There are only 193,881 veterans of the Civil War on the pension roll.

Mosul, the center of the rich Mesopotamian oil fields, is 70 miles from a railroad.

New York has passed a law prohibiting the scaling of skyscrapers by so-called "human flies."

Prince Gelasio Caetani, Italian ambassador to the United States, was an Idaho miner 20 years ago.

Secretary of Labor Davis was at one time an iron puddler employed in the rolling mills of Birmingham, Alabama.

In British New Guinea has been discovered a new metal, "Osmiridium," which is said to have eight times the worth of gold.

The students in the Berlin "Students' Home" are so poor that three have to share one suit of clothes and attend classes each in turn.

Alaska has produced nearly half a billion dollars' worth of minerals, and 97 percent of this has come from her deposits of gold, copper and silver.

Among the famous inventions of the Chinese are the following: The compass, printing, lithography, suspension bridges and gunpowder.

Belgium is supporting 17,016 war orphans, of whom only 9,700 are the children of soldiers killed at the front, while 8,900 are the offspring of fathers who as civilians were shot by Germans.

Pulling trains day after day is very hard on locomotives. More than a fourth of the locomotives in the freight service are either in the "engine hospital" or awaiting their turn to go there.

A bottle consigned to the sea off the coast of Japan by the navy department of the Japanese government April 13, 1921, was found on the shore of Tillamook, Oregon, not long ago. It is 4,700 miles from Oregon to Japan in a direct line.

One third of the earnings of the German husband must be given to the wife to maintain the family table. That is the German law. This one-third income is not to meet wages of servants or rent but merely to cover the expense of keeping up the table.

A United States marshal was taken ill with appendicitis while taking an Indian accused of murder from Fort Gibbon to Fairbanks, Alaska. The Indian prisoner placed the officer on the sled and mushed more than 100 miles with him to a hospital, where an operation was performed.

During the calendar year 1922, there were 84 earthquakes strong enough to be felt by the unaided senses, in various parts of continental United States. These earthquakes occurred chiefly in California and in a section of the Central States.

No fewer than 46,000 families are in Vienna without a place to live. They cannot rent even one room, because since 1913 not one house has been built in Vienna, which is now the poorest city in the world. In some cases four or five families live in one small room.

A traveling court, consisting of 25 sheriffs, a prosecuting attorney and a justice of the peace, has set a new precedent in law enforcement by setting up a court at the scene of arrest, in Clay county, Missouri. They travel into the hills where the judge sentences the bootleggers and owners of stills.

A whistling buoy lost from the St. Lawrence river a year ago, has been washed ashore on one of the Scilly Islands, just off the southwest coast of England, 3,000 miles from its starting point. The only injury was found to be confined to the gaslight case which had been wrenched from the top of the buoy.

Under present conditions the timber supply of this country will be exhausted in between 40 and 50 years, according to the chief forester of the Department of Agriculture. Pine timber is being cut eight and one-half times as fast as it is being replaced, while hardwood is being cut three and one-half times as fast.

If troubled with rats about the chicken house, garage, barn or garden, fasten a length of hose on the end of the exhaust from your gasoline engine—whether automobile or tractor—back the car up within reach of the rat burrow and adjust the carburetor for a rich mixture. Pack damp earth about the hose at the entrance to the hole to seal it and run the engine at a moderate speed for 10 minutes or more and the rats will be destroyed. It might be tried successfully in destroying rats beneath floors where a concentration of gas can be obtained.

Federal Court in Session.

Federal court was in session in Raleigh last week. One young man from Wake county, only 17 years of age, was sent to Atlanta for three years. It was his second offence. A sentence of one year and a day was imposed on George Thompson, a Chatham county negro, convicted of using the mails to defraud. Ed Cotton, an Apex negro, was fined $100 for making and selling whiskey. J. Loyd Cain was fined $50 and costs for making a small quantity of wine.

The question has been asked, "can a person make wine on his own premises for his own use." The Record does not know and leaves the question up to more wise people.

HENDLEY'S COMMENTS

Bits of Opinion Noted.

GET THE MEN TOO.

Chatham county is building up an unenviable reputation for blockading. In the last session of Superior court of this county about 40 percent of the cases in which a verdict was reached were for violation of the prohibition amendment and at the same time Sheriff Blair is gaining a name as a prohibition enforcement agent that will strike terror into the hearts of moonshiners.

What Chatham needs, what many counties already have, is a special officer, a Federal prohibition enforcement agent and we would like to announce right here and now that in our humble and inconsequential opinion this same Sheriff Blair would fill that position to perfection. A war on moonshiners and bootleggers, a fearless and unrelenting war without quarter, must be waged if the honor and good name of the county is to be upheld and the war should not stop with the capture of a still once in a while, but the operators should be taken along with the stills, and unceasing effort exerted until they have been convicted and sentenced.

Another thing that should be insisted on in this county is that the minimum of five dollars required by law as a reward for the destruction of a still should be given the men who fail to bring in the operators along with the still and the maximum of twenty dollars should not be paid to men until they effect the capture of the men who operate the stills. If such a ruling should be passed in this county it would save the tax-payers a good many dollars monthly for instead of twenty dollars being paid out every time a man goes out and destroys a still, making little or no effort to take the men who run it, they would receive the princely sum of five dollars for that little episode and they would be much keener to secure the capture of the men who are making the stuff if they knew that it meant fifteen dollars more in their pockets.
