

PITTSBORO NOTES

News of a Local Nature Gathered Here and There--Personal Mention

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY.

FREE FROM WANT:—The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.—Psalm 23: 1.

Spring is here. Glory be.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Coley Oldham, March 13, a son.

Mrs. William H. Ward has returned from a visit to relatives in Durham.

Arthur H. London, Jr., of U. N. University, is spending part of week with his parents.

Mr. Roy Beard, of Hargrove, has been here on a short visit to his parents.

Mr. H. M. London and son came over Sunday from Raleigh and spent the day with his mother.

The groundhog came out of his winter quarters last Saturday, his forty days of bad weather being over.

Miss Lessie and Mr. Jeter Clark, of Raleigh, spent the week-end with their parents, Z. C. Clark, at Bynum.

Miss Elise Maie Butts, of Lillington has accepted the position of stenographer for the law firm of Siler and Barber.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lindley have moved into one of the vacant houses on Masonic street. They formerly occupied the old Bynum house.

Haw river at Bynum was higher Tuesday than it has been for several years. It fell 15 inches during Tuesday night and is now nearly normal.

Mr. Walter Johnson and bride have returned from a 10-day trip to Florida. They are housekeeping at their new home on West Salisbury street.

Pittsboro was visited by several electrical storms Monday night. Much rain fell and the creeks were away out of their banks.

Miss Maie Poe, of Raleigh, and Mrs. Paul Dezem, of Raeford, came Saturday to spend the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Poe.

Mr. John Dezem and wife, and Mr. Paul Dezem, of Raeford, spent Sunday here with relatives. Mrs. Dezem will remain here a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Cecil H. Lindsay.

Prof. John Yonan, an Armenian, will preach at the Methodist church at Pittsboro next Sunday at 11 a. m. on the near East relief. Go and hear him.

Mr. Jasper N. Hamlet is seriously sick at his home four miles northwest of Pittsboro. Mr. Hamlet was paralyzed about four years ago and never has recovered from the effects of it.

The Ford car in which Mr. J. T. Henderson met his death Monday night, was brought to Pittsboro Tuesday and placed in a garage. It was badly torn up.

Pittsboro people had to do without their Sunday Greensboro News. The bag containing the papers was thrown from the train at Moncure and the wheels of the cars cut the papers and other mail to pieces.

It will be interesting to our local readers to know that during the first eight days of March, this year, the money order funds of the postoffice were $812.00, while the same days last year they were only $387.50.

We are requested to ask why the difference in prices of cabbage. At one store in Pittsboro there is a charge of 6-1-2 cents a pound. At another store it is 7 cents, and at one store the price was 8 cents a pound. Again we ask, why the difference, when they are all shipped from the same point.

The merchants of Chapel Hill are going to have a fifteen-day sale in the near future. Each merchant puts up a certain article to specialize on. Wouldn't it be a good idea if the merchants of Pittsboro would get up something on that order?

In the Harper land sale, which took place last week, J. A. Woody was one of the lucky men who bought pretty building lots. Besides the three lots in town he bought 13 at the Houghton place. Five of these lots face Goldston avenue and eight on West street extension. Mr. F. P. Nooe bought the Houghton home place.

A great windstorm passed over some of the Southern States Sunday night doing considerable damage to property. Twenty people were killed and 75 wounded in Tennessee and at one town in that State 50 dwellings were blown down. Here in Chatham we had a heavy rainfall but very little wind.

Clerk of the Court J. Dewey Dorsett was a much surprised man a few nights ago when a few of his friends came to his home at night and pounded him unmercifully with kitchen and table ware of all kinds and many other things. He thought the party had mistaken him for a preacher and they had gone into the wrong house. He wishes to return his thanks.

Mrs. Walter Thrift, formerly of Hadley township, died at her home in Saxapahaw Wednesday of last week and was buried Thursday at Brown's Chapel. Mrs. Thrift was the daughter of James Jones, postmaster at Mandale, and was a lady of gentle, Christian character. She leaves a husband and five children to mourn her death. Mr. Thrift recently moved from Chatham county.

BENNETT LOCAL NEWS.

March 12.—I am glad to give the progressing facts of what this little village and the surrounding vicinity doing in the way of farming, riding and trading.

The Bennett Motor Company has in the last six months sold in their territory 10 Ford tractors, order to deliver four more, sold 45 new Ford touring and runabout cars and a tremendous lot of gas and oil.

The cash market cross ties and lumber buyers here have bought and shipped for the last six months, 92 cars of lumber, close to two million feet, estimated to be worth $50,000. Also 175 cars cross ties, average 280 ties per car, 50,000 ties, estimated over $2,000; seven cars red cedar over $2,000; at the least for the amount turned loose for these shipments amounts any way over $100,000.

At the present date there are on the railroad sidings 50 cars cross ties; 30 cars of lumber ready to work and ship. This report is not an imposing one, it would seem small for some of our larger villages but we think it is good for this little town.

Mr. J. M. Scott and grandchild, Louise Murry, made a visit to Mr. Scott's relatives at Greensboro last week, returning Friday.

Mrs. B. C. Routh, Mrs. Hal Routh, and Miss Lelia Burns visited and went shopping to Greensboro last week.

