POLLY.

DEATH OF MRS. HARRINGTON.

Mrs. Amanda Harrington died Wednesday, August 29th, at the age of seventy-seven years, after an illness of four months.

She was twice married. Her first husband was Dr. Buchanan, a practicing physician of this community. Two children were born to this union, Mrs. S. W. Harrington and Mrs. C. W. Cross. Her last husband was Mr. Billie Harrington, who preceded her to the grave.

She was a good mother and a good step mother, and always ready to do for her friends and neighbors in sickness or health.

Though death was near, she wore the smile she carried through life—always looking to that which was good and never complaining.

She has for many years made her home at her daughters, Mrs. S. W. Harrington.

The funeral was conducted at her home by her pastor, Rev. Mr. Piland, of Buckhorn M. E. church, Thursday evening, burial following in the cemetery at Corinth.

The attendance was large and the floral tributes were numerous and included handsome designs.

The pall bearers were her step children and grand children, Messrs M. I. Ellis, A. E. Rollins, C. S. Harrington, A. M. Harrington, Hubert Cross and Ray Cross.
