

PITTSBORO NOTES

News of a Local Nature Gathered Here and There--Personal Mention

Vote for bonds on Feb. 10.

A. C. Ray, W. F. Beard, Ernest Farrell are all down with colds

Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Johnson have been confined to their home with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dezern, of Raeford, spent the week-end here with relatives.

Mr. Joe Hammock is able to be out again after wrestling with the flu a few days.

Senator James L. Griffin and Mrs. Griffin spent the week-end at home in Pittsboro.

Only two more days to register for the school bond election. Don't put it off. Go now! Today!

Mrs. Sam Griffin was taken to a hospital in Sanford on Monday for treatment. She is much better.

Dr. W. I. Stockdon, of Glendon, and Lynn Tysor, of Harpers Cross Roads, spent Monday night with W. T. Johnson.

Wylie Clark, brother of Rufus Clark, died at the county home last Tuesday morning. Mr. Clark had been an inmate of the home for the past seven years.

A new school building means everything to Pittsboro now. The land has been bought, now we need the building. Go and register today and let's vote for it.

Mr. Mike Harris had to postpone his trip to Allendale, S. C., last week on account of sickness in his family, three of his children being down with the flu.

We are requested to announce that a pie supper will be held at Moses school house on Saturday night, February 3rd, and that everybody will be welcomed.

Charles A. Brown, one of the main supports in the office of the Record, tumbled to old flu on Monday night, and is still nursing the ailment at his home on Fayetteville Avenue. He is improving.

Cotton is higher in Pittsboro than it has been in the past two years. It sold in Raleigh this week at 28 and a half cents, and at Sanford at 28 cents. The market here is 27 and a half.

Many cases of flu have been reported all over Chatham, but very few fatalities, those occurring being mostly among colored people. The disease has about spent itself and all the sick are convalescing.

R. C. Dismukes, at Saxapahaw tells us in a letter that he cannot do without The paper. He sends remittance along to pay his subscription up to June 1924 and also enough for the Progressive Farmer and the Southern Agriculturist.

T. S. Richardson, of Mattapan, Mass., sends in his renewal and says he does not want to miss a single copy of the paper. He states also that he is sending a book under separate cover to be delivered to Mr. Durham. We shall be glad to deliver it upon arrival.

A negro man, living a short distance from Pittsboro, whose name we were unable to learn, came very near cutting off his left thumb Monday, while trimming a wedge with a very sharp axe. The axe glanced, striking the hand at the base of the thumb, making a very painful wound. Owing to the fact that Dr. Chapin was in bed sick, the man drove on to Moncure before he could get medical attention.

Under date of Jan. 20th, Master Willie Morgan, who left employment in The Record office, to become a Page in the Legislature, writes us: "My private secretary has gone to her uncle's funeral and I will attempt to thank you for the papers you have sent me since I have been in the Legislature, myself. I sure do enjoy them, and I hope everything is alright in Pittsboro. Thanking you again for the papers, I must close as I have some important matters to attend to."

Ernest E. Williams, the registrar, can be found at the store of Brooks & Eubanks, and he will gladly place your name on the registration books. You cannot vote for the school bonds if you are not registered. You want to be sure to register and then you want to be sure and vote for the school. We must have a new building and now is the opportune time to get it.

Last Monday Roy Eubanks was shot twice, in the leg and thigh, by Mrs. Lonnie Cooper. The shooting occurred in the shop of Atwater & Lambeth at Bynum. Three shots were fired from a pistol, only two taking effect. The shooting seems to be the result of an old score. A few months ago, some unpleasantness occurred between Mr. Eubanks and Mrs. Cooper, and at the time he was threatened by Mr. Cooper and Mr. Eubanks had a warrant issued, placing Mr. Cooper under a peace bond. While at his work in the shop on last Monday, Mrs. Cooper approached Eubanks with the result as above stated.

Remember the registration books for the election to be held on the issuing of bonds for the new school will close on the 27th. Don't let that matter escape you. Register and vote. If you can't vote, don't register. It will operate against a good thing, indeed if you register and then fail to vote.

Register today.

Don't overlook your opportunity to get the Progressive Farmer and The Southern Agriculturist for one year, with this paper for only $1.75.

TO HAVE A BOX SUPPER THERE Still Some Cases of Flu at Corinth--Local and Personal.

