LESSON OF THE WOODPECKER.

From the North Carolina Christian Advocate.

Use your head. We have the facts and the "poetry" to prove that it is the thing to do. The woodpecker is responsible for the facts and "The Shreveport Gusher" fathers the "poetry." Here it is: "A woodpecker pecks out a great many pecks. Of sawdust when building a hut, He works like a nigger to make the hole bigger, And he's sore if his cutter won't cut. He won't bother with plans of cheap artisans; But there's one thing can rightly be said, The whole excavation has this explanation— He builds it by using his head."
