BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY.

The First and The Last.

I am the first and the last; and besides me there is no God. * * * Is there a God besides me? yea, there is no God: I know not any.—Isaiah 44:6-8.

The local Red Cross Chapter of Siler City is in receipt of a letter of thanks and appreciation from the mayor of New Bern, for donations sent to the fire swept city.

A local merchant in Pitt county is running a 2400-egg incubator for a local stock company. Farmers can have their eggs hatched for 3 cents each, reports W. B. Pace the county agent.

Friends of Miss Mary Wrenn will be pleased to know that she is improving most satisfactorily from her recent operation and will be able to return to her home the latter part of this week.

William W. Justice and Nelson Biddle, of Philadelphia, will arrive in Siler City this week to spend a few days hunting on their preserve. They will spend the time in the home of Mr. J. E. Fox.

Don't get uneasy if you have sent us an order for the Progressive Farmer and The Southern Agriculturist, in combination with our paper, if you do not get these papers in a week or two. We only send these subscriptions away on the first and fifteenth of each month, and then it is sometimes a week before they are started. You will get them a full twelve months after they are started.

Rev. R. H. Willis, presiding elder of the Fayetteville district, preached two sermons in Siler City Sunday, that received only the most favorable comment. At the morning service his subject was Peace, using as his text, "Thou shalt be a repairer of the breach." At the evening service his text was, "Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling" from which he developed the theme of religion as a business.

We have received notice from The Progressive Farmer and The Southern Agriculturist that they cannot offer us the combination much longer. Remember at present you can get our paper and both The Farmer and Agriculturist for only $1.75 a year. Act quickly if you want them. The offer is likely to be withdrawn any time. Tell your neighbors about it and you will be doing him, and ourselves both an accommodation. Push it along.

We have a letter from an admirer of the paper who relates that he is a reader and is well pleased with it. At present he is not a subscriber, and does not want us to think that he is trying to steal it from us. He says he wants it and will pay us later if we will send it. We are starting the paper this week, and it does not matter whether he pays or not. He is a hard working farmer, has a large family and is an honest citizen. We admire him a great deal more than we do the man that is able to pay for it, stands around and tells the folks that it is not worth a cuss, and yet be the first to read it every week.

Dr. Maddy Here Next Sunday.

Remember that Dr. Chas. E. Maddy, corresponding secretary of the State Baptist Convention, will preach in the Siler City Baptist church next Sunday night at 7:15 o'clock. The public is invited to hear him.

NEWS FROM SEAGROVE SECTION

Seagrove, Feb. 12.—We are real glad to hear that aunt Polly Buckner is improving. We want to thank all who were so good and kind to her during her illness.

Monroe Enquirer. Uncle Silas says different boosters have different viewpoints. The Rev. Billy Sunday claims to be saving thousands of souls every year, while Henry Ford with his tin lizzies is shaking hell out of a million every day.

THE SILER CITY CIRCUIT.

O. I. Hinson, Pastor.

Some people in North Carolina have been charged with not having sense enough to keep out of the rain. That charge is not applicable to Chatham county folks, especially on Sunday when it comes to attending Sunday school and church. Mr. J. A. Moody had placed a good supply of dry wood in the Hickory Mountain church and it was easy for the pastor to get a good fire going, and the church was soon good and warm. For one whole hour, from 10 to 11 o'clock he had the church to himself, and then one lone man came in, and the fellowship was most pleasant. But where were the ninety and nine? The flock was scattered and the shepherd needed helpers. In our Lord's mind there were ninety and nine that safely lay in the shelter of the fold, and only one was off on the mountains wild and bare.

The wise man said that he who refuses to plan by reason of the cold, shall not reap in harvest time. But the New Testament says we shall reap what we sow. Self-indulgence and laziness are sins today as in the days of Jesus. Some people do not care if hell is to pay, provided it is not collected at once. The devil's chloroform is the denial of sin. But the soul of reform is the reform of the soul. Your life is a sermon to others; what kind of a preacher are you?

The pastor's heart is made sad when he gets a card saying there was no Sunday school.

Miss Kate Vestal is in Baltimore this week buying stock. Before returning to Siler City, Miss Vestal will visit friends in Atlanta, Ga., and Dr. Frank Wrenn, at Anderson, S. C.
