BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY.

A Sure Guide.

Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in Him; and He shall bring it to pass. Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for Him.—Psalm 37:5-7.

W. S. Durham is confined to his room on account of illness.

Miss Mallie Dowdy, of Kimbolton, was a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. William Covert.

Chalmers Stout and Tom Dark will return to Chapel Hill today after a visit to home folks.

Rev. and Mrs. O. I. Hinson, Misses Vera Campbell and Myrtle Williams spent Monday in Durham.

How did the wind strike you on Friday morning when the mercury was only 10 degrees above zero?

Miss Christine Judd, a member of the high school faculty, was a recent visitor to her home at Sanford.

Trust men, and they will be true to you; thret them gently, and they will show themselves great.—Emerson.

Fred W. Burns, the efficient manager of the Farmers Union Store at Goldston, was here on business Saturday.

Paul Stout, who is making his home in Mt. Airy, is spending a few days with his mother, Mrs. Rosa Stout.

Grady Patterson, Milton Small and John Dorsett, students at Wake Forest, spent the week end with their parents.

Misses Sexta and Ann Hanner have returned from a visit of several weeks to their sister, Mrs. Charles G. Jones, Gaffney, S. C.

Joe Boling, who is a student at Bingham Military school at Asheville, was a recent guest of his sister, Mrs. K. G. Clapp.

Mrs. Mary Hester died at the home of her son, L. B. Hester, at Goldston, Saturday and the remains were taken to Kernersville Sunday morning for interment.

Miss Kara Lane left Monday for a business trip to Washington and Philadelphia to purchase additional millinery for the establishment of Miss Kate Vestal.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Teague with their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Edwards, of Danville, spent the week-end in the home of E. M. Edwards on Ore Hill, Rt. 1.

County agents in North Carolina conducted 23,165 crop demonstrations on 70,973 acres last year. Chatham county has no farm demonstration agent, and was therefore denied these advantages.

Clayton Richardson has moved his family to Greensboro, at which place he has been employed for the past month. Dr. J. D. Gregg and family will this week move into Mr. Richardson's bungalow on Samuel street.

A total of 3,058 farmers were helped by county agents to home-mix their fertilizers in 1922, saving $31,055.00 on 17,416 tons. As Chatham county has no demonstration agent, our farmers were the losers in this process.

Rev. G. C. Phillips and son of Bear Creek, were here Saturday enroute to Southmont, to which place they were going relative to Mr. Phillips accepting a call as pastor of a number of Baptist churches of that community.

Quite an improvement has been made in the walks about the depot by the placing of pulverized granite on them. We only wish that other sections, especially those walks so recently deep with mud, could receive a like treatment.

A number of young ladies of the Methodist church will hold a Colonial reception at the church this evening at which time they will also render a program. Admission to this affair will be only by tickets, which have already been sold.

Friends of Guy G. Dark will be interested to know that he underwent an operation for appendicitis last Saturday at a Greensboro hospital and will wish for him a speedy restoration. He was accompanied by Mrs. Dark and Dr. J. D. Edwards.

The Valentine party and supper given by the Ladies' Aid Society at the Methodist church on Tuesday night of last week, was a decided social and financial success. The young folks furnished music, a good time was enjoyed and a net profit of $48. was realized.

There will be a United States revenue agent or deputy collector in Siler City tomorrow and Saturday, and in Pittsboro on March 7th and 8th, to assist anyone in making federal income tax returns. A penalty is attached if you do not make your return before March 15.

Miss Bessie Caviness returned Monday from the northern markets where she purchased her Spring stock of millinery and ready to wear. Miss Caviness has decided to remain in business in Siler City, and has enlarged her stock to a great degree. It is the most complete line, says Miss Caviness, that she has ever carried and the styles and quality of the materials are equal to those that can be secured in the larger cities. She has an ad in this paper.

Garden Seed from Congressman Pou have not arrived as yet, but those who have mailed letters and made inquiries will be supplied upon their arrival.

J. F. Lambe left Monday for Enville, Fla., where he will visit for two or three weeks his son, E. M. Lambe. At Greensboro Mr. Lambe was joined for his southern trip by his brother, S. J. Lambe.

Deputy sheriff George Pickett, assisted by chief Harris of Siler City, made a high score last Thursday night when they captured and brought in one of the largest stills ever operated in this county, having a capacity of 80 gallons. The outfit, cap, still, worm and all being of copper presented a feast for the eye of a would-be blockader. In addition to the outfit the officers emptied 1,500 gallons of beer, just ready for the final process, into a ditch. The raid was made two miles southwest of Siler City.

PARKER—LINDLEY.

Miss Lois Lindly, he attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lindley, and Leslie Parker surprised their friends by driving to Bennettsville, S. C., Monday, Feb. 12th, where they were married. They stopped at Clarkton, N. C., where they will reside at the home of Mr. Parker.

SOCIAL MEET THURSDAY.

Misses Beulah and Luta Headen delightfully entertained at a bridge party last Thursday evening from 8 to 11 o'clock.

The spirit of Valentine was most effectively carried out in the decorations and refreshments, the last consisting of a nut and fruit salad, wafers, hot coffee and mints.

The guests were Misses Thelma Spier, Emily Thompson and Joyce Edwards. Messrs Paul Reitzel, Welford Headen, C. B. Winn and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Clapp.

TWO CLASSES ARE ORGANIZED.

Two domestic science classes were organized by Mrs. O. I. Hinson last Thursday and begun active work on that date. These classes are being taught by Mrs. Hinson, who is a graduate of the Boston Cooking school. The meet was in the basement of the Methodist church. Twenty-eight women and girls have enrolled in this school and are thus availing themselves of a rare opportunity to become more efficient housekeepers. Mrs. Hinson is most generously giving her time to this work, receiving no compensation whatsoever, the tuitions going to the church building.

As Good As It Looks

A glance at this beautifully proportioned two passenger four-cylinder roadster is an invitation to get behind the wheel.

The speed and power suggested by its graceful lines and low-hung body are fully realized on the open road. And its ease of manipulation and instant response to the throttle insure unusually satisfactory behavior in traffic.

It is roomy and comfortable for two people. It contains every convenience for easy, restful motoring in any weather.
