

CHATHAM BRIEFS.

This is mild September.
 Next stop corn shuckings.
 Possum and taters will soon be in order.
 Mrs. Daniel L. Bell is on a visit to Durham.
 Mrs. Charles Young spent last Thursday in Chapel Hill.
 Lime and pastures lead the way to more cows and a creamery.
 Pittsboro and vicinity was blessed Friday night with a fine rain.
 Winter is coming. Keep only those farm animals which pay their way.
 Mrs. Henry M. London and Miss Carrie Jackson have returned home after a visit to Raleigh.
 Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Cross, of Corrothers, spent last Wednesday with Miss Lelia Johnson in Pittsboro.
 Crimson clover, corn, pasture and 35 cows make a good living for a farmer near Liberty, in Guilford county.
 Registered sows and better equipment followed a demonstration with pastures for hogs in Perquimans county.
 Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Way and children, of Thomasville, have been on a visit to friends and relatives in Chatham.
 Young Henry A. Bynum, of Pittsboro, is now sojourning at the A. & C. College at Raleigh. He left last week.
 Mr. J. Dan Dorsett, of Siler City, was returned from the Confederate reunion held in Winston-Salem last week.
 Miss Aileen Burns, who is engaged in hospital work in Richmond, Va., has been here on a short visit to her sister, Mrs. Clyde Bland.
 Half the value of the North Carolina cotton crop goes to feed the farm animals of the state, finds Earl Hostetter of the Experiment station.
 Deputy Farrow brought Robert Scribble, a white man, from New Hopewell Friday, charged with making liquor, and lodged him in jail.
 The boll weevil calls for some positive changes in the agriculture of North Carolina. Small grains, legumes and winter gardens are in order for this fall.
 Mrs. W. B. Chapin has returned from a hospital in Durham, where she was recently operated on for appendicitis. She is greatly improved in health.
 The Chatham County Fair is the place to display the agricultural wealth of your community or of the entire county. What will you add to the display this year?
 Pittsboro high school will open on Monday, October 1st, for the fall term. On account of the new school building not being ready it has caused a delay of a month.
 Don't forget the Chatham County fair. Get up an exhibit and be sure you are there. Pay your subscription to The Record and take a chance at the Ford to be given away.
 Messrs J. H. Thomas and J. B. Thomas, two old Confederates and two of the few that went from Chatham, were at the Veterans reunion at Winston-Salem last week.
 A card received from Mr. F. M. Nash, who is touring the west, states that he climbed Pikes Peak with his wife and ran into a snow storm out here on the mountain. We suppose he is having the time of his life.
 A singing class has been organized at the Hanks Chapel church. Mr. David Egan, of Lee county, is the instructor. Quite a number of the young ladies and young men have joined the class and are taking much interest in the undertaking.
 Mr. S. D. Gilmore went to Durham Wednesday of last week for treatment at a hospital. Mr. Gilmore has been feeble health for some time and hopes to be able to improve in Durham. His many friends in Chatham are hopeful for him.
 Many of our boys and girls are leaving this week for the colleges and universities of the state; some going to the pursuit of education. We shall miss them greatly but wish them our best wishes for a successful year. Many left last week.
 There is an old colored woman named West, who lives near Pittsboro, who is said to be 103 years old. She is almost totally blind and can only see time to be in this old world of ours. She has seen wars, tornados and bushwhackers.
 While driving his car down the main street of Pittsboro Thursday morning, Jack Ramsey lost one of the rear wheels, the axle having twisted off. The wheel made a bee line for the very fast at the time, and it was not until the car was in the street that no one was in the way.
 An oversight the dates on The Record were not changed last week. They should have read September 30th instead of August 30th. Not many people noticed the difference, but we preserve the fact so that those who have the opportunity to change the date with the printer, no, nobody was under the influence of J. Barleycorn, but it was caused by a case of forgetfulness.

The editor and family spent the week-end at his old home in Fayetteville.
 Mrs. Rufus Farrell and children are spending the week in Fayetteville.
 Miss Inez Headen of Siler City, is spending a few days with Mrs. Dewey Dorsett.
 Mrs. C. N. Justice is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Cheek, at Sanford.
 Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Hackney, Mrs. H. C. Farrell, Mrs. Berta Mann and Mr. Ed Hatch spent the week-end in Fayetteville.
 Mr. Rodger Ogden, a medical student at Cornell University, N. Y., spent a couple of days here this week with Mr. Dewey Dorsett.
 Mr. W. A. Snipes, of Frosty, called to see us on last Monday. He spent Sunday night near Browns Chapel, with his sister, Mrs. H. F. Durham.
 Miss Rebecca Crowson and brother, Robert, who have been on a visit here to Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Farrell have returned to their home at Fayetteville.
 Sanford has a firm named Reid & Rush. It is a good firm name to do business under, provided they advertise. People will read their ads and rush to their store for bargains. This is a free ad.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Dezern, of Raeford, stopped over with their daughter, Mrs. Cecil Lindley, Friday night. Mr. Dezern is taking his vacation and is on his way to visit relatives in Reidsville and Danville.
 Anyone desiring to contribute to the relief of the Japanese sufferers, through the Red Cross, will leave their donations with Mrs. N. M. Hill, president of the local Chapter, Miss Azile Hill, or any other member of the local organization.
 Mrs. R. C. Griffin and two sons returned from the mountains of North Carolina Sunday, where they have been on an extended visit. Mr. Griffin met them at Lemon Springs on account of the delay in the train, caused by a wreck on the main line.
 Miss Nora Clark, who holds a responsible position with the News and Observer, Raleigh, spent the past two weeks in Chatham county, visiting in the homes of W. W. Dark, H. W. Webster, W. P. Dark, M. W. Willett, A. R. Brooks, Mrs. Francis Patterson, C. E. Clark and S. J. Culberson. From Chatham she went to Winston-Salem to visit her brother. From there she will return to Raleigh to resume her duties with the paper.

