THE CAROLINA EXERCISES

Program Greatly Enjoyed by a Large Audience.

Cummock, Rt. 1, July 2.—The Children's Day exercises held at Carolina the fourth Sunday was an enjoyable event. The children deserve praise for their nice recitations and dialogues. They were well trained and held the audience enthused from beginning to end. The song service also was good, being in charge of Mr. C. T. Dezern. The Sunday school offered a prize to the best girl and boy speaker, Dr. J. D. Gregg, Mr. Mark Burns and Prof. W. H. Tyler being the judges awarded the prizes to Mr. Colon Burke, a box of stationery, little Miss Mary George Blair, a box of chocolate after which Dr. Gregg presented them a check to get each a medal for this distinction. At the noon hour a long table was set in the grove and everybody satisfied the inner man. At the afternoon service Dr. Gregg delivered a great speech, also Mr. A. C. Ray. Both were enjoyed by the audience. The day was thoroughly enjoyed and it is to be hoped each year will bring to us another service such as this. Mr. Ray offers a medal to the best boy and girl speaker next year. The following is the program:

Song by the choir.
Prayer by Rev. O. C. Gravitt.
Welcome address by W. W. Gilmore.
Children's Day, by Shelton Johnson.

Devotional exercises by the Sunday school children.
