly the attention that is given him.

NEWS FROM PITTSBORO NO. 2.

(Received too late for our last issue.)
Pittsboro, Rt. 2, Jan. 1.—Miss Dora Clark spent last Thursday night with Miss Annie Johnson.

G. W. Jones and family visited Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. Ellen Clark last Thursday.

Wade Ferguson spent the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ferguson.

Lacy Webster spent the holidays with his father, A. M. Webster, and J. E. Clark and family visited relatives in Alamance Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Webster and Miss Edna Jones and Ralph Shaw visited Miss Dora Clark Sunday afternoon.

BUDDIE.

SOME NEWS FROM ASBURY.

(Received too late for our last issue.)
Sanford, Rt. 4, Jan. 1.—Miss Lillie Morris who has been nursing Mrs. F. R. Knight returned to her home in Sanford Sunday. We are all glad to report Mrs. Knight much improved. Miss Lucie Knight, who has been with her mother for sometime, returned to Raleigh Sunday.

Mr. A. M. Johnson, who spent the holidays at home, returned to Greensboro Saturday.

Misses Mary McIntosh and Ellen McKennan, of Sanford, and Miss Ethel Herring, of Roseboro, have been recent visitors at Mr. W. B. F. Johnsons.

The following students have returned to school: Misses Margaret Johnson to Goldsboro; Miss Annie Margaret Buie to Jonesboro; Miss Viola Smith to Monticello; Miss Lora Johnson to Kings; and Mr. Monroe Buie to Winston-Salem.

Miss Nettie Johnson has returned to Goldston where she is teaching.

VITAL STATISTICS.

There are in Chatham county 17 persons who have been appointed, one each in four towns and one each in the 13 townships, as registrar of vital statistics. It is the duty of each appointee to report to the state Board of Health at Raleigh the number of births and deaths. The registrar for Pittsboro and Center township is Mrs. R. H. Hayes. She has been trying for sometime to get the registrars of the county to make out an extra report and send it to her as she wants to publish it and show the outside world what a healthy county Chatham is. It would be very little trouble if each registrar would file out and mail her the extra report, and she will thank them if they will do so.

REPORT OF REGISTRAR.

The vital statistics for Pittsboro and Center township, as reported to the State Board of Health by Mrs. R. H. Hayes, for the years 1921 and 1922 is as follows:

In 1921 there were 13 deaths in Pittsboro and 31 births of both races. In Center township, outside of Pittsboro, there were 13 deaths and 71 births.

In 1922 there were 31 white births and 31 colored. There were 18 white deaths and 14 colored. The above includes Pittsboro and Center township.

There were three more deaths in 1922 in the township than in 1921, and nine less births in 1922 than in 1921.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. V. Self, of Charlotte, spent the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Self, on Rt. 4, Siler City and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Gilbert, in Siler City.