Corinth, Jan. 22.—Sunday at Corinth was a fine, large day; warm and bright overhead and dry under foot—everybody out enjoying the fine weather. About a dozen cars motored on down to Buckhorn, and many more on up to see the steam plant works at Brickhaven.

Mrs. D. A. Clark continues on the sick list. She has given up her work at the Cross school.

Mr. T. V. Sexton, of Buckhorn, has been "down and out" with flu 10 several days.

Mr. A. M. Fuquay finished his work at Buckhorn last week. He and his bride will make their home with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Womble.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Johnson, of Pittsboro, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Clark.

Miss Mable Holland and Mr. Ray Cross were the Sunday guests of Miss Carrie Lee Cross.

We have been informed that Mr. R. S. Ashworth, formerly of Corinth, has left the A. N. Johnson Company, and that he and Mr. S. E. Fish will open up a store of their own at Fuquay Springs.

Mr. Arthur Woodell, of near Durham, was buried at Christian Chapel last Friday. He died in the hospital at Durham and was brought back to his old home for burial. He was a brother of M. G. Woodell and Seely Woodell, of Corinth.

There will be a box supper at the Corinth school house on Saturday night, Feb. 3rd, conducted by Misses Moore and Johnson, in the interest of school supplies. Some dainty and fancy, but abundantly filled boxes have been promised and we suspect already spoken for. So be on hand early and get what is coming to you before the other fellow beats you to it.

LITERARY SOCIETY MEETS.

Brickhaven, Jan. 22.—The Brickhaven Literary Society held its regular meeting Friday afternoon, January 19th. The leading topic for the afternoon was the life of Robert Louis Stephenson and his works. We were glad to have with us two visitors, Mrs. J. A. Mims and Mrs. Eudora Burt.

Miss Mary Bland spent the week-end at Pittsboro.

Mr. Clinton Seawell visited his sister, Mrs. Gordon at Pittsboro, Sunday afternoon.

We are glad to note that the flu is on the decrease in this community. We have been very fortunate so far, only a few cases.

Mr. W. J. Hannon was seen driving a new Ford Coupe Sunday.

Joe Lawrence spent the week-end with Howard Mims.

Lorne Croom from near Wilmington employed by the Phoenix Utility Co. is stopping at the home of Mrs. J. A. Mims.

The Raleigh-Sanford bus is making two daily trips to the Phoenix Utility Camp.

Mr. Koonce Black is visiting in this community for a few days.

M. A. & L. E.

THE LITERARY SOCIETY MEETS.

Cumnock, Rt. 1, Jan. 22.—The school at Carolina keeps on growing. We have now reached an enrollment of sixty-two.

In spite of the bad weather Saturday night last, the box party at Carolina was very successful.

Mr. Wright, with his string band from Siler City, rendered us some splendid music.

The program began with America by the school and visitors. Then the school gave two short plays, "The Deaf Grandma" and "The Rehearsal," after which the boxes were sold by Mr. T. B. Burke. Following this there were guessing and voting contests, and a fish pond. Then the supper was very much enjoyed by all those who were successful enough to get a box.

400,000 farm families already take the "Giant of the South." If you do not, 50 cents for a year or $1.00 for three years will entitle you to this unprecedented free service in addition to an unbeatable paper twice a month.

SOUTHERN AGRICULTURIST, Nashville, Tenn.

The Giant of The South.

If you want this paper in connection with our paper and the Progressive Farmer, mail us money order or check for $1.75 and all three will be sent one year, and this is good for new or renewal subscriptions. Single subscriptions must be sent to each paper desired, but if you want your home paper and these other two papers send the remittance direct to us. This offer is good for a limited time only and if you want it let us hear from you at once.

6 Per Cent Mortgage Bonds--A Choice Investment

Every person with money to invest is looking for the highest rate of interest consistent with safety. The rate of six per cent is a good yield for investment funds—it eliminates all speculative aspects for it does not take away from the sponsors of the proposition, funds that should be used to stabilize the business itself.

Alamance First Mortgage 6 Per Cent Bonds are backed by First Mortgages on property, the value of which has been ascertained by men who know. The Alamance Insurance and Real Estate Company as backers of these bonds guarantee their safety as an investment.
