FOUND A STILL.

Friday deputy sheriff C. T. Desern and special officer Lacy Johnson went over in Cape Fear township, near the Wake county line, and found what was purported to be a still—two tin tubs secured together, but the balance of the articles connected with it were copper. It was hid in a board pen.

Saturday Deck Holt, a white man, about 60 years old, on whose premises the still was found, was up before Squire John R. Blair, who bound the defendant over to October court. He gave bail.
