

STILL THE LIST GROWS DAILY.
Paper Has Many Friends Who Are Willing to Help.

Since our last issue we have gotten quite a few new subscribers to the paper, as well as some of our old friends renewing. Those on the honor roll this week are as follows:
Eli B. Brewer, W. M. Ferguson, Mrs. W. F. Bland, Miss Emma Kate Burns, W. J. Hackney, J. H. Watkins, John Brooks, Ed. S. Phillips, G. R. Pilkington, J. C. Langley, L. D. Johnson, A. J. Norwood, Isaac Ferguson, C. G. Sharp, Nettie Burnett, G. D. Burke, W. A. Glenn, C. C. Hamlet, R. L. Ward, C. Coy Teague, Yancey Neal, W. U. Richardson, W. G. Womble, Morning Herald, W. A. Copeland, W. J. Phillips, E. H. Petty, I. D. Darnell, T. R. Green, J. B. Atwater, Rev. R. R. Gordon, D. E. McIver, J. W. Griffin, Elias Stuart, Miss Maggie McClennahan, H. C. Farrell, Mrs. Gertrude Reynolds, L. T. Webster and W. W. Lutterloh.

In the above list is a subscriber who has lived in Chatham county for more than half a century and has never before subscribed for the paper.
Last week we asked our present subscribers to make an effort to get their neighbors to take the paper and as a result we have received several new ones this week. We appreciate this and we want all of you that are now getting the paper to make an effort to get at least one new subscriber for us before the first of April. Just a little help from each of you will mean a great deal for us. Do your best.

We are receiving encouragement all the time. We have received a number of nice letters since last week. Lady from Goldston says, "can't get along without the paper." H. L. Barber in a letter says, "I cannot afford to be without your paper." W. G. Womble says, "change my paper to Staley, don't want to miss it this week." E. B. Brewer, T. B. Beal, W. A. Glenn, W. U. Richardson, Ed. S. Phillips and others write nice letters.
In addition to the letters J. W. Griffin, W. A. Copeland, W. A. Roberson, C. W. Thomas, G. G. Lutterloh, H. C. Farrell, W. W. Lutterloh and others have told us verbally that the paper was the best it has ever been.
Push it along folks. We shall do our best to make the paper better all the time, and we do like compliments.

OBJECT LESSON FOR ANYONE
Hundred Year Old Colored Woman Decides on The Bank.

The Raleigh Times, Feb. 17.

Slings a shining milk can from under her shawl "Aunt Katie Jordan," who in spite of her activity and bright eyes claims to be a hundred, showered 155 silver dollars on the desk of Ed. Crow in the Commercial National bank Saturday. The brightest and shiniest dollar of them all was one dated 1887. For thirty-six years Aunt Katie has been hiding her silver hoard in the "chist," but the recent Simpkins' Garage fire set the old woman thinking and she decided that after all maybe the bank could take care of her savings better than the old "chist."

The paper money that Aunt Katie has been able to save from her work, washing, ironing and cooking, she has deposited in the bank, fearing that it might be burned, but the silver she kept in her little cabin safely hidden.

"What made you bring it to Mr. Crow?" someone asked.

"Lawse I been knowin' Mr. Ed. evah since he was er little boy. I knowed he'd tak keer uv my money," the old negro woman answered with confidence.

Mr. Crow smiled. "Aunt Katie used to bring me good things to eat when I was sick," he said.

"How old are you, Aunt Katie," she was asked.

"I don't know zactly, but I's over a hundred. My birthday comes just befo George Washington's. I wuz done a grown 'oman befo de Mexican Wah," she replied. Her wrinkled skin and white hair alone testifies to her advanced age, for she is still active and her eyes are bright. She has all the deference and politeness of the old time negroes with a srting loyalty for "her white folks." She was a slave in the family of Robert Harrison. She lives somewhere near the rock quarry, though she was unable to say on what street.

While the "chist" has safely guarded Aunt Katie's little hoard of silver dollars from fire or theft, it has nevertheless robbed the old woman of more than half of her little fortune. If Aunt Katie had begun depositing her money in the bank when she first made that bright shiney dollar in 1887, the amount would have been more than doubled by this time and instead of $155 there would have been over three hundred dollars to her credit besides the paper money which she has from time to time been willing to trust to Mr. Ed's keeping.

AVOID THE PENALTY TAX.

More Facts About Income Tax Returns on March 15.

To avoid penalty, income tax returns must be filed with the collector of internal revenue for the district in which the taxpayer lives or has his principal place of business on or before midnight of March 15, 1923.

Where additional time is required because of illness or absence of the taxpayer from home, the collector may grant, upon application before return is due, March 15, an extension of not to exceed 30 days. If an accurate return cannot be made within the 30 days extension period, a request for a further extension must be made to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C. Collectors have not authority to grant an extension exceeding 30 days.

Failure to make a return on time subjects the delinquent to a penalty of $1,000 and an additional penalty of 25 per cent of the amount of tax due. If the failure is willful, however, or an attempt is made to evade the tax by filing a false return, the offender is liable to imprisonment and to a fine of not more than $10,000 and costs, in addition to a penalty of 50 per cent of the amount of tax evaded.

When You Know Us and We Know You

WHEN YOU COME into this bank, whether you are a depositor or a depositor-to-be, we want you to know that you are on "friendly ground."

IT IS only by knowing each other, and knowing the things we are both trying to accomplish that we can work together for our best mutual interests.

YOUR business is not only important to you, but it is important to us. We are always glad to see you, and whenever you think we can be of assistance to you—come in! You will never find us too busy to take an active interest in anything that concerns your welfare.

WE MAY make mistakes at times—who doesn't? But when we do, you have only to tell us, and we will be glad to make amends for any failure on our part to give the kind of service to which you are entitled.

OUR PRESENT depositors are our most loyal helpers. In fact, it is their enthusiastic co-operation which has done more than anything else to build up this institution.

WE WANT you, too, to be so pleased, (more than just satisfied) with the way we have served you, that you will want to bring your friends here as well.
