

PITTSBORO NOTES

News of a Local Nature Gathered Here and There--Personal Mention

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY.

God's Good Gifts.

The Lord will give grace and glory—no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.—Psalm 84:11.

The next step is All Fool's Day—April 1.

Miss Mary Bland visited home folks Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Daniel L. Bell is out again after a siege with the flu.

Charlie Hudson, of Hamlet, has been here on a short visit to his family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hatch, of Raleigh, spent the week-end with Mrs. Clara Calvert.

Miss Audrey Johnson, after visiting her parents near Pittsboro returned to Raleigh Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Neal and Mrs. E. Rieggsbee, of Bynum, visited Mrs. T. M. Bland Sunday afternoon.

William Hunt, a student at the University, spent the week-end with his parents, Capt. and Mrs. Wm. Hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Warren, of Raeford, spent the week-end in Pittsboro, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hinton.

The Chatham Motor Company sold some 25 cars during January and February. Two car loads of new Fords came in last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Poe, Mrs. W. A. Poe, Mrs. W. J. Atkins and Miss Minnie Cook, of West Durham, visited Mrs. T. M. Bland Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Victor Johnson on Saturday night, March 3, 1923, a daughter, Eleanor Winfrey. Mother and daughter are both doing fine.

C. Bryan Haynes and Miss Mary Smith were married in Greensboro last week. Mrs. Haynes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Smith, of Oakland township.

The old stables on the A. B. Clark property in the rear of the county jail has been torn down. The old Headen house, bought by L. N. Womble will be moved on the site.

Mrs. Nannie Belle Oldham, who was born and reared near Goldston, was married in Sanford last week to Wm. L. Foushee. Mrs. Foushee has been residing in Greensboro for several years.

Bishop Cheshire will be at St. Bartholomew's church Sunday, March 11th at 11 o'clock. He will confirm and preach. All are welcome. Lenten services Friday night, March 9th at 7:30.

Miss Olive Webster, representing the state insurance department was in town Monday making arrangements for the observance of clean-up week, which is scheduled this year for the first week in April.

Rev. R. C. Gilmore, of Sanford, will preach in the Presbyterian church in Pittsboro next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and Rev. C. L. Wicker, of Gulf, will preach in the same church Sunday night at 7:30.

A large crowd came to Pittsboro Monday and Tuesday, some to attend court and others through curiosity. The Record got its share of visitors and new subscribers. We are always glad to have our friends call.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Eubanks, of Raleigh, are here on a visit to their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Eubanks. They will leave the last of the week for Greensboro, where Mr. Eubanks has accepted a position with the O'Henry Drug Company.

Mr. Grady Campbell and Miss Lyda S. Oldham were happily married in Pittsboro last Saturday. Squire Jno. R. Blair tied the knot that made them man and wife. The young couple have the good wishes of the community and hope for them a long life of happiness.

J. J. Johnson & Son have added a line of ready-made clothing to their stock of goods, produced by Schloss Bros. of Baltimore. This clothing is guaranteed and it will no longer be necessary to leave Pittsboro to get this brand of clothing as the Johnson firm will carry all sizes.

W. N. Everett, of Rockingham, has been named as one of the members of the advisory board for the Confederate reunion to be held in New Orleans next month, and Hon. H. M. London, of Raleigh, has been confirmed as one of the trustees of the University at Chapel Hill. Two mighty good appointments.

Representative Jesse Miliken, of Monroe, was over in Chatham a week or so ago and he and his father, ex-sheriff John R. Milliken, went turkey hunting. It was a cold morning but the two were in luck, killing two very large gobblers. One weighed 24 pounds and the other 28.

Miss Lillian White, of Washington, D. C., has accepted a position as clerk in the dry goods department of J. J. Johnson store. Miss White has had many years experience in the dry goods business and is an artist in that line. She is a native of Chatham and is well known, having been with C. L. Brower Co., in Siler City for a long while prior to going to Washington.

The garden seed are here and we will be pleased to give them to all who may call.

Hon. Willie Morgan, representing (as page) Chatham county in the legislature, has returned home.

Mrs. H. A. London, who has been on a visit to Mrs. James H. Cordon, Raleigh, and Mrs. Fred Jerome, Goldsboro, has returned home.

Quite a number of subscribers have sent in renewals since we corrected our mail list this week and a number of new ones received. The labels will show the credit next week.

We have sent notices to all our subscribers, whose subscriptions expire in February. We hope to hear from every one that is now taking the paper, because we don't want to stop a single copy if the subscriber wants it. Look at your label and if your subscription has expired let us hear from you at once. After this week all papers will be discontinued that have not been renewed.

The Service Garage is the name of a new establishment located in Pittsboro, in the building formerly occupied by Tatum & Lanus. Mr. Henry May is the proprietor and will be assisted by his brother, Mr. George May. These young men are good workers and need no introduction to the public. They will do a general repair business and furnish good service to the public.

With things so high, the farmer who puts out a good garden for this summer is likely to be well repaid, even though he may sell nothing from it.

The Discovery of Chiropractic

Within the last quarter century, which has been beneficial to mankind at large, but none more so than the Drugless Health Science of Chiropractic, it has helped hundreds of thousands of sick people and will likewise help you if given a chance. See a competent Chiropractor today. Consultation and Spinal Analysis FREE.

What is Chiropractic? Chiropractic is the Science of Common Sense applied to the human machine, and the art of adjusting the machine when it is out of order. It is the Science of Health, and the art of removing the cause of disease. Every effect must have a cause. Disease is an effect. If you wish the effect to cease, get a Chiropractor to adjust the cause.

Now Listen, Folks!

Agreeable to our announcement for the past two weeks in the papers, we are now on a strictly cash basis. Business conditions and opportunity to give bigger and better values for the money, have demanded this action.

We are stocking our store every day with the most dependable goods the market affords and we can save you a good per cent on every purchase you may make.

Buy for cash and save the difference. No use in your helping pay the other fellow's bad debts. We want all our customers to call around and take advantage of the opportunities that we are offering.

Yours to Serve,

L. N. WOMBLE,

PITTSBORO, — — — NORTH CAROLINA.
