CANNON WAS BORN IN N. C. Claud Kitchen Once Called Him "The Czar of the House."

"Uncle Joe" Cannon, formerly speaker and for many years member of the United States House of Representatives, today filed his birth certificate with the State Board of Health of North Carolina.

Mr. Cannon took advantage of the birth certificate act of 1913, which allows persons born before that date to file records with the State board.

Both his parents, Dr. Horace Frank-lin Cannon and Mrs. Gulielma Hol-lingsworth Cannon, were born in New Bonlee, and Miss Ollie M. Pike, of route 1, Siler City.

Mrs. J. B. Foushee was carried to a Greenboro hospital Monday for an operation.
