News of a Local Nature Gathered Here and There--Personal Mention

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY.

No More War.

Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.—Isaiah 2:4.

Mrs. C. C. Poe is confined to her room from illness.

The small son of W. H. Overacre is critically ill with pneumonia.

Robt. L. Sutphin, Jr., of Huntington, W. Va., is visiting his father.

Mrs. A. C. Ray is confined to her room with a slight attack of appendicitis.

Mrs. H. T. Chapin leaves tomorrow for Leesburg, Fla., to visit her son, George Chapin.

C. S. Melvin, wife and four children, who have been laid up with the flu, are able to be out again.

Squire D. V. Tally, of Goldston, and Terrill B. Beal, of Bear Creek, were visitors in Pittsboro on Monday.

John White, who was taken quite sick at his home near Hanks Chapel last Sunday morning, is improving.

J. A. Thames, of Washington, D. C., secretary to Congressman Lyon, is visiting Mrs. Thames' father, R. L. Sutphin, who is critically ill.

Tommie, the son of the late J. M. Farrell, had the misfortune to get his right arm broken last Sunday, while cranking a Ford car.

Mrs. Beulah Selby, of Aurora, and Mrs. D. H. Dixon, of Goldsboro, are visiting their daughter and niece, respectively, Mrs. J. R. Edwards at Bynum.

H. H. Hackney, who has been so very sick with the flu, is improving now. Three of his children have also been sick with the same disease, but all are better.

Hackney Postoffice no longer exists. The Department has discontinued the office and the patrons of the office are now served by star route from Bynum.

Dr. W. B. Chapin, who has been confined to his room with sickness, has so far improved that he is back on his job again, alleviating other people's troubles.

T. A. Clark, a former Chathamite, who left this county 20 years ago and moved to Durham to live, died in a hospital there last Tuesday from Brights Disease.

Mrs. John Allen Thames of Washington, D. C., and Miss Irene Sutphin, of Oteen, are at the bedside of their father, Robt. L. Sutphin, who is quite sick at his home.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Linder, Sunday, January 28, a daughter, Mrs. Linder before marriage was Miss Myrtle Poe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Poe, who are now grand parents, young as they are.

Elsewhere in this paper will be found an advertisement from E. E. Dillard, for an auction sale of horses and mules in Pittsboro on Monday, Feb. 5th. If you need stock be on hand and get first choice.

In a letter from B. D. Wilson at Aberdeen, he says that after his subscription run out to the Record last year he decided he could do without it, but he finds that he misses it so much that he sends along another check for $1.50 for another year.

The ladies will give a box party at Mt. Pleasant school house next Saturday evening, Feb. 3rd, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. Ladies invited to come and bring boxes. Everybody welcome. The proceeds of the party will go to the benefit of the parsonage.

Mrs. J. C. Harmon and family have asked us to express their appreciation to the people of Chatham county who have been so unusually kind to them during the sickness of mother and father. They express their deep gratitude for the many acts of kindness to them.

We are requested by Mrs. R. H. Hayes, chairman of the health department of the Woman's Club, to state that the regular monthly meeting of the Club will be held with Mrs. William Hunt tomorrow, (Friday) afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Every member is urged to be present.

We are in receipt of an announcement of the marriage of Miss Lola Geneva Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Cox, to Mr. Hayden Perry Lindsey. The marriage was on January 19, at Asheboro. The young couple are at home 517 west first street, Winston-Salem, N. C.

S. D. Johnson, postmaster at Pittsboro asks us to state through the columns of our paper that people who have presented war savings stamps at his office, for payment, need not be alarmed because of the fact that they may not have received their checks. He has received a letter from the Central Accounting Postmaster at Greensboro stating that he was doing his level best to get checks out, but owing to the tremendous amount he was handling which runs into the millions, the people would certainly confer a favor on the postmasters over the state, if they would be just a little more patient. Every cent will be paid very soon. We presume the same condition prevails with all the postmasters, and it will be well for our citizens to govern themselves according to the above facts.

Ex-Sheriff J. J. Jenkins, of Siler City, made a short visit to Pittsboro Wednesday.

Don't stop to think about it, but go and vote for school bonds. According to J. J. Blair, director of school house planning, North Carolina will build 800 new school houses this year and next. Each building is not to cost less than $30,000. Pittsboro hopes to get her share of this money, some $25,000,000, to help her build her new school building, but don't let that stop you from voting for school bonds February 10.

Within the next few days Pittsboro's postoffice will be moved to the new store that is nearing completion on the corner of Hillsboro and Salisbury streets, being built by Mr. Sike Johnson. The office will be in the north section of the new brick building, and will be finished with a view to service as well as comfort and convenience. In addition Mr. Johnson says he will grade the walk and put down cement in front of the building and make it as convenient for the public as possible. The move will be made immediately as soon as the building has been put in shape, and the finishing touches are being added to the splendid new structure now.

DEATH OF MISS MITCHELL.

New Hill, Rt. 2, Jan. 29.—The hearts of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mitchell were made sad Monday night, January 22, when the dear angel entered their old home and claimed their oldest daughter, Sadie Mitchell, who was about ten years of age.

Sadie had been sick most of her short stay on earth, having spent several weeks in a hospital in Durham. Her disease was pronounced incurable and she was brought home and gradually grew worse until death relieved her suffering.
 She was laid to rest in New Elam cemetery January 23. Funeral services were conducted by Mr. T. F. Carr.
 To the family we extend our heartfelt sympathy.
 She has gone to be with Jesus, in that happy home above;
 Ne'er again to know a sorrow,
 But eternal joy and love.
 A. T. W.