Mrs. C. E. Jones having been visiting her parents at Randleman, also taking lessons on trimming ladies hats, returned Monday. Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Ed. S. Phillips have put in a millinery department in the new furniture store, they will also run a ladies sewing department in connection with their ladies hats, etc.

Mrs. J. Earl Brown has put in a ladies hat store near Yow and Brown store building.

A Mr. Garret, of Virginia, who has visited the old country—Europe—and Jerusalem, for four months, is expecting to visit this place next Saturday and Sunday and the Baptist church has invited him to lecture at their house of worship at 2:30 p. m., Sunday, March 18th. This lecture is expected to be an interesting talk to those of us who have read in the Bible about the old Christian lands and their condition at present. Everybody is invited to come out and hear him. The devotional services will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. J. C. Kidd.

Next week we will give a history of our town, business enterprises, merchants and the number of homes, and the number of people that live in Bennett.

Introducing to the FASHIONABLE WOMEN OF THIS CITY

a Complete New Line of the Famous Dress Creations of Peggy Paige

For many years this store has made a policy of bringing to you the very latest and most modish fashions of the day. In line with this policy it affords us pleasure to announce the introduction of a complete collection of smart dresses for the new season, fashioned by the famous Peggy Paige. Each of these dresses is an individual design. Look, indeed, through the fashion pages of your favorite magazine—Vogue, Harper's Bazar, The Ladies' Home Journal. Note the current style tendencies, observe the modes most favored by Paris. You will find them everyone represented in these charming new creations of Peggy Paige.

Here are the ravishing fabrics, in the glorious new shades, dresses in the perfectly charming lines now so much the vogue—others, too, with a dash of the fanciful—clever, youthful, the precise expression of the current fashion. Yet the prices are very, very moderate, averaging but very little more than for ordinary dresses worn by everyone. Surely, before choosing a new dress, you will view these latest creations from Peggy Paige. It will assure you of the utmost in style and satisfaction throughout the season. These dresses, we might add, are being shown exclusively in this establishment.

Saturday is St. Patrick's day.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Connell are both confined to their rooms with flu.

Mrs. Z. C. Clark and daughter, Miss Iola, were shoppers in Raleigh Monday.

The Square Filling Station, recently built on the courthouse square and West street, owned by Dr. W. P. Chapin and Walter Johnson, is now ready for business. Watch for their ad in next week's Record.

Mr. H. L. Koontz, of Greensboro, who was one of the attorneys in the Fogleman will case in court last week stopped with his uncle, J. S. Wrenn, during his stay in Pittsboro.

Those who can do so should hear Rev. J. J. Boone at the Methodist church next Sunday night when he will preach his sermon on "The Soul of the Bible." Mr. Boone a short time ago preached on "The Body of the Bible" and this is a relative sermon.

Mr. Floyd Hendley, of Iredell county, is now linotype operator in our offices, setting the type for both the Herald and The Record. Mr. Hendley is a splendid young man and comes highly recommended to us both as to ability and character.

Schafer's Old Plantation Days is a show that is located in Pittsboro for the week. Those who have attended say that the show is a good one and is furnishing amusement for all those who attend. The show is of the minstrel and comedy type and will give mirth to those who attend.

Mr. Henry A. Bynum is expecting Mr. J. E. Burke here this week. He is manager of the Atlantic branch of the J. I. Case T. M. Co., and is coming to Pittsboro to make arrangements for installing Case tractors and automobile supplies for Chatham county and other territory covered at present by Mr. Bynum.

Rev. R. C. Gilmore, of Sanford, preached Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church to a large audience and was listened to with much attention. His sermon was a very fine one. At the evening services at the same church Rev. C. L. Wicker, of Gulf, filled the pulpit and delivered an able sermon. Mr. Wicker was at one time pastor of the Presbyterian church in Pittsboro.

The commissioners of Stanly county, have done a good thing. They have appropriated money to buy a ticket for every Confederate veteran in the county who wishes to attend the reunion at New Orleans. Will the commissioners of Chatham do likewise?

A few of the old veterans of Chatham may attend the Confederate reunion at New Orleans April 10. The rates over the railroads will be one cent a mile each way.

We have a letter from Mr. Henry F. Durham in which he states that he is greatly improved of the painful tubercular hip, after wearing a plaster cast for several months. He will go to Burlington shortly where Dr. Walker will remove the cast and determine the condition of the diseased joint as to whether it will be necessary to place another cast or not. Being governed by the doctor's advice he has been closely confined but through all the weakness and stubborn pain from the disease he has been patient and he asks that the believing Christians remember him in his prayers.

TO GET NEW ROAD.

Chatham and Alamance Commissioners Meet Jointly.

Burlington, March 13.—A meeting of several members of the board of county commissioners and interested citizens was held jointly with commissioners from Chatham county at Center Methodist Protestant church near Sutphin's mill Saturday to consider the matter of inducing the State highway commission to construct a public highway from Graham to Pittsboro. A large number of interested citizens residing in that section of Alamance and Chatham were present. The program of the conference included a delicious dinner, served by women of the community and the discussion of plans by which the State highway commission may be prevailed upon to build the proposed Graham-Pittsboro road. Committees were appointed by the joint meeting of commissioners to get the matter before the State highway authorities and ask them to investigate the proposition. A real fight for the proposed highway is expected, as the citizens are in earnest about the matter.

NEWS FROM OAKLAND.
