Bible thoughts memorized, will prove a priceless heritage in after years.

Walk in the Light.

Behold all ye that kindle a fire, and compass yourselves about with sparks; walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks which ye have kindled.—Isaiah 50:10.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Have you registered?
Weather report: Court week, fair.
Wheat is growing fine throughout this section of the county.
Mr. Hiram Gerald, of Chapel Hill, spent Sunday with Jamison Glenn.
W. F. Bland and H. G. Beard are sick at their homes with the flu.
Rev. L. D. Pattishall, of Raleigh, was a guest of Rev. J. J. Boone on Monday.
S. D. Johnson, wife and two children are confined to their homes with flu.
Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wrenn, who have been quite sick with the flu, are able to be out again.
Do you want Pittsboro to have a safe school house? Then register and vote for the bonds.
D. W. Stanly, an inmate of the county home, was stricken with paralysis last Sunday and is in a precarious condition.
Fannie, the wife of Levi Leach, colored, died at the home of her husband's parents last Sunday night. She was 23 years of age.
Mrs. J. J. Boone is in Durham at the bedside of Mrs. C. G. Hall, sister of Rev. J. J. Boone, who is quite sick.
Mr. and Mrs. Mike Harris will move to Allendale, S. C., where Mr. Harris is in business, the later part of this week.
In the midst of life we should do our duty—Go and register for the school bond election. Ernest Williams at Brooks & Eubanks' store will take your name.
Mr. George Griffin Lutterloh informed that prior to Jan. 1, 1923, there had been ginned in Chatham county 8,988 bales of cotton. On same date last year there had been only 5,982.
Reports from the home demonstration agents show that 7,093 girls and 6,738 women made a study of food values and the better preparation of food last year.
J. Dewey Dorsett has purchased very attractive and estimable the Mike Harris home on west Salisbury street and will move there in about two weeks. Mr. Dorsett paid $4,000 for this property.
The Ford car of Ex. Campbell, driven by a colored man, became obstreperous on East Salisbury street Monday, and ran into a ditch, bending the front axle and tearing off a wheel. The driver was not hurt.
Monday night was fair and blustery between 10 and 11 o'clock. The wind blew almost a gale. About 11 o'clock clouds scattered across the heavens and for a few minutes snow fell thick and fast.
What has become of the Chamber of Commerce? Have some or all of them been most in some of the muddy places around town and cannot be found? Time for some active work, let's wake up and get together for action.
Herman Avery Wade, representative for Chatham county, is in Pittsboro where he will present the advantages of the Volume Library to the people. It is a most complete fund of information an d-school help to be found in any publication.
Her many friends will be glad to learn that Mrs. W. R. Thompson, who has been confined in a hospital in Durham for three weeks, is on the road to recovery. Her baby was buried at Loves Creek Baptist church cemetery on Friday, December 12th.
The wife of Henry Rives, whose home is at Jonesboro, died last Saturday and was buried Sunday at Asbury. She was a daughter of Bright Burke, at Asbury, and was a kind and loving wife and mother. Her many friends will be pained to hear of her death.
Mr. Henry May will present a picture show at the court house in Pittsboro tonight, (Thursday) and it promises to be full of interest and information throughout. Don't fail to see the pictures. Again next Thursday night, the pictures will be given in the court house.
Archie Womack, colored, a Spanish-American war veteran, died at his home north of Pittsboro Monday. It is said he had the flu and was thought to have recovered. While walking around his home on Monday, he dropped dead.
Remember the registration books for the election to be held on the issuing of bonds for the new school will close on the 27th. Don't let that matter escape you. Register and vote. If you can't vote, don't register. It will operate against a good thing, indeed if you register and then fail to vote.
One of the large hogs killed and reported to our office this season was that of a Duroc raised by Ed. Harris, of the Silk Hope neighborhood that weighed 520 pounds. However, our townsman, Carl Phillips killed one that weighed 590 pounds.

On January 11th, the stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bright, leaving them twin girls. The little ladies weighed 8 and 9 pounds respectively, and they have been named Zetta May and Retta Grey. Mr. and Mrs. Bright live on No. 5, Siler City.

If there is a piece of local news that you know of and we have not printed it in this paper, we would have been glad to have had it, if you had sent it in. Phone or send us the names of your visitors and the visitors in your neighborhood. We want to print all the local news, but without your assistance, it is physically impossible to get it.

MRS. E. E. WILSON PASSES.
Wife of County Commissioner Died in Hospital in Raleigh.
Bonsal, Jan. 16.—Mrs. E. E. Wilson died at Mary Elizabeth hospital in Raleigh on January 12, after an illness of three months, aged 47 years. Her death was due to a complication of diseases.
Funeral services were held at Shady Grove Baptist church at 11:30 o'clock Sunday morning, Jan. 14, being conducted by Rev. C. H. Norris, former pastor, assisted by Rev. Coy Muckle. The funeral cortege then proceeded to the Maplewood cemetery at Durham, where further services and interment were held at 3 o'clock.
Mrs. Wilson, wife of county commissioner E. E. Wilson, was before her marriage Lela C. Herndon, daughter of Elbert Herndon and the late Margaret Sadie Cheek, of Chatham county. She is survived by her husband E. E. Wilson, her father, Elbert Herndon, three sisters, Mrs. H. B. and W. R. Winston, two brothers, Clyde E. Herndon, of New Orleans and Claude N. Herndon, a prominent druggist of Greensboro.
Of a singularly, unselfish disposition she gave herself in service to all with whom she came in contact, ever active in the Lord's work, being president of the W. M. U., of Shady Grove Baptist church, leader of the R. A. S. and a loyal Sunday school teacher and former president of the W. M. U., of the Raleigh Association.
Her influence will remain and her memory be an inspiration to larger service to the many lives that were touched by her in these past years. Her radiant personality and the loving spirit that gave herself unsparringly to meet the needs of others has been removed to a larger sphere.
Of her it can be truthfully said: "None knew her, but to love her, None named her but to praise."
This being proven by the many beautiful floral designs that covered the grave.
Our deepest sympathy goes out to the bereaved.

PERSONAL NOTES FROM BYNUM.

SAVES "FLU" VICTIM WITH VAPOR REMEDY.
BRAME'S VAPORMENTHA SALVE
WILL NOT STAIN THE CLOTHES
Trained nurse saves life of sixteen months old baby. "It made me very happy to save the little one," writes Mrs. H. E. Pell, a trained nurse of Denver, Colorado, in a letter to the manufacturer of Brame's Vapormentha Salve, an adjuvant in the treatment of croup and pneumonia, telling how she saved the life of a sixteen months old baby who had pneumonia after influenza.
"The baby was turning black and almost dying. I rubbed some of the salve on the baby and it improved very rapidly, in fact, so rapidly that the attending doctor was greatly astounded as he had given the child up."
Mothers everywhere would do well to profit by the experience of this trained nurse and keep a jar of Brame's Vapormentha Salve in the medicine cabinet ready to combat the nightly spasmodic croup attacks and to prevent pneumonia.
Price: 30c. 60c. and $1.20. For sale by Pilkington Pharmacy, Pittsboro, and all dealers.
Or will be sent post paid on receipt of price from Brame Drug Company, North Wilkesboro, N. C.
