PE-RU-NA

For Coughs, Colds and Catarrh

Mr. E. W. Marshall, Brampton, Michigan, suffering from Systemic Catarrh involving Head, Nose, Throat and Stomach, claims a complete cure. His letter is convincing: "For the past two years I have been troubled with systemic catarrh. I used several boxes of Pe-ru-na tablets and they have effected a complete cure. I do not hesitate to recommend Pe-ru-na for all catarrhal conditions."

Mr. Marshall is just one of many thousands who have been benefited by Dr. Hartman's famous medicine in the past fifty years. It is by stimulating the digestion, enriching the blood and opening up the nerves that Pe-ru-na is able to exert such a soothing, healing influence upon the mucous membranes which line the body. It is a wonderfully effective remedy to restore strength after a protracted sickness, the grip or Spanish Influenza.

IF SICK, BILIOUS! START YOUR LIVER

Don't Take Calomel! "Dodson's Liver Tone" Acts Better and Doesn't Grip, Salivate or Make You Sick—Don't Lose a Day's Work—Read Guarantee!

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work. Calomel is mercury or quicksilver, which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated, or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson Liver Tone tonight. Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

WHY Blotting Paper Is Capable of Absorbing Water

Everybody knows that if a piece of blotting paper is dipped edgewise into a saucer of water the water will climb up the paper to a height of some inches above the surface, but few can tell the reason it does so.

Capillary attraction is the name for this power which causes water to rise in an absorbent substance, and the baffling part of it is its apparent simplicity.

This is just one of those natural puzzles that our greatest scientists cannot solve—yet. Its real nature is no more understood than is the real nature of electricity.

But although we do not know what it is, capillary attraction is a most useful force. It holds the ink in a pen nib and in a fountain pen. By its aid the melted wax in the little crater round a candle-flame rises in the wick to keep the candle burning. So, too, the liquid flows up the wick of an oil or spirit lamp.

Were it not for this force, clothes would become "bone dry" directly they were lifted out of the water. A great many of the automatic lubricators for oiling machinery depend entirely on capillary attraction for their action; and a sponge retains the water in its pores by the same means.

Capillary attraction has been suggested as a means of attaining perpetual motion, and some very ingenious devices have been put forward. All, however, have been proven futile by the laws of mechanics.

Finally it is owing to capillarity that soil is able to retain a large part of the moisture it receives as rain, thus preventing the country from becoming an arid desert.

MEASURE MUST BE PERFECT

Why Precise Degree of Accuracy Has to Be Maintained in So-called Standard Bars.

For most of us the knowledge that a meter is 3.37 inches longer than a yard is quite sufficient. We must know as much as that, because the metric system of measures is so widely employed that one constantly finds it necessary to turn meters into feet or yards. But the refinements of modern science demand a far higher degree of accuracy in measurement than is perhaps ever dreamed of in the ordinary walks of life. The pains taken to obtain precise standards of measure are almost beyond belief of one who is not familiar with scientific methods.

Everyone knows that so-called "standard" bars, on which the exact length of the yard and the meter are marked, are in the possession of the governments of the United States, Great Britain, France and other countries, but everyone does not know with what care these standards have been compared and with what patience they have been minutely measured again and again.

Why Priest Dislikes Horses.
"The curse of my life," said the Rev. Father Duffy, chaplain of the Sixty-ninth New York regiment, according to the New York correspondent of the Cincinnati Times-Star, "has been cavalrymen for colonels. A horse is something I can respect but never love. I once scandalized General Pershing by telling him that I thought Henry Ford made better horses than the Almighty did. Every colonel I ever saw has put me on a horse and made me miserable. I went to one of them in France, lame and crippled, to make a modest protest, and he told me just to keep on riding and I'd be all right. Later that colonel told me I was ruinin' th' uniforms of the regiment and wearin' out th' knees of the men sayin' mass on a graveled parade ground. 'Why not have the mass somewhere else?' asked the colonel. 'Let you all stay on your knees,' said I; 'it'll do you as much good as it does me to stay on that horse.'"

Why Styles in Tanks Change.