Misses Lessie and Ruby Young spent last week in Durham with relatives.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Young and children, of Durham, spent the week end with Mrs. C. T. Young.
 Miss Emily Taylor left for Raleigh this week, where she will attend school at St. Marys college.
 Misses Estis Kelly and Estelle Thomas, of Jonesboro, have been here on a short visit to Miss Louise Riddle.
 The Womans Auxiliary of St. Bartholomews Church will have a Halloween party on the night of October 31st. Everybody invited.
 Mr. Harroll Hackney, of Siler City, and Miss Mattie Eva Dorsett, of Goldston, spent the week-end with Miss Lelia Justice, on Rt. 2.
 A game of baseball will be played this (Wednesday) afternoon between Pittsboro and Fuquay Springs. Let's go and help the boys win.
 There will be an ice cream supper on the night of Saturday, September 15th, at the home of Mr. A. L. Blake, nine or ten miles from Pittsboro, for the benefit of the Womans Missionary Society, to which the public is invited.
 The August report of the meeting of the Chatham county road commissioners will be found in this paper. It was not possible for us to get it earlier. We hope to have the September report in our next paper.
 Mrs. Louis Nooe and little daughter, Ellen Ratliffe, went to Concord Sunday to attend the marriage of Miss Jessie Williford to Mr. Lee Crowell. Miss Williford is well known in Pittsboro having visited here several times. She was an attendant at the marriage of Mrs. Nooe.
 They have a new way to clean up a town of tin cans in Rockingham. The movie picture shows offer free admissions to the child who brings in three tin cans. It's a good idea and it will clean up the town of tin cans, provided some smart children don't find out where the cans are hauled and keep returning them.
 In a card to the editor from Lamar, Colorado, Mr. Frank M. Nash says: "I stood on the summit of the peak one day last week and if it hadn't been for a blinding snow storm, am sure I could have seen the court house at Pittsboro. We climbed 'up' two miles in a distance of 25 miles over the winding, twisting, serpentine, but most excellent road, in our little Ford, over the world famous Pikes Peak Highway. We are now homeward bound."

Cotton was selling in Pittsboro on Tuesday at 27 cents.
 Mrs. E. D. Carr and her guests, Misses Maggie Ellis and Miss Jenevrette Seymour were callers in the Record office Tuesday.
 Mrs. Henry London Fell and daughter, Miss Bettie London Fell, of Trenton, N. J., Mrs. James H. Cordon, of Raleigh and Mrs. Fred Jerome, of Clayton, spent Tuesday with Mrs. Henry A. London.
 Mr. Syllus Perry has sold his farm south of town to Mr. Rufus Johnson. Mr. Perry has bought the old Haughton home, with five acres of land attached.

What's the Difference in Mule Feed?
 IT'S not the amount of feed you give your mules but the kind. Just a monotonous diet of corn, oats with hay fails to supply work animals with a sufficient variety of diet to keep them in good shape. Mules fed in this fashion get plenty "to fill 'em up."
 Picture yourself sitting down to meals of bread and water. You would soon lose your health. If you could have plenty of good meat, and fresh vegetables, your health would soon come back.
 You don't need as big a bucket to measure out a feed of O-Molene as you do for a feed of corn and oats. It takes much less O-Molene.
 O-Molene contains the variety of foodstuffs necessary to keep mules in perfect condition. You get more work from them. Mules like O-Molene because it is made exceedingly appetizing by a special process of crushing the select grains. O-Molene is being used by many of the biggest mule owners in the country, because it is the cheapest in the long run.

It takes less O-Molene for a feed.
 That's because O-Molene contains the variety.

THE REAL MONEY
 OF THE UNITED STATES IS
The Check Book
 In the old days it was cattle, or tobacco, or shells, or coon skins. Then it came to be gold and silver, and paper currency.
 Any of these factors would be inadequate today. Now the bank check is the circulation medium.
 Put your money in the PAGE TRUST COMPANY'S bank. Leave it there instead of calling money out and carrying it away, in your pocket, to a store, in a tin can, in the chimney. When you want to pay a bill draw a check. There you have created currency. It pays your bill, and that same process is going on all over the United States. The vast bulk of business is done on the currency of checks, and they are sound.
 Keep your money in the bank and your check book in your pocket. Instead of keeping your money in your pocket. Then circulating currency is abundant in this country.
 And your money is SAFE.

BROKE!

And Sinking for the Third Time!
 PERHAPS YOU KNOW THAT AWFUL FEELING—the something that seems to grip our vitals when we are penniless. Most of us have experienced it at one time or another. THAT FEELING IN YOUR OWN HEART is the best advertisement on earth. But perhaps this reminder will bring home to you again the importance of systematic saving. THERE CAN BE NO REAL SUCCESS or Independence without saving!
 Do yours at—
