WHY WAIT?

I invite my Chatham county friends and all readers of The Record, to come in and inspect my new Fall Goods, that I bought while in St. Louis, attending the Fashion Show. This demonstration at the Fashion Show lasted one week, showing more than five hundred styles each day. I bought my goods direct from the patterns of the models, so you can rest assured that when you buy from us this Fall, you are getting the latest styles in Ladies Coat Suits, Ladies Hats, Ladies Coats, Ladies Gingham Dresses.

MENS SUITS, HATS AND OVERCOATS

We not only give you style, but we give you quality. We bought these goods in large quantities, so we will be able to compete with anybody in prices. Come in and give them a look and you will be convinced.

Each year Americans drink 4,000,000,000 bottles of soft drinks, exclusive of such beverages as near-beers made of cereals.

The largest alligator in captivity is thought to be several hundred years old. It weighs 1,400 pounds and is thirteen and a half feet in length. The age is determined by the width of the nose between the eye teeth.

The faithful in Turkey are now permitted to wear gold teeth, according to a decree published by the Angora Minister of Religious Affairs. The law of Mohammed forbids the carrying of any luxurious ornament except a ring, the value of which must not exceed that of a winding sheet.

Magnus Johnson, recently elected Farmer-Labor Senator from Minnesota, made the following statement: "Sixty-five per cent of the wealth of this country is in the hands of two per cent of the population, and unless there is a better distribution of this wealth, the common people are going to revolt against it."

A competition among dye-makers is to be held in an effort to produce khaki cloth that will not fade. The dyes will be applied to khaki cloth, the cloth made into uniforms, and the uniforms worn two months in the tropics. The dye that best holds its olive drab will be used exclusively by the army in the future.

The Roosevelt Newsboys' Association of Boston has started a movement to have every newsboy in the country contribute one cent to a collection of pennies to be melted down and made into a miniature production of Laddie Boy, former President Harding's famous dog. The statuette to be presented to Mrs. Harding.

Motor cars belonging to the King of England have no number plate. When His Majesty is on a ceremonial tour throughout his domain his car is distinguished by the royal standard badge which is fixed in front. At night this badge is superceded by a small blue light on the canopy above the head of the chauffeur.

To keep the Central America Republics—Costa Rica, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, Panama, San Salvador—members of the League of Nations reduced annual dues will be allowed them. Not one of these nations has paid its annual dues to the League since becoming a member. They claim their assessments are too high.

A race of Lilliputians, scarcely four and a half feet tall, live on the Adnanan Islands in the Bay of Bengal. In fishing they do not use hook and line but shoot the fish, the bowman balancing on the prow of his canoe and then following the arrow after the fish is struck. The canoes are hewn with stone tools from single logs and are very thin.

An acre burial plot near Lancaster, Ohio, was bequeathed by Nathaniel Wilson 100 years ago to President Andrew Jackson as a burial place and to his successors in the Presidency. No chief Executive has ever availed himself of the privilege, however. The donor died in 1836. Locust trees are within the inclosure and it is surrounded by a high, diagonal stone wall. The place is known locally as the "President's Acre."

Chicago is only twenty-eight per cent "American" in the strictest sense of the word. The statistics collected by the Chicago association of commerce show that seventy-two per cent of the population, or 1,947,376 persons, are of foreign birth or parentage. The Federal census classes all persons born in this country as Americans, but the association of commerce made a finer distinction. Less than twenty-five per cent of the white population of Chicago are "Americans," as classed by the association of commerce.

FUNERAL HELD IN SILER CITY.

The funeral of Mrs. Senia A. Dorsett was held in Siler City on Wednesday of last week and she was buried at Loves Creek Baptist church, Rev. Richard S. Fountain conducting the services.

Mrs. Dorsett died in Spencer on Tuesday, September 11th, where she had made her home for the past 18 years. She was 50 years old and died as a result of a serious operation in a hospital in that city. She was in apparent good health until a week before her affliction and her sudden death was a terrible shock to her relatives both in Spencer and Chatham county.

Mrs. Dorsett was a native of Chatham. She was a daughter of the late Jas. S. Dorsett, her father having died four months ago. She was the widow of Robert P. Dorsett, and she moved to Spencer from Chatham, 18 years ago.

Surviving Mrs. Dorsett is one son, Sam T. Dorsett, a merchant of Spencer, and two daughters, Mrs. A. B. Brower, of Siler City and Miss Mabel Dorsett, of Spencer, besides many other near relatives. She had been a member of the Baptist church for a number of years.

Mrs. Dorsett was a good woman, beloved by all who knew her and she will be greatly missed. A lovable, motherly disposition, and she was known to a large circle of friends.

LOCALS FROM BROWNS CHAPEL

Pittsboro, Rt. 2, Sept. 17.—Miss Lelia Mann is visiting in Gibsonville this week.

The friends and relatives of Miss Mary Perry gathered at her home and gave her a big dinner Sunday. The table was erected in the yard, 40 feet long and was filled with everything good to eat.