Storage tanks with a smaller diameter and greater height are an important factor in decreasing evaporation, according to a Texas oil company, now busy installing the newer design. The smaller surface of the tank, it is claimed, overcomes to a large extent the usual loss from this cause. Another special feature in the construction is the arrangement of sixteen incoming pipe lines, which are run down the inside to within a few inches of the bottom. This method serves to lessen the evaporation which would otherwise occur with the surface being constantly disturbed by the flowing in of oil at the top. The tanks are nineteen feet high, have a diameter of ten feet, and hold about 10,000 gallons. The old construction, it is estimated, resulted in a loss of about 20 per cent of the contents.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Seems to Disprove Theory.

Cold, miserable, hungry-looking, bedraggled and disconsolate, the tiny little kitten meowed piteously; hurrying throngs passed by on their way to work; some cast a pitying glance at the poor creature, but of the dozens that went scurrying on none stopped. At last there came a girl, wearing the costume of a flapper. An instant she hesitated, then, grabbing up the soiled feline, marched into a lunchroom and bought that little outcast a pint of half-and-half. And yet there are learned and distinguished statesmen who evince doubt as to whether or not women have souls.—Washington Star.

Nervous Baby Cried Almost All the Time

Babies have nerves just the same as grown people, and sometimes a very slight ailment will make them fretful. They can only express their feeling by crying, which often becomes very distressing. Mrs. Ernest Compton, Route 1, Kennesaw, Ga., had such a baby, and says:

"My baby was very nervous and restless and cried almost all the time till she was six months old. Then I began giving her Teethina and she is now as good and sweet-tempered as she can be."

Teethina not only relieves stomach and bowel troubles, but quiets the nerves without the use of opiates or other narcotic drugs.

IMPRESSING HIS BEST GIRL

Plumber Felt He Had a Right to Be Proud of His Important Family Connections.

He was quite evidently a plumber, and as he sat with his "best girl" back of the Woman upon the bus he explained that he had been working a little harder lately—the cold weather made them work harder in those buildings which were unheated and in which they were putting the plumbing. It was different in the summer, when the buildings were restfully cool.

And then the bus passed by the big "mansions" on the drive.

The plumber began to boast. Pride is so curious a thing.

"My dad," he said, "had the contract to put in the plumbing in almost every swell house in this city. Yep," he continued boastfully, "he's got the finest lot of customers you'd ever find."

And the girl whispered happy and proud admiration of the splendid family into which she was about to marry.—Chicago Journal.

Why Farmers are Turning to for Economical Transportation

In 1922 Chevrolet jumped from seventh to second place in sales of all cars, and to first place in sales of fully equipped modern cars.

Purchases by farmers were the chief factor in this remarkable development.

Farmers want automobiles not only of low first price, but also of low later cost for operation and maintenance.

They want room, comfort, and the ability to stand up under hard conditions.

They find that Chevrolet, fully equipped as sold, is the best value per dollar in the low-priced field, and neighbors tell them it costs less per mile to operate.

COMPLIMENT THAT RANG TRUE
Little Indianapolis Newsboy Proved He Had His Share of the Wit of His Race.

She is one of Indianapolis' most agreeable and attractive young business women, who has fallen into the habit of bringing all sorts of presents to a little Irish newsboy who sells papers not far from the News office. The other evening she brought him a pair of warm gloves, and he racked his little Irish brain for suitable thanks for her.

And finally they came with a true Irish compliment. "Lady," he said, "I'm glad the likes of you is an old maid. If you were married and your boys sold newspapers on this street, and hein' anything like yourself, the rest of us kids would have to go out of business."

The business woman says that was the best compliment she ever received.—Indianapolis News.

MERELY USED AS A PARABLE
Individual Cited as Example of Carelessness Existed Only in the Imagination of Minister.
At the little church the minister, a colored man, announced that he regretted to state that a certain brother had retired to rest the night before without locking the door of his fowl house, and on rising in the morning had found that all his chickens had disappeared.
"I don't want to be personal," he added, "but I hab my suspicions as to who stole dem chickens. I shall be glad if the man who took dem will not put any money in the box when it is passed round, and then I shall know if dose suspicions are right or not."
Every one present contributed.
"Now, breddern," announced the minister. "I don't want your dinners spollt by wonderin' where dat brudder lives who don't lock his chickens up at night. Dat brudder don't exist, mah friends; he was a parable for the purpose of finance."
