NOTES FROM NEW ELAM.

New Hill, Rt. 2, March 12.—Miss Jessie Ferguson spent the week-end at her home at New Hill.

Miss Ronnie Jones spent the week-end with Miss Minnie Johnson.

Mrs. Lacy Thomas had a birthday dinner Sunday, the 11th. She was 25 years old. Her mother and all her brothers and sisters were present. It was thirty-two that enjoyed the nice dinner. Everyone seemed to enjoy it and wished for her many more happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jones, of near Seaforth, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson.

Mr. Robert Goodwin spent the week end with Mr. Freeman Gunter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Moore, of Moncure, Miss Mary Olinger, of Sanford, and Miss Lillian Olinger were callers at the home of Mr. R. L. Moore Sunday afternoon.

Miss Minnie Johnson has returned from a visit to her Uncle's on Apex, route 3.

Miss Janice Carr visited Miss Blanche Partin Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Jim Travis and children, of Haywood, were callers at the home of W. F. Olinger Saturday afternoon.

Ray Goodwin spent Monday night with Clarence Durham.

Mr. John Bland was a visitor in the home of W. F. Olinger Sunday.

Mr. H. D. Jones now occupies the farm house of Mr. G. F. Carr.

Mr. Moody Womble visited Mrs. John Bland Sunday.

We are very glad to know that Mrs. John Bland is recovering from a bad spell of grip.

Ask Your Soldier Boy How "Cool" Got Such a Hold.

He'll tell you that the battleships of Europe were swarming with rats which carried the dangerous vermin and caused our men misery. Let rats bring disease into your home. When you see the first one get it. SNAP. That will finish them. Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold guaranteed by Siler City Drug Store, The Hardware Store, Siler City, and L.
