BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY.

Real Peace.

Wisdom's ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace. Proverbs 3:17.

Mrs. E. H. Jordan went to Greensboro Monday to visit friends.

S. J. Marley, of Greensboro, spent Sunday here with his family.

L. B. Maness, of Spies, was a business visitor in Siler City last week.

Miss Martha Buie returned Monday from a short visit to relatives in Sanford.

Mrs. W. F. Womble, of Greensboro, was the guest recently of Mrs. Junius Wren.

The garden seed are here and we will be pleased to give them to all who may call.

A farm without records is like a clock without hands, running, but gives no information.

Mrs. W. H. Tear, of Durham, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. T. D. Bynum.

Mrs. Harley Fox returned to her home at Sanford after a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Harris.

Miss Joyce Fox, who is in school at Sanford, recently visited her mother, Mrs. Louis Fox near Siler City.

J. S. Wren, who has been associated with the High Point Bending Chair Co., has resigned his position.

Mrs. H. G. Harris and daughter, Margaret, have returned from several days spent with relatives in Burlington.

S. J. Lambe, of Greensboro, spent several days here with relatives upon his return with J. F. Lambe, of this place, from a trip from Florida.

With things so high, the farmer who puts out a good grade for this summer is likely to be well repaid, even though he may sell nothing from it.

Farmers in Perquimans county recently sold a large shipment of soy beans cooperatively through the efforts of County Agent L. W. Anderson.

Elton Stout, accompanied by his friend, M. L. Read, of Asheville, came home from State College to spend Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Rosa Stout.

W. D. Poe, who lives north of Siler City, has returned from Greensboro where he went to see his son, Roscoe Poe, who is critically ill as a result of blood poisoning.

A. S. Fields and family have moved from their bungalow on Greensboro street to a new home built on land recently purchased from J. A. Stone south of Siler City.

Quite a number of subscribers have sent in renewals since we corrected our mail list this week and a number of new ones received. The labels will show the credit next week.

Mrs. Baxter Finnisson, of Pinehurst, who recently underwent an operation at a Fayetteville hospital, is spending two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Henry W. Fennire, east of Siler City.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Alston and little daughter have moved in to the cottage recently occupied by George Brooks and family, coming to Siler City from their farm east of town.

H. J. Aik who is an experienced store decorator of Baltimore, is rearranging the stock of C. L. Brower & Company's store, which when completed will present the appearance of an up-to-date department establishment.

A letter from friend Glosson at Bonlee is encouraging. It gives us pep for greater efforts, when he says, "you are a live wire in Chatham county, and you have done lots of good work for the upbuilding of our great county."

Friends here of Mrs. Olive Webster are pleased that she has returned here to live. She has moved into her property on Greensboro street and will spend her week-ends here while she continues to travel in the interest of the state insurance department.

We highly appreciate a letter we received this week from J. J. Morwood, at Bear Creek, in which he says: "I want to congratulate you upon the splendid paper you are getting out. I think Chatham county ought to be proud of it."

We have sent notices to all our subscribers, whose subscriptions expire in February. We hope to hear from every one that is now taking the paper, because we don't want to stop a single copy if the subscriber wants it. Look at your label and if your subscription has expired let us hear from you at once. After this week all papers will be discontinued that have not been renewed.

One of our republican friends from Bennett has sent us a suggestion for candidates in the next election for several of the county offices. The letter is alright but has no signature. We have a rule that we must know the author of a letter before we print it, therefore we will have to ask the writer, "O Henry," to let us know his or her name before we can publish the letter.

The sweetest type of heaven is home—J. G. Holland.

C. N. Bray has been confined to his home for several days suffering with his throat. We are glad to report his improvement and hope to see him out soon.

Mrs. Sankie Jordan spent Sunday here with her sister, Mrs. Lydia Campbell, enroute from a visit to relatives in Moore county. She was accompanied on her trip by her daughter, Mrs. A. D. Dorsett.

The chimneys to the old Mathews property, now owned by J. C. Gregson, have been torn down and are this week being rebuilt. A new porch has also been built to this the oldest house in this entire community.

Mrs. Olive Webster, representing the state insurance department, will be in Siler City this week making arrangements for the observance of the clean up program, which is to be held in North Carolina this year the first week in April.

The thirty-third annual session of the Woman's Missionary Union Convention of North Carolina, auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention, will be held in the auditorium of the First Baptist church of Durham on March 27 to 29th.

This is an outstanding event in the calendar of the Baptist women of the state. Their multifarious church activities head up this meeting.

Durham being in the central section of the state and easy of access, the largest delegation in the history of the convention is expected.

LADIES MUST NOT READ!

If she had to stand on her head. We know she'd get it someplace. This poor soul she has already read it. Now well wagger ten cents to a farthing. If she gets the least bit of a show. But you bet she will find it out some-how. If there's anything worth a woman's attention she ought not to know it.

MARRIAGE OF POPULAR COUPLE

Friends and relatives in Siler City were surprised Saturday morning to learn of the marriage on Friday evening of Mr. Tatum T. Elkins and Miss Alma Lambert, which occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stone, the ceremony being performed by Mr. Stone, who is justice of the peace.

Mr. Elkins is the son of Mr. James Elkins who lives on Siler City Rt. 3, and is a young man of sterling qualities and pleasing personality. His bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. Thomas R. Lambert and is a most attractive young lady, numbering her friends by the score.

Mr. and Mrs. Elkins will live at the old home place of the late Frank Jones.

SEEING TO IT.

A friend writes us that Bennett beats the band for babies, and asks us to broadcast warning to those having no desire to multiply and replenish, to keep their distance. Our friend says the new human arrivals in and around Bennett run one to three a night, and that Earl Brown, community all round utility man, has not had a good night's sleep in weeks, he has been so run for doctors, medicines, nurses, cooks and washer-women.

Here are only a few of the new ones: Mr. and Mrs. John Powers, boy; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cox, boy; Mr. and Mrs. Levi Caviness, girl; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brady, girl; Mr. and Mrs. Noy Bray, boy; Mr. and Mrs. Millard Browne, girl; Mr. and Mrs. Newton Hicks, girl; Mr. and Mrs. Graham Scott, boy; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lambe, girl.

Get Wise, Friends!

Every week, in every way, we are trying to convince the buying public of Chatham county, that the most profitable and economical thing to do is to buy the best in the grocery line and vegetables.

We have a nice, fresh stock at all times of vegetables, fruits, country produce and staple and fancy groceries. We make our prices at a low level and we want everybody to give us a call and be convinced of these things.

Our business for the past year has greatly increased, and we made many new friends. There are, however, a few who are not now trading with us, and we want them to share the opportunities with our old friends. Come to one of our stores and save money on your purchases.

A cordial welcome awaits you at all times.
