FAST, RECKLESS DRIVING.

Bennett Local News and Timely Observations of The Writer.

Bennett, Aug. 13.—Quite a good many attended the beginning of the revival services at Fall Creek Sunday and as usual, there was a large congregation present.

Rev. Colin Strickland of Greensboro is aiding the pastor in this meeting.

The meeting begins at the Christian church in Bennett next Sunday. Rev. Brendol of Coleridge will aid Rev. Mr. Underwood in the services.

The closing of the cotton mills in Greensboro for ten days has given opportunity to many Chatham folks to visit relatives in this section.

Mr. Fred Bray and wife, of Greensboro, visited his parents and relatives last week.

Mr. J. A. Purvis and family made a visit to Greensboro Saturday, returning Sunday.

Mr. Vote Kidd and family, of High Point, were visitors at High Falls Sunday. They lived for a long while in this section before moving to High Point many years ago.

Many people observe the railroad law here. In fact, most of our people stop at railroad crossings. It is a new law that should have been observed by everyone without an act of the legislature. It is dangerous to cross a railroad track unless you know that there are no loose cars or engine approaching. While it may look foolish to some for a person to stop his car on a little railroad like the B. & W., when they have reason to believe no train is about, it's a law and a good one at that.

Officers of Bennett had two parties up last week for speeding through the town. The drivers admitted they were driving too fast—very reckless, in fact. Most every driver speeds too fast at times, and we should all slow up at dangerous places and when we are passing people or conveyances on the road.

We observe that the half mile of road that leads into Fall Creek has not been worked, as yet, and we must say that this is the worst piece of road that leads to a church that we know. We learned yesterday that the owners of the land has offered to give more land on the side of this bad road. We cannot understand why the folks in that section don't take the matter up and work it.

BEN-NET.

HUNNICUTT-KNIGHT.

Raleigh Times.

A romance which had its inception in the office of United States Marshal Ward was happily culminated Thursday afternoon when Miss Lucile Knight, stenographer in the office, became the bride of Deputy Marshal C. H. Hunnicutt. Friday they were in Raleigh on their way to Norfolk, Washington and Baltimore on the wedding trip.

The marriage took place at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon, August 9, at the home of the bride, near Sanford, in Chatham county. Rev. J. T. Stanfield performed the ceremony, with a large crowd of relatives and friends in attendance.

The bride came to Raleigh from Chatham and began her duties as clerk in the Marshal's office at the same time that Deputy Hunnicutt began his work.

Miss Knight is well known in Pittsboro and Chatham county, and has innumerable friends. She is particularly attractive, and is an accomplished young lady.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Moncure, Rt. 2, Aug. 13.—Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Bridges and family, of Sanford, visited in this community last Monday.
